Commissioner Meng was in Monday to sign the warrants and say howdy to his many friends in this neck of the woods.
A sister of Mrs. Sarah Jordan came in on the west bound train yesterday, and will visit relatives and friends for a while.

We learn that the Republicans agreed last Saturday at their convention to bring out Matt Hall on petition for commissioner.
S. J. Leeling made the JOURNAL office a pleasant call last Tuesday. Come a gain Sam the latch string hangs on the outside of the door.
To the lady getting the right number from a package of Three-Star Coffee now on sale at Marsteller Bros. will receive $5.00 in cash. It will pay you to try it.
If you want a snap in Ladies' and child ren shoes go to GERLACH'S where you can buy them cheaper than in any eastern city. They now have a large assortment.

GRAND BALL

A grand ball will be held at Andrew's Hall on Friday, October 24th. All are invited to attend and a good time is assured.
R. C. DENN
Frank Currie candidate for Representative of the 53 District was on our streets last Saturday. Frank said we could roast him if we wanted to but we won't for the trip up Salt river will be hard enough on him.

THE FIRST

Of the Western Live Stock Bureau's series of entertainments. There will be 4 separate entertainments in the course of the month, November 3rd, 10th, 17th and 24th at the barber shop. The dates of the others will be given later.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stasney last Tuesday, a girl baby. All concerned are doing nicely, even to Joe himself considering this is his first girl.
You want to remember Charles H. Fuller when you come to vote for he is a bright smart young man and will look after your interests at Lincoln next winter.
Mrs. Wilbermordorfer is eagerly waiting the return of Mr. Wilbermordorfer for he has written her, that he has 2 antelope already and a' he asks is for another to darken the horizon. We feel a little envious but no hurt no eat.

Irrigated farm for sale 4 1/2 miles north of Crawford, consisting of 320 acres, 100 acres under ditch, 20 acres in alfalfa, large new house, large barn. One of the best improved farms in Lawrence Co. Price $10 per acre, inquire of L. C. Lewis, Harrison or Crawford Nebr.
Prof. George W. Myers came in on the east bound train last Monday night. Mr. Myers has been working with the U. S. Geological surveyors for several months and he looks hale and hearty, alkali water didn't seem to have much effect on him only to make him more fleshy. He expects to continue work with this outfit in their southern trip this winter.
Sweet Revenge.
Freddie, the son of a well-known minister, had misbehaved, and to punish he was not allowed to sit at the family table. A small table was set for him in the corner of the dining room. When his dinner was placed before him Freddie said very solemnly:
"Lord, I think thee that thou hast spread a table before me in the presence of my enemies."—Judge.

POUNDED.
About 40 people young and old gathered at the parsonage on Tuesday night and proceeded to pound the Rev. Horton and family with all kinds of good things until the old kitchen table created under it's weight. The Reverend may goather sinners with renewed energy for a while at least. The evening was spent in games and probably a few spoons among the young folks. All had a sociable time and the preacher's heart made glad.

Old People Have Their Troubles.
Mr. Francis Little of Benton Harbor, Mich. is over eighty years of age. Since 1865 he has been troubled more or less with indigestion and constipation and has tried almost everything in use for those ailments. Last August he began using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and was soon feeling much better. In a recent letter he says, "I have used three boxes of the Tablets and now thank I am well." These Tablets improve the appetite and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. For sale by all druggists.

A Typical South African Store.
O. R. Lerman, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Lerman says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies; all testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by all druggists.

Theodore Roosevelt on "The Presidency."
Before his nomination for the Vice-Presidency Theodore Roosevelt wrote expressly for THE YOUTH'S COMPANION an article on "The Presidency." It will be published in the number for November 9th, this being one of the remaining weekly issues of 1902 sent free from the time of subscription to every new subscriber who at once sends $1.75 for THE COMPANION'S 1904 volume. When this article on "The Presidency" was written no one could have foreseen or dreamed even that its author would so soon be called upon to take up the duties of the great office. For this reason alone what Mr. Roosevelt has to say possesses extraordinary interest, and will be eagerly awaited by persons of all shades of political opinion.
A twenty-eight page Prospectus of the 1904 volume of THE YOUTH'S COMPANION and sample copies of the paper will be sent free to any address.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION
141 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass.

Rev. C. L. Smith alive and well.

So says the Sunday State Journal Mr. Smith left University Place his home on the 15th day of March for Lakeside Nebr. and he went from there with 200 head of horses to Grinnell Iowa and while on the way his horses taken sick and it seems that Mr. Smith lost control of himself and was inveigled by shrewd traders to dispose of his horses at a considerable loss and on going back to Omaha he sent his family $500 in cash and retained $100 for him self and disappeared. Efforts were made to locate him but of no avail and all the time his relatives were exhausting themselves in search. Mr. Smith was wandering aimlessly about the country. In June he came to himself completely worn out in a Hospital in a small town in the state of Washington near the coast. As soon as he was strong enough to think about his concerns he wrote a letter to his wife at University Place. The first letter written reads as if the writer was recovering from a mental lapse. He inquires of his wife, what has become of his books, papers and other belongings, and asks many more questions that makes the letter appear as the awakening of a mind long at rest. He says his mind was a perfect blank after experience at Grinnell. He remembers nothing of the incidents that happened since, and could not say where he had been. He first came to himself in the hospital where he was taken, having as has been learned, fallen exhausted on the streets of the town. A correspondence was carried on with him, and he was urged to come back to his home, but he seemed to think he had disgraced himself and that his family and friends would not receive him. He begged them to be as lenient with him as possible and asked their forgiveness. He is now working in a livery barn at Eugene Oregon. He speaks of having seen R. H. Cooper in one of the places where he was and also mentions the names of other Nebraskans whom he knows and has seen. Mr. Smith is unduly sensitive as he always has been but we hope he will return to his family and friends who will only be glad to receive him.

The supper given by the Epworth League on last Friday night was a grand success both financially and otherwise. At 6:20 the JOURNAL reporter stepped into the room where the oysters were being sizzled and the coffee pots a boiling and remarked to the cook, Mr. Anderson, that there was about as hungry a looking lot of people waiting for a bowl of eat to be announced as we have seen in a long time, but this did not discourage the cook, he only said, let em' come and they did come, and for about 2 hours all you could hear was the clinking of bones and the rattle of dishes until all the chicken, oysters, and good things were devoured, and the cook may feel thankful that he escaped with his life. When it comes to eating chicken the Harrisonites can put to rout any Methodist preacher living and we believe the Rev. Horton will agree with us. Well talk about waiters, Messieurs Marsteller, Wilmore, and Wilbermordorfer assisted by Miss Heitler, Wright, and the gamut of local Parsons sure made things move. They walked into the dining room and threw off their hats and bowties, and my mister, all you could see was a stream of coffee hitting here and there until this hungry crowd holedered enough. This great crowd of happy beings retired to the hall with full stomachs, ready to listen to the short program that had been hastily prepared for the occasion. Prof. Dunn with his orchestra gave some fine selections of instrumental music which was very much appreciated by the audience, and recitations were given by Helen Clark, Lucy Moravek and Miss Heitler, but the climax of the evening came when Olivet Dunn appeared on the stage and sang the song, "I don't care if you never come back, and enclose return enclose followed and on her return to the stage she rendered the song, "I am certainly living a Rag Time life, with such effect that the crowd cheered her to an echo, and the enthusiasm and appreciation got to great for county clerk Raum and he grabbed his hat and there was quite a shower of silver for a time, and he took and dumped it into the lap of Miss Olivet, and she was again called to the stage and she brought down the house with cheer after cheer by singing, "Stay in your own back Yard. We feel that every one felt satisfied and will long remember the pleasant evening spent under the auspices of the Epworth League of Harrison, to which praise can't be given the salaries and other committees for labor and efforts put forth to make this supper a success, and if $40.70, the receipts of the evening means anything it was a success, and we feel that the League will show a winner to find committees after this when they want to have a pleasant time. Prof. Dunn and his corps of teachers should be complimented by our people for the interest they took in making things pleasant for every one, for they worked like beavers and the Professor shows that he was no novice at that work, which our young ladies surely prize in their hats.

County Men.

The PRESS-JOURNAL has printed a limited number of maps on Manila card board which can be secured for 10c each. They will also be given as a premium to new subscribers.

The excitement incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason no one should leave home without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all druggists.

Andrew Happenings.

We are looking for some young people from Harrison Sunday afternoon to be present at our Sunday School at 2:30.
Miss Lillian Harris taught last Saturday to make up for time lost when painting the school house.
Mrs. L. M. Proctor visited the Andrews school last Saturday and was greatly pleased with the work done there.
The fish car came here Saturday and brought fish for Mr. Russell.
Two new scholars added to our school Monday. Pearl Shepherd age 11 and Ralph Shepherd age 7, making the number enrolled now twelve.

We are sorry to lose one of our best scholars, Carl Madison. He is now herding cattle for Mr. Hunter.
Miss Lillian Harris and Pearl Jones visited Elizabeth's school at Glen Friday Oct. 10th and found the school in good working order. After visiting the school they went to Mr. Webers and were hospitably entertained. They returned Sunday afternoon in time for Sunday School.
The Sunday School at Andrews was well attended last Sunday. Supt. Burke and wife and baby surprised us by stepping in. We were all glad to see them and were especially delighted to see their sweet baby. We hope the weather will permit them to visit us often. The Sunday School thank Supt. Burke for his kind words of encouragement and the interesting points that he brought out on the lesson. It helps so much in our work here to have some one come from a distance and speak for us, especially when we know the life of the speaker. Supt. Burke is known throughout the country for his zeal in Sunday School work. This is his second visit here. We thank him for this interest in our behalf. Come again.

Carey Items.

Many things have happened since the last items were sent.
The threshing machine with it's nose and dust has been here and gone and everybody seems glad of it.
Mrs. Etiza Dove Ullmann has been here and visited with her sister Mrs. O. C. Talley for a few days and gone to the eastern part of the state to join her husband where she expects to receive medical aid.
Mrs. A. Proctor is at the Pine Ridge Agency visiting her daughter Mrs. Boss.
Mr. and Mrs. Harley Saxton are now living in Chadron where he has secured employment on the railroad.
Mrs. Jane Griffin has gone to Wyo. She expects to make her home there in the future.
Carl M. Lux gave a horse warming in his new residence last Wednesday night. It is reported that there was a good attendance and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.
John Dickey left for Casper, Wyo. on Monday, and H. Spurgeon started for the eastern part of this state on the same day.
On Saturday Miss. Minta Spense went to Chadron to attend the Academy.
Samuel Garman, grandson of S. W. Carey, died at New Castle Wyoming Oct. 19th, 1902. His remains were interred in the Union Star cemetery Oct. 23th. The deceased spent his boyhood days on Cottonwood living close here with his grandparents at the age of 7 yrs. He was 24 yrs. old at the time of his death and leaves many friends to mourn his loss.
TIMOTHY.

We learn that John Arner is now in jail at New Castle awaiting trial for the killing of a steer which belonged to Mr. Ford, Ex. Co. Clerk of Scotts Bluff Co. From what we can learn about the matter Mr. Arner was going to meet the round up as a representative of Sheldon & Pinsky, and it seems that the round up had not reached there yet, but a sheep pen was passing through and Mr. Arner found them in camp at this place and they had butchered the animal and now try to lay it on Mr. Arner and as there are two against him it will cost him money and trouble to get out of it. After he learned that he was suspected of the act he went back to the ranch of Sheldon and Pinsky and informed them of the charge and they advised him if he was not guilty to go back, and he did so and was arrested as above stated. Viewing the case from what we can learn and being acquainted with Mr. Arner for the past 14 years we can't help but believe that Mr. Arner is innocent of the crime charged against him. The animal was killed but will any reasonable man think for a moment that a man going across the country with a string of horses to meet a round up would think of doing such a thing, the idea is preposterous and we will have to hear a different report than we have before we can think for a moment that Mr. Arner would do such a thing. Ed Lee and a man named Tate are the two men that were with the band of sheep that stopped at the place where the beef was butchered, and Mr. Arner says they are the ones that did it and asked him to partake of it which he did, and so would any hungry man do and according to the custom of round-ups if he had had a wagon and they had offered him a quarter he would no doubt have taken it, but we are sure that no two men can convict by their evidence an innocent man which we believe Mr. Arner to be.

The Diaz Doctrine.

The London Chronicle gleefully directs attention to the fact that at a recent session of the pan-American conference in the City of Mexico a Mexican delegate proposed the "Diaz doctrine" as pendant to the Monroe doctrine.
The latter, as is well known, prohibits European nations from making territorial acquisitions in South America. The "Diaz doctrine" goes many steps farther and prohibits any state of the American hemisphere from acquiring any territory at the expense of any other American state.
The "Diaz doctrine" is sound in principle and would be a fitting pendant to the doctrine of our own Monroe. Whether it will commend itself to our statesmen is a very different matter.—Baltimore Sun.

Bob Bryson formerly of this place was shot and killed in a saloon at Gillette last Saturday. Two drunken men were fighting with revolvers and poor Bob happened to be in the way of a stray bullet.—Lusk Herald.
Bob will be remembered by a good many of our old timers.

Job's Wife.

To the patience of Job a whole book is devoted.
To that of his wife not an instance is noted.
Though heaven forbid that her grief we should probe;
With the rest of her troubles she also had Job!
