HARRISON HAPPENINGS

G. W. Hester went to Omaha Monday evening.

John Tild was in from Indian creek, Tuesday.

Ed Hollingsworth was in town, the first of the week.

J. G. Merriam, was a Harrison visitor last Wednesday.

Cale Parsons and Joseph Reed started to school Monday.

The weather has been somewhat cool for the past few days.

Sunday school at 10 o'clock; every body invited. W. H. Davis, Supt.

Chet Unit shipped 5 cars of cattle to Seward county, this state, last Saturday.

Just received: A new consignment of men and boys clothing at GERLACH'S.

John Musley, from Adelia brought in the election returns from Sugar Land precinct.

Charles Smith, brought in Pull book and ballots from Huming water precinct.

F. E. Jandt returned from Omaha Wednesday, where he has been marketing cattle.

The teachers' association will be held in Crawford on November 28 and 29, will give program later.

S. R. Story, from Astelope precinct, brought in the election returns from that precinct Wednesday.

John Brown, from near Five Points, was shaking hands with his friends in Harrison Wednesday.

More and better goods for the same money at Gerlach's store than any other place, try them. 19-11

A deal was consummated last Monday in which Sant Crawford disposed of his interest in the sawmill to R. C. Madsen.

The jury was dismissed by Judge West over for the November term of court, there being no jury cases on the docket.

Jess Hill and Will Hunter, who have been working for Nate Bauer up near Lusk, returned home last Saturday night.

Wesley Canon is working in the Sun office this week, so we guess the editor of the Sun is torturing himself as did the JOURNAL man last week.

John Blomberg and M. J. Weber represented Glen in Harrison, Wednesday, and each made a pleasant call at our sanctum while in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rose and family from Hewitt, were visiting Grandma Rose, the first of the week. They also visited friends in the valley.

Quarterly Meeting Sunday, Nov. 16th. Preaching by Elder Schumacher, both morning and evening.

L. W. HORTON, Pastor.

If you want a snap in Ladies and child reus shoes go to GERLACH'S where you can buy them cheaper than in any eastern city. They now have a large assortment.

Enough returns have come in from the north part of the county to assure Mr. Dan Jordan's election by about 15 majority. The official count may change this a few votes.

Harry Ford, who has been working for F. B. Langworthy all summer left for his home at Seward last Saturday. He and Frank Lewis accompanied Chet Unit with the cattle.

Election being over, our candidates will have more time for considerable thought and our city and country papers will have more time to hunt up something startling and sensational.

John Hickey, from near Canton, was a Harrison visitor Wednesday and he informed us that they are going to have a church near the line of Box Butte and Sioux counties, but the building will be located in Sioux county. We are glad to know that the people of that part of the county can have a church for their own building that respects the feelings of all people as does the house of God.

On account of Quarterly Meeting the 15th there will not be any preaching at Harrison next Sunday morning. Preaching in the evening at 8 o'clock.

L. W. HORTON, Pastor.

Miss Lillie Dorman from Central, Kansas came in on the west bound train last Friday, and will spend the rest of school district No. 15 this winter, we are glad to welcome Miss Dorman to our corps of teachers.

Out this out and take it to J. E. Pannoy's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best Prescription. They cleanse and invigorate the Stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c per box.

Irrigated farm for sale 4 1/2 miles north of Crawford, consisting of 320 acres, 100 acres under ditch, 20 acres in alfalfa, large new home, large barn. One of the best improved farms in Davies Co. Price $10 per acre. Inquire of L. C. Lewis.

Harrison or Crawford Neb.

ALIBERAL OFFER.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. For sale by J. E. Pannoy.

On account of the inclemency of the weather Monday night there was not a very large crowd out to meet the Main Quarterly of the Lyceum Bureau. Several have expressed themselves as being well pleased with the entertainment and we must say their voices were well trained for the different parts sung.

We received the following information from a resident of Lawrence as to what crops were raised there this year. We will give a few as a sample.

John Spouse threshed 3597 bushels, Carl Lux 2647 bushels, John Meeker 2539 bushels, Oren Tidy 2223 bushels, Anton Meeker 2107 bushels, and there was a great number that had from 100 to 1000 bushels. All that Sioux county wants is rainfall and she won't take a back seat for any county in the state.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles cured my cold and the pain in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, 64-Thirty seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by all druggists.

"Last winter an infant child of my neighborhood died of a violent form," says Edna John W. Rodgers, a Christian Evangelist of E. Bay, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all Druggists.

Beezes from Glen.

We had no school Tuesday on account of election being held in the school house.

A halibut gift to Mr. and Mrs. Puddy—a baby girl.

We missed church services last Sunday because Rev. Sloan was taken sick and could not fill his appointment. However we had a good Sunday School as usual, 11:30 A. M. being the hour. We were always glad to receive visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Weber were visitors at Mr. Neese's last week. They had a splendid time and came home with a large bunch of ducks which we all enjoyed very much. We hope they will go again soon.

Jim Johnson is feeling proud over the boy that arrived at his home a few days ago. He is just in time to vote.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Morrenson's little girl is able to be around once more.

It is reported that our school room looks better than it ever did before. We are glad that our school is attractive as well as instructive. Perhaps if every teacher would fix up her school room the scholars would be more willing to attend.

Last night we had our first snow storm and it was pretty hard on most of the crops, but this one is still able to enjoy his cresset around Glen.

"Ben"

The entertainment given by the Harrison school last Friday night was largely attended and the program was excellent. There was some complaint of undue noise and confusion by some, we are sorry to say, for such should not be the case where so much labor and time have been spent by the teachers in drafting the pupils for this occasion. This is a work given by the teachers and should be appreciated by the public enough to give their whole attention that all might enjoy the exercises. We hope we won't hear this complaint in Harrison again.

We have made arrangements with the publishers of the Young People's Weekly one of the best periodicals of its class, so that we can furnish said paper in connection with the Press-Journal each year for the small sum of $1.25 for both papers or to those in arrears on subscription, they will pay what they owe and 25 cents extra we will send the Young People's Weekly one year. Those who have paid in advance for the Press-Journal will want a first class paper for the young folks can come in on the deal also, by paying 25 cents extra.

The Young People's Weekly has reached its marvelous success, and attained a circulation of over 210,000 copies a week because it contains interesting young readers. Its popularity extends to thousands of parents who recognize in it one of the best aids in keeping young folks in a healthy touch with the active world, giving them a taste for clean, vigorous, and interesting truths in their most attractive form.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News for All Who Suffer With Rheumatism.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published.

No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, migratory, inflammatory, rheumatic, neuralgic, sciatic, gout, lambrago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many remedies "snake-oils" you have used—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how your father was cured.

I am neither a doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day as I will send you by return mail this wonderful cure. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied, discouraged with "doctoring" and whose hope has been cast aside as "uncurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you my experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

WHY WOMEN SHOULD VOTE.

The women who vote becomes an important factor in life, for double reasons. In the first place, when a woman votes, the candidate must take care that his conduct and record meet with a good woman's approval, and this makes better men of the candidates.

In the second place, and far more important, is this reason:

When women shall vote, the political influence of the good men in the community will be greatly increased. There is no doubt whatever that women, in their voting, will be influenced by the men whom they know. But there is also no doubt that they will be influenced by the men whom they know.

Men can deceive each other much more easily than they can deceive women—the latter being provided with the X-ray of intuition and perception.

The blustering politician, preaching what he does not practice, may hold forth on the street corner or in a saloon, and influence the votes of others as worthless as himself. But his home life will more than offset his political influence among women.

The bad husband may occasionally get the vote of a deluded or frightened wife, but he will surely lose the votes of the wives and daughters next door.

Voting by women will improve our country, because it will compel men to be better and give the approval of women.

Our social system improves in proportion as the men in it are influenced by its good women.—New York Journal.

Andrew Happenings.

There were 23 present at our Sunday School last Sunday. Five came from Harrison—viz. Mr. Howard and Julius, and Edith Burke, Osa Sageser and her sister. The three girls sang a beautiful song for us. We hope that the Harrison young people can come often and favor us with a song or talk as they choose; it adds interest in our work here. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Jones took his family and Miss Ellen Harris to Harrison to enjoy the entertainment. They arrived at Mrs. Baldwin's in time for supper and all went to the entertainment and enjoyed it very much. After the entertainment they returned to Mr. Baldwin's where they were well cared for. They arrived at Andrews Saturday at 4 o'clock.

Jan Christensen and Loran Lewis were also present at the entertainment; they went up on the morning train, Loran on horseback.

The "Tally Pull" at Mrs. S. E. Jones' was a success. Miss Elizabeth Harrison from Glen was present, also Mrs. Jensen, Frank Ollrich, and others. They had all the tally and pound candy. They could eat, besides the fun that even children when young people pull tally. Afterward songs were sung and all left happy.

Mr. Crawford was in Andrews Sunday to be returned to his work taking Mrs. Hansen and his daughter Marie with him. We wish Marie success under her new position as cook there.

Andrew's school had a change in the play after the vacation. The students recited some poems or readings, which they recited beautifully, sang songs, and in their dancing had some good competition after spending week dismissed.

Miss Ellen Harris will visit her sister Osa this week. She will leave Andrews Friday and return Sunday to Sunday School at 2:30.

In Wyoming.

After a two week's vacation will try to open a few more.

Every one is busy preparing for what is being called the "big" one, so new suits to be scarce.

A couple of men were camped in our neighborhood for a few days last week who seem to be leading an unique life. They were traveling with two wagons, provided with tent and other paraphernalia for such a life. Their business was buying poultry, hides, and furs. They hauled the poultry around with them and when they camped, geese, chickens, and ducks were turned out to graze, and a trained dog was put in charge of them. Who sure knew his business and meant to do it. They were on their way toasper but were working in the interests of an Omaha firm.

We are glad to welcome our young friend Wesley Canon back to the land of mid-winter once more, but are almost afraid to look into the printers' den for fear we may get fired.

We hear that George Shatto has decided to make his home here as he has taken a quarter section of Uncle's land.

Uglt winter seems to have arrived at last. On last Saturday it began raining early in the morning, then resided in rain and began with fresh vigor when soon turned into snow. It snowed most of the time from ten o'clock until night. Yesterday, Len and Jim Christian made the trip to Lusk and back and say winter, one sure got the benefit of the changes.

T. B. Tatman started for Walla Walla Wash week ago Monday. He did not sell his farm out but it with his son-in-law, H. Fancies, to dispose of it he can get a buyer.

As this is written the day before election we are not able to count noses, but will anticipate and say that the whole Republican ticket for state and county passed elected. Of course every one who has parties know that G. V. Richards and F. W. Mondell, M. C. will have a walk away.

Word reached us of the sudden death, at Lusk, Iowa, of Riley Gomer and wife, which occurred on Friday, Oct. 24. Mr. Gomer was an uncle of Mrs. Eva E. Christian and Mrs. J. B. Newlin. The news were very meager but state that the husband died at 4 o'clock in the morning and the wife in the afternoon. They were very aged and their joint demise had been expected for some time.

We are glad to welcome the Andrew correspondent to our ranks and hope they will not quit all together now. Perhaps she has been too busy writing papers and drinking coffee to think of writing in this out here who have to live on fat and drink creek water.

ZIMM

We are unable at the time of going to press, to give any definite news as to the result of the election. So far as we can learn it will probably require the efficient count to decide the result of Governor and the Representative of this district. Hitchcock of Omaha was elected over Metzer.

THE COUNTY PAPER.

Amid the pile of papers That swamp my desk each day And drive me weak with clipping And fling stuff away,

Comes once a week—on Thursday— That quaint old four-page sheet That's printed up in Peñant, A drowsy county seat

You see, 'twas up in Peñant That first I saw the light, And—well, my heart grows softer And I feel my eyes shine bright;

Right reverent my touch is, It spreads the columns wide, The head's what I'm seeking— Not the patented inside.

Ah, here it is, "The County," And "Jottings," "Local News"— You learn who's traded horses And who has rent of jaws;

It tells about the school house Where we used to sit and dream, A-waiting, dust speck dancing In the sunlight's shifty beam.

The sturdy names of boyhood Come tumbling through our thoughts, Of Tom and Buck and Patsey— How we loved and how we fought!

The friends when years grew graver, Called now beyond our ken, In the type lines of the paper They live and speak again.

O, folks in life's workshops, All not these dream-visions sweet, Which memory casts about us When past and present meet?

And so, I love that paper From the v' face in the hills, For the old life that it wakens, For the weariness it stills.

—Nathaniel S. Olds, The Shippenburg Chronicle.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The gravest apprehension is felt in administrative circles over the statement which President Baer made to the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission, that there were numerous operators in the anthracite field who were not committed to the arbitration proceedings and who were not even consulted in the negotiations preliminary thereto. Were it not for the fact that the election is so close and that so much hinged on the belief that the coal strike was settled and settled for three years, it is more than probable that the President would have communicated with Mr. Baer and asked him what he meant by that statement, in view of his representations at the White House. As it is, the people believe that Mr. Roosevelt has settled the strike and it is desired that they shall do so, at least until after election.

The argument which it is feared Mr. Baer and his associates, in the event that the Commission finds against them, will advance, is that it would be unreasonable of the President to ask them to abide by the decision of the Commission without insisting on that decision being equally respected by their competitors. Of course the President cannot insist on anything except through Baer and the other railway presidents who participated in the conference and subsequent agreement at the White House. The Commission has invited its other operators, those whom Mr. Baer declares were "in no way compromised" by his agreement, to participate in the sessions of the Commission and to voluntarily submit themselves to the same investigation as the railway presidents, but there is no reason to believe that they will do so unless Mr. Baer and the other trust magnates insist and that they have practically refused to do. There is no doubt but that the work of the commission will be hampered with painful anxiety from Washington and it is more than possible that the next meeting will bring out important developments.

Candles.

"I thought candles went with stage-coaches, but a good many people must use them yet," said a shopper who pointed to a collection of candlesticks, all of the utility sort, arranged in a home furnishing department. There were big and little, ornamental and plain, practical and unpractical ones. Some had broad trays and others had none at all, and some had devices for lifting the flames, while others were made with deep necks. There still remain people who cling to the traditions of their ancestors and will have none of the modern lighting inventions for their sleeping rooms. Certain women prefer a light in their bedrooms until they are asleep, and for this purpose a candle is just the thing, for it will put itself out at the time proportioned by its length.—New York Tribune.
