Marcus Valdez and Henry Moravik went to their ranch on Lance creek, Wyo. Monday, to look after their stock there.

Scott Metz was at the county seat last Monday and bought a quarter section of land that was sold by the county Treasurer on that day.

The country is again called to mourn the loss of one of her great men, Thomas B. Reed, Ex Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Charles Russell, so Charlie's only hope now lies with the Governor, in the shape of a pardon.

Camp No. 55 of the Woodmen of the World met last Saturday night and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Consul Commander J. B. Burns, Banker W. H. Davis, Advisory Lieutenant V. A. Hester, Clerk J. J. Davis, Editor W. B. Maister, Water man E. A. Estler, Secretary L. Therman.

MASQUERADE BALL.

County Maps. The PRESS-JOURNAL has printed a limited number of maps on Manila card board which can be secured for 10c each. They will also be given as a premium to new subscribers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Greenwell came in on the west bound train Wednesday; They have been visiting relatives and friends in the east. We are glad to welcome them back, and no doubt Charlie is a much happier man.

In the advertisement of Dr. Reichard in last week's issue, the figure 9 got reversed and read Dec. 6, and we did not notice same until it was too late for correction. We hope our mistake did not inconvenience any one.

The singing class met Tuesday eve, at 7:30 and spent a very enjoyable hour hammering away at De, and we think if the leaders patience holds out we will get Re later on. Three more new members added their names to the roll.

If you want a ring for your best girl, or anything else in the jewelry line, call on J. H. Wilhelmsdorfer. All goods warranted.

The following is being heartily amen'd by all the members of the fraternity: "God bless our wives, they fill our lives with happiness and honey; they mend our socks and mend our shoes, but Lord they do spend money."—Exchange.

To all that know themselves indebted to Chas. J. Hibbeln, will do him a favor by settling up with him as soon as possible. C. J. Hibbeln.

We received a communication from Adena this week but as there was no name attached to it we could not publish it. We are always glad to get the news, but we must know who we get them from. So we hope the party that sent this won't get offended. Editor.

Bessemer (Mich.) Free Press: A Bessemer woman cured her husband of staying out late at night by going to the door when he came home and whispering through the keyhole, "Is that you, Willie?" Her husband's answer is John, and he stays home every night now, and sleeps with one eye open and a revolver under his pillow.—Western Publisher.

On last Tuesday evening a number of our young people gathered at the home of Mrs. Earnest Lyon, to honor her birthday. They all enjoyed themselves very much playing games & etc. until about half past ten o'clock, and after wishing her many such birthdays they all departed for their homes feeling that the evening had been enjoyably spent.

An exchange says: A young man who had been converted at a North Methodist campmeeting declared that all pride and self-conceit had been taken out of his heart. To prove it he said he would go down among the audience and kiss an old colored woman. As he went down the aisle the old colored woman rose to her feet and said: "Look a hyer, brudder, you may not hab no pride, but I has; you can't hobsonize me 'foh all dese white folks."—Ex.

The singing class met Friday night and organized by electing Mrs. Wilhelmsdorfer as leader of the class, and Miss Susie Capper, Treasurer, Miss Ona M. Heitler, Secretary, and J. M. Stinson, Usher. There was quite an interest shown by the members of the class present, and seven new members were enrolled, and we predict an interesting and instructive time for all members of the class. The leader Mrs. Wilhelmsdorfer, has shown herself an untiring worker in every thing she has taken part in; so the class may feel themselves lucky in securing her as a leader for this class. The class will meet at 7:30 o'clock every Tuesday evening at the church, and let all members be present, for an absent of three nights in succession will cause you to lose your membership.

In Wyoming.

An epidemic of bad colds seems to have reached the settlement last week.

F. B. H. Collins youngest child is very sick with pneumonia. We hope to hear of its recovery soon.

Word was received the last of the week, that Mrs. Had Church, who went to Omaha for treatment, has had an operation performed for internal cancer, and passed through it all right.

Little Nellie Newlin had a severe attack of cold on the lungs, which almost terminated in a case of pneumonia on last Saturday night; She is better at this writing.

What became of our items last week? Were they cast into the office stove or did they fail to reach the print shop?

Charles Christian was elected principal of the Harrison school last week. He was raised to $93 per month and has a six months term. He is well pleased with the work and we predict for the patrons a school second to none in the county. Success to you Charlie.

Preparations are being made for a Christmas tree and school exhibition to be held in the hall on Xmas eve. The two schools are to combine and no doubt the entertainment will be good, but right here comes along Ray, I. R. Hicks and puts up a weather table which knocks it all to smithereens. He says we'll get it in the neck out here on Christmas day.

And along comes Bob Jordan and cuts on the span of 2 yr. old cuts that John says bought of John Tramm; they were identified by the man from whom Bob got them, existing one of the best horses in the county. He says we'll get it in the neck out here on Christmas day.

As these seasons are being written we are in the harness of a hard winter. The snow is piled from three inches to three feet deep. The ordinary snows around here mark the winds in the south and the sky is hidden by a heavy cloud.

Whelp, who says that we can't beat the Redskins in a good, solid Arctic winter? Let's send for Peary to look for the North Pole.

If Jimmy McAnn and that passenger train gets south now what will they do when winter comes on?

Rev. Horton began a series of protracted meetings at the hall week ago. Monday the weather has been so inclement that the attendance is not what it would be if that Arctic winter was not upon us.

Bob and Dick Jordan and Bud Johnson shared the best of our hearts a while with us on last Sunday. They were on their way to John Davis but were compelled to warm their stoves while at the weather was chilly. By the way Bud treated his nose a little.

Mrs. Ellis, mother of Lo Wilson and Mrs. Fred Bond, who has been visiting here since in September, left the first of last week for an extended visit with relatives in Nebraska and Iowa. Lo went as far as Valentine with her. ZIEHL.

Your last weeks items have not reached us as yet. Editor.

Mr. Lyon, father of Ed and Earnest, is paying Sioux county a visit along with the boys. Mr. Lyon speaks very highly of Arkansas and says he expects to spend the rest of his days there. We enjoyed a visit from Mr. Lyon, and had a quiet social chat, political and otherwise. Mr. Lyon has received a pension from the Government since leaving here, which fact we are glad to announce, for we truly believe that all old soldiers that were honorably discharged should receive a pension. ZIEHL.

On Saturday evening while Reverend Father R. H. Black was going to the B & M depot to take the train for Hemingford he fell into a trench on the railroad grounds and fractured the bones of his left leg, between the ankle and knee joints. Dr. Hartwell set the fracture and he is doing as well as can be expected. The trench is caused on account of the water pipes leading to the water tank being taken up to be replaced by larger pipe, and was carelessly left without a danger signal. Father R. H. Black was accompanied to the depot by Mrs. Herman Rose, of Hemingford who was on her return home after visiting friends in this vicinity.—Hemford Bulletin.
