Diagnosis of Kentucky.

Kentucky's hills are full of rills. And all the rills are lined with stills, And all the stills are full of gills, And all the gills are full of thrills, And all the thrills are full of kills. You see the feudists dot the hills, And camp along the little rills, Convenient to the busy stills, And thirsting for the brimming gills, And when the juice his system fills Each feudist whoops around and kills. Now, if they'd only stop the stills They'd cure Kentucky's many ills— Men would be spared to climb the hills And operate the busy stills.

However, this would mean more gills And that, of course, would mean more thrills, Resulting in the same old kills. So all the hills and rills and stills And all the gills and thrills and kills Are spared for the coffin mills And made more undertakers' bills. —W. D. Nesbit, in Chicago Tribune.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by All Druggists.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY Sioux Co. S. S. Convention.

(Misplaced last week.)
Bodard, Neb. June 18-1903.
We have heard with deepest regret the recent death of our dear Bro. Chas. E. Rice at Hotchkiss, Col. In the death of Bro. Rice this association mourns the loss of one of its oldest and best friends. For the past twenty years Mr. Rice has given the S. S. work his heart and his life; and the churches and christian workers in this region owe much to his wisdom and untiring efforts. The Sioux county S. S. workers in convention wish in this most expressive manner to testify to their very high appreciation of him as a man, a friend, a christian, a faithful minister of the gospel and a S. S. worker. We extend to Mrs. Rice, our friend and his most faithful and efficient helper, our deepest sorrow and sympathy at her loss. We mourn not as those who have no hope, but even in our sorrow we rejoice with him who has gone to his great reward, and will now labor more faithfully for his example in the cause he loved so well, and will look forward with increasing hope of meeting him in the better land.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the record of this association, and that a copy be given to the Co. papers for publication and the Secy. be requested to send a copy to Mrs. Rice. Very Respect. Comm. REV. J. B. CURRIEN, EMERY ZIMMERMAN, MISS JENNIE ELLIS.

A PIANO AT A NOMINAL PRICE.

Chicago's largest music house, Lyon & Healy, announces a Clearing Sale of Pianos. This is owing to the fact that their warehouses are being entirely remodeled. Several hundred splendid instruments are offered without reserve until all are sold. In this stock are a number of Steinway and Knabe pianos, and new and second-hand pianos including instruments of the following well known makers: Miller, Mason & Hamlin, Huxton, McPhail, Sterling, Huntington, Yose, Fischer, Weber, Chickering, etc., etc. In square pianos there are fine-toned instruments at $25, $40, $60, and upwards. In Upright Pianos, new instruments at $100, $120, $140, $150, $160, $190, $200 and upwards. In Baby Grand some nice specimens at $250 and upwards. Nearly all these pianos were intended to sell for much more than these clearing sale prices. Lyon & Healy will send a list and full particulars upon application. Any piano not proving entirely satisfactory may be returned at their expense. Address Lyon & Healy, 1 Adams St., Chicago. Distance is no obstacle in taking advantage of this remarkable chance to obtain a piano, for in proportion to the saving to be made the freight charges are insignificant. If you do not already know Lyon & Healy by reputation any banker will assure you of their entire responsibility and record of forty years for honorable dealing. Write at your early convenience so as to avoid disappointment.

Agate Phrases.

The country looks its very best now; the abundant rains have caused a luxuriant growth of grass, while the bright colors of numerous flowers relieve the monotony of the green. Nature is putting on her holiday dress for the coming Fourth, and everybody is getting ready to celebrate. The small boy delves in his little savings bank and brings forth his accumulated pennies and nickels, to buy combustibles where with to give vent to his feelings as a patriotic and strenuous young American. Well, we all have been young ones, though quite a while ago, and so let the youngsters have their way and their day.

Mr. Frank Reed has been on the sick list for a few days, having injured his back while loading rock salt for Mr. Neese at Andrews.

Mrs. Lewis has been on a visit to Mrs. Neese.

A petition has been circulated and numerously signed to change the mail-route from Marsland to Agate so as to have it end at Mr. Ashbrook's ranch on Wasele Creek, instead of at Agate. A new P. O. is to be established there. The change will be very convenient to a number of settlers south of Running Water.

Quite a crowd collected at Mr. Octave Harris' place last Sunday. There were 26 people at dinner, among them 15 kids. They made Rome howl, you bet.

If the rains keep coming as they did on Saturday and Sunday, the stockmen will have but little use for their irrigation ditches this year, as the rainfall will be ample for a good hay crop.

An Agent went through here, taking orders for enlarging pictures. What we need more than any thing else, in that line is an enlargement of the pocket book including its contents.

In Wyoming.

Last Sunday was a record breaker, 880 in the shade at one o'clock.

The latest reports from Mr. Eldredge is that the doctor had relieved the pressure on the brain by raising the injured part of the skull, and he regained consciousness and is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Freese is getting along nicely, having had the plaster cast removed the first of this week. Her mother, Mrs. Phillips, arrived from Iowa one day last week.

Little Nellie Newlin has been quite poorly for the past two weeks, but at this writing she is getting better.

Almost every one, on the Ridge is making great calculations on going to Lusk the 4th. Some are going down the day before so as to take in the dance and not miss anything the next day.

Roy Christian killed a large badger while on his way from school last week. As he is a small lad and a reader of "In Wyoming" we make a note of it.

Lo Wilson was vaccinating cattle with black leg, or the government vaccine, for John Duell, the first of the week.

Ye scribs and Lo Wilson were tearing up the earth last week, but by Saturday night it was a "leath" dry to break, so we postponed it for a few days.

While James W. Christian was over to Coffee's siding one day last week he encountered a trail herd of horses going through to Chadron, and in the herd was a horse which belonged to Francis Duell who is still in the hospital in Omaha. Jim knew the horse as it was raised here and bore Francis' brand, so he threw his reins over its neck and led it home. The horse, a valuable saddle horse, got away from Francis while he was at Casper more than a year ago, and he had no hopes of ever seeing it again. The man in charge of the herd gave his name as Pitts,—by the way, wonder if it was not our own Walter Pitts who used to range White river twelve years ago.—Said that the horse was caught at Orrin and had been used as a saddle horse since. Anyhow 'twas a lucky throw for Francis when Jim threw his rope that day, as he could not well afford to lose so good a saddle pony.

We were needing rain at the time these items were sent away on Monday morning but a heavy black cloud was in the west and no doubt we'll get it before night.

Childrens day was observed at the hall on last Sunday. A large crowd was in attendance and all enjoyed the day well. The hall was decorated with flowers and evergreens. A large arch composed of cedar boughs, and interwoven with flowers, formed the open doorway to the speakers stand; stretched across the hall, just above the arch was a beautiful streamer with the word "welcome" in rainbow colors. Upon the table were beautiful potted plants in full bloom intermingled with evergreens and wild flowers, while roses in all colors both wild and tame were in abundance. The programme began with an opening song, in which all joined. The children then went through the exercises which consisted of songs, declamations, etc., etc. Much credit is due the teacher, Miss Florence Christian for the trouble and pains she has taken to prepare for this day. She was greatly disappointed in the west school not helping out, and some of her own pupils, who were in the dialogue, being conspicuous by their absence. Mrs. J. W. Davis presided at the organ during the singing.

Taking all in all we think the time and trouble well spent as the children all did themselves proud both in speaking and singing. At the close their teacher gave them a short talk which was very interesting and instructive to the older ones as well as to the children.

ZEKIEL.

Hunter Happenings.

Geo. Baldwin came down from Harrison Saturday and visited his mother and other friends over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hughes enjoyed a fine ride behind their young team last Sunday.

Ed Schwartz and Tom Jones were Harrison visitors last Saturday.

Perla Jones visited Mrs. E. Hughes over night Tuesday.

Richard Hunter arrived at Hunter from Omaha last Saturday.

J. R. Hunter went down to Crawford Tuesday night.

Mrs. Bassett returned home Saturday. Mrs. Jennie weir, Dr. weir's mother returned with her for a few days visit.
