A PIANO AT A NOMINAL PRICE.

Chicago's largest music house, Lyon & Healy, announces a Clearing Sale of Pianos. This is owing to the fact that their ware-rooms are being entirely remodelled. Several hundred splendid instruments are offered without reserve until all are sold. In this stock are a number of Steinway and Knabe pianos, and new and second-hand pianos including instruments of the following well known makers: Miller, Mason & Hamlin, Hazleton, McPhail, Sterling, Huntington, Vose, Fischer, Weber, Chickering, etc., etc. In square pianos there are fine-toned instruments at $25, $40, $60, and upwards. In upright pianos, neat instruments at $100, $120, $140, $150, $165, $180, $200 and upwards. In Baby Grand some nice specimens at $250 and upwards. Nearly all these pianos were intended to sell for much more than these clearing sale prices. Lyon & Healy will send a list and full particulars upon application. Any piano not proving entirely satisfactory may be returned at their expense. Address Lyon & Healy, 1 Adams St., Chicago. Distance is no obstacle in taking advantage of this remarkable chance to obtain a piano, for in proportion to the saving to be made the freight charges are insignificant. If you do not already know Lyon & Healy by reputation any banker will assure you of their entire responsibility and record of forty years for honorable dealing. Write at your early convenience so as to avoid disappointment.

Wm. J. A. Raum, Clerk.

SPLITTING UP THE NICKEL.

Practice of New Orleans Stores and Markets With Small Purchasers.
"You would be surprised to find the vast number of children among the poorer classes in New Orleans who do not clearly understand the value and function of the nickel," said a storekeeper downtown, "and it all results from the popularity of the quartic system which has always been so much a part of life in this city. They are the small buyers, who run all kinds of errands for the little family to which they belong.
"Purchases, amounting in individual cases to less than 5 cents, daily amount in the aggregate to thousands of dollars. It is no small part of the retail traffic of the city. The children split a nickel up into very small pieces, buying a penny's worth of this and a penny's worth of that, until they leave the store or the market with an armful of little packages which will represent the day's supplies.
"Sometimes they will spend only a part of the nickel, and will get a ticket, or tickets, or maybe pennies, in change. Frequently the purchase will amount to 2 1/2 cents, and then they get a pasteboard check for the other 2 1/2 cents, which is legal tender at the place issuing it for its face value. Checks or tickets of this kind are extensively used in this city, and they have added greatly to the circulation of a sort of crude subsidiary money.
"One of those checks is as good as gold at the grocery or market stall where it is issued. It is predicated on and gets its value from a redemption fund, just like Uncle Sam's money, except that instead of being redeemable in gold on demand, it is exchangeable at the grocery at its face value for any of the things in stock, or good at the vegetable stall at the market place for 2 1/2 cents worth of anything on hand when it is presented. It is always good for what it calls for on its face."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

One Way to Make Trouble.

John E. Hedges says he has come to the conclusion that no man can be a patriot to-day "unless he is strenuous, gets married and raises children." The man who gets married and raises children these days need not trouble himself as to his strenuous qualifications. They will be taken for granted.

What Killed Him.

Wife (with newspaper, to husband)—Here is another forcible temperance lecture: (Reads) "Young Spillers got into a boat and shoved out into the river, and as he was intoxicated he upset the boat, fell into the river and was drowned." Now, sir (addressing her husband), if he had not drunk whisky he would not have lost his life. Husband—Let me see. He fell into the river, didn't he?
Wife—Of course he did.
Husband—Didn't die until he fell in?
Wife—James, you are positively silly. Of course he didn't die until he was drowned.
Husband—Then it was the water that killed him.—Stray Stories.

The Two.

Tender is he who taught me first
The steps that lead to the pit of flame,
Merry, the jest! He his soul secured!
Lives he in honor and I in shame?
And yonder, dreaming his one sad dream,
Is he whom, in his robes of woe,
Spoke he the word, over death's dark stream
Willingly, gladly would I go.

Lovers I count on my finger-tips;
Lives, like dice, for my smiles are thrown;
Still, forever upon my lips
Burns the kiss I have never known!
—William Young.
