Jameson Point.
 It's just as big a sin to grumble as it is to swear.

It's mainly to a knowledge your future and go ahead.
 It is as bad to be smothered in luxury as to perish with hunger.

To make new mistakes is just human.
 To make old ones is foolish.

The Christianity that Christ taught is the only true philosophy of life.
 The religion a fellow lives in is all he matters how much he professes.

Faith bears the same relationship to work that lightning does to thunder.
 Talk of weeping for your sins—better quit your weeping than weep all summer.

If you can only learn to see the good in others they'll soon see the good in you.
 Peace is sometimes won on an awful battlefield, but its cost only adds to its value.

Imagine how wise it is for a fellow to have a God only to swear by and none to pray to.
 There is more honest fame in the drying up of a single tear than in shedding seas of gore.

Wonder how some mortals ever expect to get to heaven by sighing and grinding all the time.
 No man hath seen God, nor no man hath seen gratification, nor hath any man seen his own head.

Hell is where selfishness reigns. Heaven is where the unselfish Christ spirit reigns in every life.
 Many souls are more anxious to be filled with righteousness.

A fellow has a chance every day to make a fool of himself and some are doing it successfully too.
 It is only when we add to the burden of today the load for tomorrow that it is more than we can bear.

Great movements always have originated in individual minds. What is it going to do through you?
 We need today mountain top christians who can descend into the lowlands of life with light and love.

The first fly only shines when on the wing. So we, as christians, are brightest when faith is in action.
 The best thing to improve one's looks is a good clean intelligent soul behind the face just shining through.

Your wife cannot keep the commandments for you or do your religion any more than she can eat for you.
 To every mortal who does not believe Christ is what the bible claims him to be we simply say, "Come and see."

You plucked a rose and the thorn pricked your hand. Did you make more about the thorn than the rose?
 God never intends a round fellow to fit in a square hole. When you go God's way, you will fit the place he puts you.

Whooping Cough.
 A woman who has experienced with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSIE PINNEY HALL, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by J. E. Phinney.

Tennyson's Careful Writing.
 Tennyson required two or three years to produce one of his longer poems, although the work of revision consumed a greater part of the time.

Born in an Emigrant Wagon.
 Congressman Needham of California, was born at Carson City, Nev., in an emigrant wagon, his parents being on their way across the plains.

Duds Boomed His Book.
 Former Lieutenant Division of the French army announces that he has now given full satisfaction to all persons offended by his book, "Les Maritimes," and will now devote himself to the advertising of his work. M. Division's five duels have boomed his book of which 50,000 copies have been sold "which," remarks a factious Paris correspondent, "is at the rate of 10.00 per duel—good business."

WHY THEY WERE CHEAP.
 President McKinley Used to Tell a Story with a Moral.
 President McKinley used to tell with a good deal of amusement a story which related to his early days in the law. On the way to and from his office he was accustomed to pass a butcher's shop, and for a long time was puzzled by a certain notice which he saw there.
