Rev. Charles E. Rice, Mrs. Rice, Roy Pope, and Mrs. Ray the wife of Rev. Roy of Chawford, left for Colorado last Friday.
A little miss of 5, living in Washington conspired with her brother, aged 4, to save enough pennies to buy papa and mamma presents.

In Wyoming.

Mrs. J. J. Zumbrennen expects to go to Monroe, Wis. this week to visit her parents there for a month, or so.
Decorations were duly observed by the East School, Mrs. White, the teacher assisted by the pupils, gathered flowers, and made wreaths...

No rain has fallen on the Ridge since May 19, although it has rained around here. We have had several days that were quite foggy but no rain fell.
The grasshoppers have appeared in countless numbers. They are quite tame, but with plenty of locust and alfalfa they will soon attack their prey.

I AM PREPARED
To handle large jobs, such as Hotels, Store Fixtures, Stoves, Etc. Having just returned from St. Louis, Mo. I can give you the latest styles and prices for my outfit.

Adelia Items.
Mr. P. L. Bates, P. P. Rosenberg and N. P. Rosenberg assisted at the funeral service for the late Mrs. E. H. Bates...

MARRIED: Mr. Albert D. Hutschenreiter and Miss Annie M. Johnson were married last Sunday evening, June 9th, at Alliance in the presence of a few of the groom's friends.
Mrs. Charles Lang of Billings, Montana arrived Friday evening and will visit with her relatives and friends a while.

THE GREENBORS.
The dry, hot weather and especially the hot wind of Tuesday is very discouraging to those who have in small grain, unless a rain comes within the next few days all hopes of a crop will be at an end for this year in this vicinity at least.

Bodarc Cleanings.
The county commissioners are in session this week and will continue as a board of equalization for about 20 days...

THE VOLCANO'S DEADLY WORK
from the Fall of Pompeii to the Destruction of St. Pierre, by Prof. Charles Morris, L. L. D. Most interesting and complete book ever published. Complete, thrilling and accurate account of greatest disaster that ever befell the human race...
