A Mother's Recommendation.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. MOORE, North Star, Mich. For sale by all Druggists.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.
To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published.

No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformed, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lam'ago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured.

I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied, and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RANDOLPH, Minneapolis, Minn.

Will Not Protect Children.
Lady Henry Somerset is deeply grieved over the attitude of the House of Commons towards the children's bill, which would prevent little children from going into public houses.

BATHS FOR THE POOR.

Articles of a System Proved Beneficial in Philadelphia.

So successful has been the work of the public baths association of Philadelphia, whose initial establishment on Oakhill street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, that it will in a few months be in possession of a new and in some respects much better building, dedicated to the same beneficial purpose. A lot 24x57 feet at 718 Wood street has been purchased by the association for $3,375 and probably in March the work of construction will be begun. It is hoped that it will be completed by the middle of June.

The public bath and wash house in Oakhill street was opened nearly four years ago. At the end of its third year 105,348 baths had been taken there. This year the number of baths will be fully 52,000, or more than 1,000 a week. In December 1,500 baths were taken, 1,475 in the first fifteen days.
The Public Baths association does not consider its work a charity in the almsgiving sense. It believes baths can be had by the poor at a minimum price; that they are more appreciated and therefore are more regularly taken and do more good than those which cost nothing to the person benefited. Besides, the public baths offer what the city free baths do not—privacy and the use of hot water and of showers, together with an ample supply of soap and towels. It has cost about $5,000 a year to maintain the Oakhill street bathing establishment, says the Philadelphia Times, and the deficit at the end of 1907 was 25 per cent, having steadily decreased since the place was opened.
