R. C. DUNN.

The Sunday School Convention that was held at Bodarc last week was a grand success, and the program was carried out in every way, and those that were present will long remember the many kindnesses shown them by the large hearted people of that community. Rev. E. E. Zimmerman proved himself equal to the occasion, and was not only able to entertain all the young ladies but was able and willing to wash dishes, and act as general utility man. The singing was very good, and if some of our old timers could have only dropped in they would have soon learned that Bodarc was in keeping with the times. We will look forward with pleasure for the next convention that will be held at Bodarc.

HERE AND THERE

Virg Hester completed the building of the town hall last week and left for his home at Harrison Saturday. The building stands as a credit to his ability as a workman, skilled in the art of building, and giving you your money's worth in material as well as workmanship. A solid and substantial building has never been erected in this section, and much credit is due Mr. Hester and his foreman, John C. Schmidt, for the able manner in which it has been handled.—Lusk Herald.

COMING.

Wednesday Evening, July 8, Rev. E. C. Horn, Ph. D., to deliver a lecture on his trip around the world. Dr. Horn has been pastor of the M. E. Church at Alliance for almost 6 years and last year they gave him an 8 months vacation in which time he circumscribed the globe. During this tour he took views which he will reproduce on large canvases with one of the finest acetylene machines. Come everybody. Admission, Adults 25 cents children 15.

The same lecture will be given at the Woodman hall, Pleasant Ridge, Thursday, July 9.

Some of our young boys around town seem to be getting full of something that we would call the old nic, and we will have to say if some fathers don't look after their young Americans some one else will and then there will be trouble, this thing of throwing stones is a very bad, and vicious habit and should be discontinued by all fathers, as well believers in good society, we know it is hard for some parents to believe that their children will do anything wrong but we have noticed that the majority of wrong doers are these very children that never do wrong. We noticed several window lights broken out of the school house and the majority of these look as if they had been broken by a shot from the toy gun and the remainder by stones, and it surely was somebodys boy that did it, was it yours? if not and you know it to be ours we want to know it.

MARRIED.

Mr. Chas. Smith and Miss Maud Bartell were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride, last Wednesday, June 24 1903, at high noon; Rev. L. W. Horton officiating.

A number of friends and relatives being present, Miss Carrie Sides acted as brides maid and Mr. Will Bartell as best man. During the ceremony the groom placed a gold wedding ring on the bride's finger. After the ceremony we were all invited to the dining room where we found the table laden with victuals, of the best descriptions only, and we all ate with renewing appetites, and no one left the dining room as they entered it. Mrs. Bartell certainly knows how to prepare a wedding feast. The bride-groom had their pictures taken immediately after they were united, so as to have a picture of their selves as early in marriage life as possible.

Mr. Smith is a successful ranchman who resides and has a ranch at Hewitt, Nebr. and is one of Sioux Co.'s most respectable young gentlemen. The bride is the respective daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartell, and is a lady of high ability. This young couple has the wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy life, in this part of the country.

The PRESS JOURNAL extends best wishes and may this young couple's future life be one continual round of pleasure.

War Bonnet Topics.

Plenty of rain, and more too I thought Saturday afternoon as I came from town and got the full benefit of that shower.

Mrs. Plunkett and Miss Dorman attended the S. S. convention at Bodarc. I haven't seen them, so don't know how it was, but I can say from what I do know of the people of Bodarc, if they didn't enjoy themselves it was their own fault.

Gottlieb and Sam Knori drove their cattle to Harrison Saturday.

Frank Hubbard was around hunting up batching utensils; he and Arthur Dunn are going to start a bachelor hall in the near future.

On the 4th of July there is to be a picnic in the grove east of the War Bonnet school house. A lengthy program will be rendered and a basket dinner served. All are invited to come and have a good time.

Miss Olivette Dunn has gone to Harrison to visit a week with Ida Moravik and on the Warneke ranch with Mrs. Kirk Anderson.

Haying time has come,—that is what will bring the rain.

Ed and Ben Scott visited with Arthur Dunn Sunday. Howard Burke was there also.

BOUQUET.

Carey Items.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Spease attended commencement exercises at the Chadron Academy.

Dry weather was telling on the crops and grass when fortunately a shower came Saturday and a good rain Sunday forenoon reviving every thing.

Mr. Zimmerman failed to meet his appointment at the church Sunday presumably on account of the rain.

Perry Spease is home from Dean college.

John Mecklen has moved the W. D. Arner house from its former site to the canyon where his other buildings are and James Walpole is laying a stone foundation for him.

Iva and Clarence Spease are at home from Chadron, Miss Iva was a member of the graduating class this year.

Amos Jacoby and family of Warren Wyo. are here visiting relatives. Amos expects to move to Alberta Canada some time in the near future.

Mrs. Harrison Beans visited over night with her daughter Mrs. J. Z. Arner while enroute to the S. S. convention. On the return trip she was accompanied by her daughter Miss Phoebe.

Cotton wood was well represented at Bodarc. Those in attendance were as follows,—Mr. and Mrs. Alva Saxton and daughter Elva, Mrs. A. Proctor, J. E. Arner, the Misses, Emma and Fannie Loyd and ye scribe. All report a good time.

As heretofore announced the Sioux Co. S. S. workers met in convention at Bodarc June 17-18. It was my good fortune to be able to attend, and must say that the meeting was a very pleasant and profitable one. All in attendance express themselves as being well paid for their efforts expended in making the convention a success.

Mr. Burke especially, is to be commended for the able and efficient manner in which he got up, and conducted the convention. Rev. Zimmerman was an untiring helper. The presence and help of Rev. Currens and Rev. Horton added materially to the interest of the meeting. Those in attendance from Crawford have the thanks of the Sioux Co. people for their presence and aid, and last but not least, the good people of Bodarc have our heart felt (stomach too) thank for their kind and generous hospitality. May we some day have another such S. S. convention at Bodarc.

Bro. Rices death came as a shock, we understood that he was coming in June to look after his interests here and hoped that he would be here at time of the convention. Probably no community knew him better than Cottonwood and none can more his loss more deeply, for 8 years he and sister Rice lived here and labored among us. We feel that to was personal friend to all and in behalf of the community extend our sympathies to Mrs. Rice in her bereavement.

Last Sunday evening a number of the young people met at the church and held a Christian Endeavor meeting.

They expect to meet again next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock everybody is invited.

The eleventh annual convention of the Sioux Co. S. S. Association was held at Bodarc June 17, 18-1903. Meeting opened by devotional services led by Rev. L. W. Horton. Afternoon session opened by singing, followed by prayer by Rev. Horton.

Currens took up the topic of "The object of the S. S." followed by discussion. Rev. L. W. Horton presented the subject on "Why a teacher should be a thorough christian." Miss Jennie Ellis read a paper on "How to conduct a young peoples class." Rev. E. E. Zimmerman led in the discussion. Closed for supper.

The evening meeting was opened by a song service. The address that was to have been given by Rev. O. K. Hobson was commenced by Rev. L. W. Horton but being interrupted the meeting was dismissed for the first day.

June 18th—At 9 A. M. devotional services were begun, led by Rev. E. E. Zimmerman. Rev. Hobson being absent Rev. Zimmerman presented the subject on "How can we reach outsiders?" and Mr. A. Saxton led in the discussion after which J. H. Bartell took up the topic on "How to secure the attendance of parents" followed by a discussion, which brought out the fact that few men attend Sabbath school; in consequence all of the men present that attend S. S. were asked to rise. A very large majority stood up.

Then came reports of schools. Bodarc reported 29 Sundays taught, Union Star reported 43. Glen having no representative present the report was given by Rev. Zimmerman. Harrison was reported by Rev. Horton. War Bonnet reported S. S. held since February. No S. S. at Fairfield. A new S. S. was reported at Adelia, Pleasant Ridge did not report.

Motion—That the chair appoint a committee of three on nominations, carried. Rev. Horton, Mr. Hall, and Mr. C. Parsons were appointed on said committee.

Davis not being able to attend, his paper on "How to make an interesting Sunday School" was read by Mrs. Horton. After the discussion came the election of officers and reading of resolutions. Nominating Committee recommended that the old officers be retained. Their report was accepted and the officers for the next year are as follows: President, J. B. Burke, Vice Pres. F. M. Hall, Secy. and Treas. Hattie R. Grove.

Miss Jennie Ellis, Secy. Pro Tem.

In Wyoming.

Miss Ella Kirtley, of Hot Springs, S. Dak., was visiting friends on the Ridge last week.

The Children's Day exercises did not come off at the hall on last Sunday as arranged, on account of the rainy weather.

Yes, we are having plenty of moisture now. A good rain fell on Friday night and again on Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

At last accounts Mr. Eldredge was gaining consciousness, and there were great hopes of his ultimate recovery.

Mrs. Freese is getting along as well as possible, being now able to feed herself with the hand that was sprained. She went to Lusk on last Friday to have her broken arm put in a plaster cast.

After hearing the chapter of accidents last week. John Davis concluded that they wouldn't have any edge over him, so he took a seat on an inverted box in the back end of a spring wagon, to take a ride to Harry Deuel's. On the way the driver of the cart gave the horses quite a start, when out went Johnie from the hind end of the cart. He struck the ground with his shoulder which left its imprint on terra firma. After getting up and rubbing his shoulder he was heard to remark, "I do hope that fool Zekeil won't hear of this to put me in the paper."

We are very sorry to hear of friend Knett's sickness and hope that Clio's items this week will bring the good news of his entire recovery.

John and Laney Sutton did not go to Powder river as we surmised they had; they heard that the streams were very unwise to ford, and that Powder river was very high, so they postponed their trip until later.

CHORUS.

He knows, my Father knows
The storms that would my way oppose,
He knows, my Father knows
And tempers every wind that blows,
I know my heavenly Father knows
The balm I need to soothe my woes,
And with His touch of love divine
He heals this wounded soul of mine,
I know my heavenly Father knows
How frail I am to meet my foes,
But He my cause will e'er defend
Uphold and keep me to the end,
I know my heavenly Father knows
The hour my journey here will close,
And may that hour, O faithful Guide
Find me safe sheltered by Thy side,"

The hour was nearer than any of us thought, but he was "Safe sheltered."

And all was well, other hymns that were sung were "Jesus Savior pilot me" "Jerusalem the Golden" and "And Sweetly Solemn Thought." The minister who had become a personal friend spoke most appreciatively of his life and character, we laid him to rest in a beautiful spot, where the grand mountains keep watch over his grave.

It was his plan that I should stay here in our little home with my brother and Roy and that we are sure is best. Mr. and Mrs. Case are still with us and their presence has done much to make the first loneliness bearable. Friends here and many who have written me have been most kind above all.

"I know my heavenly Father knows
And tempers every wind that blows."
My comfort and hope is in Him.
