

Permitting insured property to beforfeited policy.

An agent of an express company, D., and collects the charges thereon, intoxicating liquors to the purchaser, these named above. though he has reason to believe, or knows, that the goods so consigned and delivered are intoxicating liquora

An injunction to prevent a baseball serve a certain organisation for a stipulated time, during which he is not Club vs Lajoie (Pa.), 58 L. R. A. 227, where he is an expert player, and is public because of his great reputation ing. for ability in the position which he

Members of labor organizations are held, in National Protective Association of Steamfitters and Helpers vs. Cumming (N. Y.) 58 L. R. A. 135, not to be liable for causing the discharge of nonmembers by notlfying the common employer that they will stop work unless nonmembers are discharged, and it is held that they will not be enjoined from so doing where they act for the good of their organization, and not from malice, or a desire to injure

The liability of an abutting owner for injury from a fall on ice on a side walk, formed from water from his drainpipe, is held, in Brown vs. White (Pa.), 58 L. R. A. 321, not to be modiin the municipality to drain water from roofs and waste pipes across the accumulate and freeze on the sidewalk to the injury of travelers.

turnpike and toll bridge, which did eau, was puzzling over the management not have an exclusive franchise, by of half a million former slaves in Ala-, wh m | they were guarding. The the establishment of a free bridge as bama, he found Secretary of War Edpart of the public highway, is held win M. Stanton a staunch supporter. 58 L. R. A. 155, not to be a "taking" he was always kind. He was, said It is reported that the total of the tats are doing well but the planting and the turnelle and the turnel of the property of the turnpike com report, "unapproachable;" yet Gen. bands of insurgents in the field ex. of corn is being delayed. The fruit the found of the expense, tions in human philosophy. pany for which compensation is required. The other authorities as to One day Secretary Stanton drove to quired. The other authorities as to One day Secretary Stanton drove to rights and duties to toll-bridge pro the War Department in baste, on his forces are dispersing. He says the prietors are collected in a note to this way to an important meeting with the

New Executive Building.

The new executive building contains a central reception room, about which are arranged a spacious cabinet room, a suite of rooms for the President, of fices for his secretary, and for one of the assistant secretaries, a telegraph had a little business talk, and then Gen. and telephone room, a large room for the clerks, one for the press, and ible curiosity adequate file-rooms. Planned under the supervision of Mr. Cortelyou, the President's secretary, the new office building contains every convenience for the dispatch of the great and constantly increasing work of the executive. Intentionally subordinated to the White House, both in location and in architecture-or lack of it-the President's offices in time will be made still less conspicuous by the growth of vines; and when once the public be comes used to the building, it will be only less noticeable than the ivy-cov ered wall it replaces.-Century.

Those Little Glass Boxes. Having occasion to prescribe an ex tremely unpaipatable dose for a pa tient, and wishing to make the situa tion as pleasant as posible for the suf ferer, a physician ordered the medi cine to be put up in gelatine capsules On his next visit the patient-a womar by the way-said-

"Doctor, I took that medicine and it did me some good, but I had a terrible time to open those little glass boxes it was in. The next time you groom patiently waiting at the changive me anything like that, won't you cel steps. The lonely misery of his please get the druggist to see that the position touched their hearts, and inlittle glass boxes come apart more stead of waiting in the porch for the easily?"

Inst Like a Doll.

"That Miss Plithers is a perfect beau ty, isn't she?" said the first young man Well, yes; she is rather pretty," conceded the second young man. "But, af ter all, hers is a doll-like beauty."

"That's so. I had noticed a certain waz doll precision and exactness in he

"Oh, the resemblance goes further than that. One evening last week 1 called on her, and when I was leaving I slyly equeened her, and she yelled 'mamma!" -- Judge.

BREAKFAST IN PERSIA.

It Is a Very Simple Meal Even Among

Persians took on fruit as a staple food, and the ordinary meal of the working classes and peasantry is a loaf of bread and a pound or two of grapes or apricots. The author of "In the Land of the Lion and Sun" says that meat is seldom eaten by the poor. He describes some of the favorite foods of the coun-

"Mast" is much consumed. This is curdled milk, and is made by adding a little curdled milk to fresh milk warmed. It is then left to cool, and the basin of cardled milk sets in a few hours, leaving the cream on the top. For the first twenty-four hours this is sweet and come vacant and unoccupied for a delicious, but as a rule the Persian does period of twelve days, in violation of not care for it until it has become delicious, but as a rule the Persian does provision of the policy, is held, in Ger slightly acid. When in this state about man Insurance Company vs. Russell half a pint added to a quart of water (Kas.) 58 L. R. A. 234, to immediately forms buttermilk, or "doogh." A little forfeit the policy; and the fact that cut mint is added, and a few lumps of the property is reoccupied before a ice, and a cooling drink is made. It is loss occurs is held not to revive the without question a capital thirst-quencher in hot weather.

Cheese, too, is much eaten for the who, in good faith, delivers to the con- morning meal, with a little mint or a signee, or upon his order, goods car few onlons. The banker at Shiraz, to ried by his principal, consigned C. O. whom the government moneys were entrusted, a rich man, told me that he or is held, in State vs. Cairns (Kas.) 58 any other merchant never thought of L. R. A. 55, not to be guilty of selling any more elaborate breakfast than

It is told of a merchant in Ispahan, where they are notoriously stingy, that he purchased a small piece of cheese at the New Year, but could not make player from violating his contract to up his mind to the extravagance of eating it. So, instead of dividing the morsel with his clerk, as the boy had fondto play for any other club, is held by hoped, he carefully placed it in a to be allowable. in Philadelphia Ball clear glass bottle, and scaling the bottle, told the boy to rub his bread on the bottle and imagine the taste of the an attractive drawing card for the cheese. This the pair did each morn-

One day the merchant was invited to breakfast with a friend. He gave his clerk the key to his office, and a halfpenny to buy a loaf of bread; but the boy returned, saying he could not get the door open, and although he had bought his bread, could not eat it without the usual flavor of the cheese.

"Go, fool," said the merchant, "and rub your bread on the door! It is almost as satisfying as the bottle."

HIS MOTHER'S SMILE.

Influence of Little Acts May Endure for Years.

Gen. Wager Swagne, who died recently, had a mother of exceptional character, of which her son was tenderly appreciative. One of his pleasant recollections of her was connected with a young clerk in a bookstore at Columfied by the fact that it is customary bus, Ohio. The youth was poor, ambitious and of a retiring disposition. His reticence did not tend to make him payement to the gutter. A note to popular among his mates, but Mrs. this case collates the other authorities Swayne, whenever she visited the store as to liability for permitting water to never forgot to greet him a smile and a friendly word.

Years after, when Gen. Swavne, as The destruction of the value of a commissioner of the Freedmen's Bur-Swavne could always approach him.

the building, to inquire if any one were sing the disorders and predicts an imwaiting to see him.

the messenger's report.

The secretary left his carriage and hurrled into the building. The two men Swayne at last gave way to irrepress

"Mr. Secretary," said he, "I don't I have never understood it. You have shown me such musual favor that I want to ask why you have done it.'

"Gen. Swayne," said the secretary, when I was a poor, struggling, lonely clerk in Columbus, studying law at night and working by day, your mother's kindly smile and her encouraging words put heart and hope into Now do you understand? I remember your mother's smile."

A Narrow Escape.

An amusing wedding incident occurred recently in a country village. The bride, evidently anxious at the ent the bridesmalds (one of whom hearly lost her her husband. When the bridesmaids reached the church they observed the punctual brideberoine of the day, they good-naturedy walked down the aisle and stood beside him in slient sympathy. Whereapon the organist opened the proceedngs, the clergyman began the serrice, and the bridegroom was nearly mited in matrimony to his own sister before any one had the presence of nind to utter a word of warning. The omentous question, "Wilt thou have his woman?' had been reached, when the bride opportunely appeared, and, after explanations and apologies, the eremony was begun again.

A man is foung a great deal to

Too many quarrels are picked before

PREVENTED MURDERING

Averted. Grand Island, Neb., May 20-J. P Arp was upon murder bent last even before any damage was done. Ar | are concerned. has been employed at the Union he was discharged yesterday for be ing drunk. The discharge angere him and he went to his home in ar ugly mood. On the way home it i presumed he drank some more and was under the influence of whisk! [cresting one. when he arrived. He complained about the discharge and took down : Winchester, 32 calibre, and began to make threats. His wife pleaded with him but could not induce her hus band to desist. The foreman, tem in year. porarily, who had dismissed the man, lives not far away. His name is Mr. Love. Mr. Love and family resider in the residence of W. F. McLaugh I 3 died this morning of stomach a number of the laundry workers, lin, a councilman and formerly em- council on the leaves a widow and one notwithstanding the strike benefits, is known wherever the lover of deployed as a blacksmith with the Union Pacific. McLaughlin boarded with the Love family, in his own A detachment of the Salvation home, and suddenly was called by i my consisting of captain Sherwood vigorous knock to the door. He kid captain Stuffs, and wife of heard c nsiderable commotion. Ary | maha began revival meetings in him at one arm and his child at the week. other. When McLaughlin opened the door he at once saw that some thing was up and quickly disarmed the beiligerent and called the police authorities, who promptly arrested Arp, keeping him in jail over the night in order to allow him to coo off. He is still under arrest and it beachers have not been chosen.

One Against Fifty

against him.

has not as yet been definitely decided what complaint will be entered was reported missing after the recent ap tiday fighting in the island of Cebu was, it became known today, killed by a superior band of fanatics which surof them escaped.

William Ballon, formerly a private Plattsmouth. in the Fifteenth cavalry, is the name wounded until relieved.

Overton and Private Harry Nover tilling the engineer and fireman. were killed and Private Harlow was wounded by fifty insurgent prisoners Ballon, who was not wounded.

ceeds 1,500. Colonel Taylor of the "Gen. Swayne is waiting, sir," was lieved here that the adoption of energetic measures will be necessary to supress the disturbance.

Telephone Girls Go Out.

pany that the hours citizer be cut down to seven, or that they be increased to twenty dollars per month. me. I knew about her work among the notice of their demands some ten road nine miles west of Fairbury aware of her interest in the ex-slaves. Friday night, The local manager left Fairbury at 4:15 and was com- ing their condition. those at the switchboard left the the recent rains. No one was seriroom and the others refused to go ously injured and barring a slight of to work. Manager L. A. Denny of near approach of the ceremony hour, the local station says there has been sent the bridesmaids (one of whom was the young man's sister) on to await her at the church. This action hearly lost her her husband. When in any event. Auditor Mussleman that ever issued a newspaper in learning the better from the better from the church of the Lincoln high school and later to open a large "counting "room at think the girls do not intend to work one of the most belligerent publishers receive work that will be sent to "You would not want it, would not want it, would not want it, would not want it, would not man the counting the c a misunderstanding between the L.L. H. Austin formerly principal came down from Lincoln yesterday Lincoln has been nominated for the mont, run on the co-operative plan. and intended to settle the matter, legislature in Ohio. He heads the but without succes. The company says it will fill the places made vacant by the striking girls at once, in fact two operators from out of the staunchest republican and to the staunchest republican and the staunchest republican and the staunchest republican and to the staunchest republican and the staunchest republican a town arrived this afternoon and it s said they are now at work.

Struck By a Wild Engine.

Wellington, Kas., May 20.-Northbound Rock Island passenger train No. 36, due in Caldwell at noon, was struck by an engine from the Caldwell yards a mile south of that station today. Wilber Burkett, of Caldwell was killed and several others were badly injured, among them Postal Clerk Myers. The engineer the track.

Nebraska Notes

You can know a man so well tha Grand Island Man Disarmed and Crim ou will overlook his faults.

Many otherwise sensible women ing, but fortunately was disarmer thow a decided stillness where Pacific shops. Among several other [rospect is much better then thought the a few days since as the rain as greatly improved the outlook.

> The district conference of the M. L. church is in session at Seward. o far the meeting has been an in-

The school board at Seward has approved teachers for the coming ar for all the rooms except two. incipal Deffer is to remain anoth-

nion Pacific freight office in Kear-Sarried daughter

W. J. Sutherland cashier of the stood outside, his wife clinging to hie Christian church at Edgar this for the coming year Joseph Sparks uperintendent, Miss Kathleen Hearn II. Gabel principal. The grade

it Seward, went on a strike just be-Manila, May 20 - Lieutenant Walke, jut. The hotel is running and the

A. S. Forbes seventy-four years of near an end. rounded Lieutenant Walker's party ige died at his home in Plattsmouth The teamsters' union is looked Two of the constabulary were also loday. Weakness due to old age was upon as the organization that has killed and three captured. Two of the cause of his death. The deceasthese prisoners were murdered. One td resided at Lincoln for many years them in progress, inasmuch as several them escaped.

of the cavalryman who, alone, checked delay in traffic but little damage the second rush of the insurgents at was done. The train was pulled by Suclatan, island of Mindanao May, 15 togine number 1413, which is called and defended the American dead and by railroad men the "unlucky entine", and was the one that explod-It was at Suclatan that Capt. Clough id over in Iowa about a year ago.

More than two inches of rain has for maintaining them.

Mo.

four central girls in the employ of at Edgar, entertained the senior class the Nebraska Telephone company at in the Fraternity hall. The evenmore pay or less hours. The girls say games, music and singing, after which they have been working nine hours refreshments were served in four prevailed upon them to remain at posed of three cars and a caboose. yesterday afternoon. At that time fective road bed which resulted from those at the switchboard left the

in any event. Auditor Mussleman that ever issued a newspaper in the most public spirited man that ever drew a breath.

Mrs. Ella Dungan, a milliner or Humboldt who was deserted by her husband nearly three years and and who subsequently applied for and was granted a decree of divorce was re-united in marriage to her former bushand one day recently at Tecumseh. Her husband is a barber, and with his wife will make their home and freman escaped serious injury by at kik Creek, where he will work jumping. None of the coaches left at his trade and the will establish a new milliner store.

DESERT UNIONS

APPARANT BEGINNING OF END OF OMAHA STRIKE

LAUNDRY MEN RETURN

EVERY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE

CITY OPENED TEAMSTERS BACKBONE

Teamsters Apply for Old Places, and losing any of our pets. Number Estimated at From Tweive To Forty Take,'n Peace Move. ment In Omaha does not possess allurements for quito Love Stories." because when the shops opened up Tuesday morning about one-half of erature. Her latest novel, bearing the the usual forces returned to work, mysterious title of "The Filigree Ball," This estimate is placed upon the number by the employers, but the strikers assert that only a few of the unionists broke faith and returned to their labor. Certain it is, however, that every laundry in the city which has been closed by the strike, was The board at Aurora has re-elected opened and doing business today as though no strike was in progress.

The break in Union ranks has issistant superintendent and Mrs. H. not, however, been confined only to the laundries. The teamsters' union new volume of "Chester Tales," which, officials admit that twelve of their on its completion as a serial in Harmen have deserted and have gone per's Magazine, will be brought out in back to work. The employers place book form with approprite illustra-The employes of the Windsor hotel the number at forty. Not only the tions in time for Christmas. return of these men, but the action! fire supper last night. All the em- of the teamsters' union in announcing gone back to her maiden name in writployes with few exceptions walked its willingness to withdraw two obof the constabulary, who yesterday inferences as to wages will be fixed scale contract gives rise to hopes Wind in the Rose Bush" and the imamong the business men and strikers print of Doubleday, Page & Co., will that labor difficulties in Omaha are > on sympathy with the teamsters. If, therefore, the teamsters' union ttands by its offer to withdraw the at the time of the "Boxer" troubles two clauses relating to boycotts and sympathetic strikes, it is anticipated lied armies. that but little difficulty will be encountered in bringing about a settlement of all of Omaha's labor disagreements. Once the teamsters'

The horsesboers are again out on trike, forty-five in number. The dis- novel, "Gordon Keith," which will be Jay D. Rising who has been a treement which has arisen is over published by Charles Scribner's Sons, familiar figure in the First National Nie use of a label. The master horse- will make a book of over 500 pages. The President. He sent a messenger into constabulary is capable of suppress bank of Rising during the past five shoers have a label and so have the provement in the situation. It is be fears has resigned his position as journeymen. The journeymen insist tashier of that institution and has boon having their label on all horse-laid in New York City, although occaaccepted a position with the Nation- shoes, while the masters or employal Bank of Commerce Kansas City are declare it is sufficient if their ginia. The heroine is a New York solabel is placed upon the iron fo tgear ciety girl, while the hero is a Southernwithout the addition of that of th Tecomsch, Neb., May 23 -The The junior class of the high school in the new type which arose for the new type which are their employers to place both upon the shoes, but to this the masters obunderstand your great kindness to me. this point are striking. They want ing was passed in pleasant social jected and a strike is the consequence. publishing and syndicate business of In all the strike troutles which R. H. Russell and that Mr. Russell is have worried Omaha the poorfreight to become associated with that house. per day each for sixteen dollars per courses. The two classes numbered hundlers appear to be getting the Mr. Russell says that his publishing month. They demand of the com- sixty-five all of whom were present, worst of it. They walked out purely business is to go to Harper & Brothout of sympathy with the teamsters ers and his syndicate business to a A special freight train went into They claim they gave the company the ditch on the Rock Island rail-notice of their demands some ten road nine miles west of Fairbury lack of employment. Indeed the colored people of Columbus, and I was days ago, and threatened to quit last near Thompson last night. The train term blacklisted", is being used by them in their conversations regard. cation of the books of Charles Dana As to the restaurant and laundry demands. The laundry workers appear undisturbed by the desertion of the fifteen girls this morning and

The steam laundries that opened this morning have sent out a few wagons, but made no effort to send out all of them.

LET DOWN BARS TO MINERS

Milwaukee, Wis. May 18—The Woodmen of the World convention to-day took a new departure in adding to its eligible list bituminous coal to its eligible list bituminous coal miners and seafaring men employed on the lakes and rivers. Heretofore both of these classes were prohibited from membership. The question of taking in saloes keepers was debated at length and it was finally decided to continue to bar this class from membership in the order. The same action was taken with regard to sandstone cutters.

Amelia E. Barr has written no more harming love story than "A Song of a Single Note, and this is saying much, for her stories on the old, old theme are always delightful, always interesting and ever new.

"Toy Dogs and How to Breed Them," by Muriel Handley Spicer, is being issued by the Macmillan Company. The author tells how we can get our "doggy" experience without

The Scribners announce the early publication of Josephine Daskam's new book, the very title of which is bound to provoke the liveliest anticipation in all who are familiar with Omaha, Neb., May 19 .- Unionism her work. It is entitled "Middle-Aged

The name of Anna Katherine Green tective stories reads his favorite lithas just been published by the Bobbs Merrill Company.

"Katherine Frenchan" will be the name of the new book by Beatrice Harraden, author of "Ships That Page in the Night," to be issued shortly by Dodd, Mead & Co. This is the first book from the author's pen since the publication of "The Fowler."

Mrs. Margaret Deland sails for Europe in a few weeks, but not before she has put the finishing touches to her

Mrs. Mary Wilkins-Freeman has ing books, and her forthcoming volhave her name as simply Mary E. Wilkins on the title page. The book will be illustrated by Peter Newell.

A very brilliant and interesting selin, who until his death was a correspondent on the New York Sun, will soon be published under the title of "Ordered to China." Mr. Chamberlin there, and went to Pekin with the al-

"The Moral System of Shakespeare," by Richard G. Moulton, is a popular illustration of fiction as the experimental side of philosophy. The author, strike is ended, the others will quick- whose name is already known as the ly subside, as but slight cause exists editor of "The Modern Reader's Bible," holds that the plays of Shakesfourth member of the party was Will fallen in the last forty-eight hours. The question of payment of the peare have an interest analogous to at Table Rock-all of it going into special deputies employed by the that of experiments in physical science In Clarksville & R. Turnpike Com The secretary was the sternest of all The situation in some of the dispany vs. Montgomery county (Tenn.) heads of departments, yet to the general tricts of Cebu is regarded as serious, flow and gentle. Wheat, grasses and today, of the county commissioners the laboratory of the moralist, in

> Thomas Nelson Page's forthcomin period of action extends from the close of the civil war well into the twentieth century, and its principal scenes are sionally the reader is taken to Virer of the new type which grose from

> It is announced in New York that Harper & Brothers have acquired the product of George Ade, F. P. Dunne and other young men, and the publi-

She Had Her Wish.

A little girl who had noticed on various houses about the city the cards the presence of contagious disease, say they are fortifying their position asked her mother what they meant. and will be able to maintain a sked her mother what they meant better front. They have arranged Her mother explained, and the child said, regretfully, "We never have any-"You would not want it, would you?"

> said the mother. "Yes, I would!" replied the little girl, decidedly.

> Some weeks afterward the little girl was taken sick with chicken-pox, but was not confined to her bed. On Sunday morning the mother noticed that people passing on their way to church turned to gaze at the house and always went away laughing. Her curiosity was aroused, and she went to the front parlor to investigate. In each of the front windows was a large placard made. evidently, by the little daughter from the side of a pasteboard box. On the cards she had printed:

I HAVE GOT CHICKEN-POX BAD.

Wrecks on the Baltic. The average of wrecks in the Baltie Bea is one every day throughout the

We bet we can tell you what yes ave on your table to est: a par