Mrs. Robert Dunn went to Crawford Tuesday evening to meet Mr. Dunn, who has been to the Hospital for treatment of his eyes.

Leonard Dant, of Harrison, was in the city a few days the past week. While here he was treated by Dr. Furay.—Chadronian.

Mr. Emmerton of Boston, father of Lawrence Emmerton who works for John Anderson, arrived here Tuesday to visit with his son.

They have had another tornado down in Texas in which about one hundred people were killed. One town was almost totally destroyed.

G. W. Hester received a car load of mowers this week and from all appearances mowers will be in much demand in Sioux county this summer.

Messrs Jamison and Crandell closed a series of meetings at Bodarc last Sunday evening and left for Lusk Tuesday where they will hold meetings for a while.

FOR SALE:—Until Saturday night; my household goods, all nearly new. In the Turner building, first door south of the post-office. GEORGE CLAWSON.

Yesterday afternoon the citizens of Harrison gave about thirty dollars to send Orville Easter, who has been sick for the past three weeks, to his home at Bayard, Iowa. He went last night.

Wu Ting-fang, Chinese Minister to this country, has demonstrated his liberality most effectively. He is to deliver a lecture for the benefit of a church. This is a pleasant object lesson to our hide-bound sectarians.

Neil Jordan was hurt quite bad this week. He was riding after some cattle when his horse stepped in a hole falling on Neil and dragging him quite a distance. We did not learn whether he had any bones broken or not.

C. P. Pinneo, the genial life insurance agent for the Guarantee Life Fund Association, left our city Monday. Mr. Pinneo did a good business here having written about twenty-five or thirty policies and was well liked by all who met him.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. Frank Lewis, of Andrews, is seriously ill of heart trouble. Dr. Phinney was called Monday.

Later.

We learn that Mrs. Lewis is considerable better.

We see in the Rushville Standard that D. H. Griswold of Gordon, formerly of Harrison, seriously hurt himself last week in removing a stove from the Bank building and was confined to his bed. We hope Mr. Griswold is up and around by this time.

Mrs. W. O. Patterson would announce to those needing supplies for, or a new genuine Singer Sewing Machine, that having secured the agency of the same at this place, will keep at the house what you need in that line. Call and examine our machines before purchasing and get the best.

Last Sunday night and Monday forenoon Sioux county was blessed with a fine rain. This is the time of year when rains are needed and as this was a good one the stockmen and farmers now wear a happy smile on their faces. A few more such rains later on will insure Sioux county plenty of hay and good crops.

The daily papers last week gave the description of a dead body that was found floating in the Missouri river near South Omaha that filled the description of the Rev. Smith who disappeared some time ago, but upon examination by H. C Smith and L. C. Winberly it was not the body of Mr. Smith, so the mystery remains yet unsolved as to what became of him.

We see by the daily papers that Alphonso has been formally crowned as the king of Spain with much pomp and ceremony. It is said that the ceremony was on the whole lukewarm as most of the people were there either through curiosity or as sight seers. It was reported that an attempt had been made to assassinate the king but later it was found to be only the actions of a madman. The king is sixteen years of age.

With the sailing of the cruiser Dixie on the 14th inst., freighted with the charity of our country to relieve the sufferings of the people of Martinique, was given another demonstration of our ability to sink politics in the interest of a sentiment. It is true there was a small—very small opposition to the proposed response to the cry for help. No one envies the position of these would-be obstructionists, who were deaf to the appeals of humanity and mercy.

A contest case has been going on at the land office since Wednesday. The land involved is in the vicinity of Crawford. Bernard Krape made final proof on a homestead and a short time afterwards deeded it to Samuel Swinbank. Alfred Moody contested the entry alleging that Krape contracted to sell the land receiving part payment, to his father, T. P. Moody before proof was made. W. F. Fanning is counsel for Krape, the entryman. J. R. Porter for Moody, contestant, and Allen G. Fisher represents Swinbank, who holds the deed to the land. There are several witnesses, among them being F. G. and William Cooper, Fred Mason and Joseph Daugherty. The land is probably worth $160 while the costs thus far will probably amount to three times that much.—Alliance Herald.

The Harrison Shooting Club received a blue-stone shooting outfit this week and they are enjoying the evenings in practising shooting.

I am now prepared to weave carpets. 10 cts. for hit and miss and 12½ for stripped. Warp furnished at cost.

MRS. J. A. THAYER. 26-tf

Last week the Harrison House was made more neat and comfortable by having some of the rooms upstairs papered and the parlor papered and the wood work repainted.

A young lady asked an editor this question: "Do you think it is right for a girl to sit on a young man's lap even if she is engaged?" Whereupon the deitor told this extraordinary lie: "We have no experience in the matter referred to, but if it were our girl and our lap, yes; if it was another fellow's girl and our lap, yes; but if it was our girl and another fellow's lap, never! never!! never!!—Beemer Times.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSIE PINKEY HALL, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by J. E. Phinney.

A man who did odd jobs in a certain country school resigned the other day. When asked what was his reason, he replied: I'm honest and I won't stand being suspected. If I find a pencil or handkerchief about the floor when I'm sweeping, I give it up. Every now and again, however, the teacher, or someone who is too cowardly to face me, will put a slur upon me. Why, a little while ago I saw wrote on the board, Find the common multiple. Well, I looked from the cellar to the garret for multiple, and I wouldn't know the thing if I met it. Last night, in big writing on the blackboard, it said, Find the great common divisor. Well, I says both of them things are lost now, and I'll be accused of stealing them. So I 'off."—Ansley Chronicle.

County Treasurer Davis took his Sunday School class to Bodarc last Friday night to attend the revival meetings that were being held at that place. The following are the members of his class that went: Misses Dorothe Patterson, Maud Bartell, Delia Hanson, Ida Moravek Nellie Scott and Edith Burke and the young men were; John Burke Will Bartell, Howard Burke, Archie Davis and Most Burke. Barring an accident on the road back all had an enjoyable time. We are glad to say no one was seriously hurt and the trip will be long remembered by both teacher and class but we would like to offer a suggestion to those young ladies who got dumped out to never leave them alone and especially when so much depends on your safety for man is in his ugliest mood when left alone. We first censured the driver but when we found out that he was sitting there all alone and even after Miss Lillie Zimmerman had suggested that there was a very comfortable seat in front and the young ladies still persisted in occupying the one seat, we then let our sympathies rest with the driver, for we were also young and we feel sure that the mothers of the girls will agree with us.

W. A. Hester returned home Wednesday. He has been up in Wyoming the past week looking after his stock.

An unknown author has written: "People kiss their dead who never stoop to kiss their living; they hover over open caskets with hysterical sobs but fail to throw the great wealth of affection about those loved ones who are fighting the stern battles of life. How unheeding we permit the opportunities for carrying the sunshine into the lives of those we love to pass by. A word of cheer to a struggling soul in life is worth more than all the roses in Christendom piled high on casket covers. The dead cannot smell the fragrance of the flowers but the living can scatter them broadcast in their pathway, therefore, and pick out the thorns. A welcome smile, a cherry well done, an affectionate look, will cause a rift to break in lowering clouds and permit the glorious sunshine to gladden the lives of those you love."—The Frontier.

STOCK REPORT.

The past week saw the highest cattle prices of the year. Monday's receipts were light here and heavy in Chicago and the market was slow but steady. Today, receipts are light both here and in Chicago but prices are only steady, which indicates that market would probably decline under moderate receipts.

We quote 1250 to 1500 beeves at $6.70 to $7.20; 1050 to 1250, 6.10 to 6.70; 900 to 1050, 5.50 to 6.10. Choice heifers and cows up to 6.00; good 4.50 to 5.50; common, down to 1.75; calves 3.50 to 6.25; good feeding steers 4.75 to 5.35; stockers, 2.50 to 5.25.

Hog receipts for the past week have been moderate. Prices were up to the highest point for nine years. Monday and Tuesday of this week have shown a slight decline and the prices now range from 6.75 to 7.25.

Receipts of sheep have been light and the market 10 cents to 30 cents higher. We quote choice, wooled lambs 6.50 to 7.25; clipped, 5.80 to 6.50; clipped wethers, 5.50 to 6.15; clipped ewes, 4.80 to 5.60; spring lambs, 6.00 to 8.00.

INDIANS CAUSE LIVELY ROW.

They Afford an Interesting Hour for Chadron Citizens.

Chadron, Neb., May 16.—Yesterday a band of Sioux Indians from Pine Ridge reservation were camped just outside the city limits of Chadron. It is their custom to come over in small bands to Chadron to trade, and usually they are very orderly and inoffensive.

Yesterday, however, something started a free-for-all fight among them. The fight lasted until evening, and one of them, who seemed to be getting the worst of it, started to town for the marshal. Another Indian, called Black Horse, who seemed to be the leading member of the other faction, also started for the police in order to have the law on his side. They made a pretty race, and Black Horse arrived first at the house of Night watch Samson, being armed with his billy only. The fight was still on, and the officer attempted to stop it. In the fracas Samson was struck by a piece of bone, which he warded off his head with his hand. He immediately took a whack at the Indian with his billy, and a general mix-up followed. Samson went to town for his six-shooter and returned with the intention of putting the Indian under arrest. But the Indian walked into the field adjoining, and, brandishing his revolver, dared him to come on. At this point Chief of Police Sperling arrived. He was unarmed, and walked up to the Indian, and by his coolness and bravery succeeded in showing him that he would do no harm to him, and succeeded in quieting the matter down.

The Indians left here this morning, and is not thought there will be any further trouble.—World Herald.

Adelia Items.

The young folks who attended the dance at Ardmore report a fine time.

Nels Blom is now employed on the Adelia section. He says it is fine work.

A number of people from here attended the Stock Association at Crawford last Tuesday. They report it being a great success.

The school in District No. 27 will be out next Friday, then the children and teacher will say "hurrah for jolly vacation time has begun."

Miss Helen Baxter who has been engaged as teacher of the Mansfield school for the past year will return to her home in Fremont on Thursday evening.

T. P. Moody, his son and Nels Rosenburg went to Alliance last Tuesday for the purpose of seeing about some land which seems to be causing a great deal of confusion.

A. P. Roseburg seems to have very bad luck with his cattle this year. The last week he lost one fine cow, a two year old steer, and two calves. He has lost considerable number before this.

James Nelson who advertised a public sale to be held in Crawford last Saturday sold about thirteen head of cattle, one horse, and a few other articles. I don't know what was the matter, the people did not turn out better. The next time he has a sale we hope he will have better luck.

GREENHORN.

Dickens' Granddaughter Married.

Enid Dickens, a granddaughter of Charles Dickens, was married in London recently to Ernest Bourchier Hawksley, a son of Cecil Rhodes' solicitor. The young woman has won fame in literary and art circles.

The "Peanut King."

P. D. Gwaltney of Smithfield, Vt., known as "the peanut king," owns the largest peanut farm in the world. He was in the Confederate army and after the surrender at Appomattox began the work which has earned him the nickname quoted.

Painter Who Loves His Art.

J. S. J. Monks, the celebrated American painter of sheep, has pursued his favorite subject on two continents, in the New England hills and the Swiss mountains, and has slept with the shepherds and lived with the farmers in his efforts to study this most difficult of animals for painting.

Honor President Roosevelt.

President Roosevelt has been unanimously elected an honorary member of the Union League club of New York. He has been an active member of the club for about eighteen years. Presidents Harrison and McKinley were the only chief executives similarly honored by the club.

Lytton's Grandson Engaged.

The engagement of the earl of Lytton and Miss Pamela Plowden is announced from London. The earl is the son of the second earl of Lytton, better known as "Owen Meredith," and the grandson of Bulwer Lytton, the novelist. It is said he has inherited much of the mental capacity of his father and grandfather.

Great Age of Stonehenge.

Julius Caesar bears witness to the astronomical learning of the Druids. Stonehenge is accepted as a solar temple by most archaeologists, and Sir Norman Lockyer has calculated its age on the hypothesis that it was built so that the priest at the altar would just perceive the solar rays at the summer solstice. Granting his hypothesis, it appears that the date was about 1,680 years before the Christian era—some thirty-six centuries ago.

GLADSTONE'S GREAT MIND.

Activity of His Intellect at Times a Source of Sadness.

James Bryce, the English parliamentarian, whose long intimacy with Gladstone gave him unusual opportunities for studying that statesman, has published some reminiscences which show the almost unhealthy activity of Gladstone's mind. "Sometimes," says Mr. Bryce, "he felt the activity of his mind press too hardly on him. I remember one misty evening between 10 and 11 o'clock to have seen his remarkable figure a few yards before me in St. James' park. There was no mistaking him even at night, so peculiar was his walk. Thinking it hardly safe for him, famous as he was, to be alone in so solitary a place, I overtook him and asked him if I might walk with him, apologising if I should be disturbing his thoughts. 'My wish,' he answered, with a touch of sadness, 'and my difficulty is to avoid thinking, so I am glad to be disturbed.' And a year or two later he told me that to rest and distract his mind he had formed the habit of counting the omnibuses he met between his residence in Downing street and the house of commons, so as to see whether he could make an average of them, based on a comparison of the number that passed each day."
