Card of Thanks.

To the many friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our little Nellie, do we tender our sincere thanks, and especially to Mr. McGinley and sister, Mrs. Mansur, for hospitality and kindness shown during the long sad days of watching by the bed side of our little darling.

MR. AND MRS. J. H. NEWLIN.

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that "Good deed are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in the community who might truthfully say: My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of "buckwheat's" rough remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by All Druggists.

The Crawford dentist, Dr. T. H. Spindio.

If you owe the county any taxes you had better settle and save costs, for under the new law county treasurer Davis must collect them or he and his bondsmen stand for it; so don't blame the county treasurer for doing his duty and also protecting himself.

NOTICE:

All parties going through our ranch or pasture fences are notified herewith that all fences are on leased land, and that anyone taking down fences or leaving gates open will be prosecuted to the extent of the law.

G. W. and V. A. HESTER.

Collision at Remington.

In a head end collision at Remington last Friday there was one man killed, and two crippled. Harry Beans an engineer had his leg broken in three places, and his skull fractured. He was taken to Alliance and from there to Chicago. Mr. Beans is a son of Harrison Beans who used to reside in Sioux county but now lives at Crawford.

People who think they know all about running a newspaper would do well to compare themselves with the following account by the editor of the West Union (W. Va.) Record. He says:

"To run a newspaper all a fellow has to do is to be able to write poems, discuss the tariff and money question, umpire a ball game, report a wedding, saw wood, describe a fire so that the readers will shun their wraps, make one dollar do the work of ten, shine at a dance, amuse the liquorhabit, test whiskey, subscribe to charity, go without meals, attack free silver, wear diamonds, invent advertisements, swear at snobbery, overlook scandal, apprise babies, delight pumpkin raisers, minister to the afflicted, head the disgruntled, fight to a finish, set type, mold opinion, keep sour paste on hand, sweep the office but never wash the office towels, speak at prayer meetings and stand in with everybody and everything."

DIED.

On last Saturday morning little Nellie, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Newlin, died at the residence of Mr. A. McGinley, who so kindly opened the doors of his home sometime ago to the parents of little Nellie, that she might be near the physician during the time that she was sick. The battle was to much, and the Father says, "Come up above where there is no pain or sickness," and we feel that Mr. McGinley has another soul added to that heavenly throng that will welcome him above when his life's work is ended here below.

The services were conducted by Rev. D. J. Clark, at the M. E. church, after which the body was laid away in the Harrison cemetery. Four little girls acted as pall bearers, and may they ever remember that the little body that they bore to its last resting place was like they were once, but now the soul has taken flight to the arms of the Savior that said "Suffer the little ones to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

The PRESS-JOURNAL extends sympathies to the bereaved parents and relatives.

OBITUARY.

Again has the Death Angel visited this earth and taken away one of its fairest and brightest flowers, Nellie Bee, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Newlin.

The little one had been ailing for some time, when about three weeks ago her parents took her to Harrison to consult a physician, but she grew rapidly worse until, after several days of untold suffering, her spirit was released, and she passed from this life to life eternal, last Saturday morning Sept. 26, aged 2 years 4 months and 20 days.

Nellie was permitted to remain only a short time in the home she brightened, but by her beautiful disposition had become endeared to all who knew her.

The funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church by Rev. Clark, and the remains laid to rest in the Harrison cemetery.

The bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in this their sad hour of affliction.

The daylight broke in silence, The day was cold and gray; The shadows lay before us, And hope seemed far away.

As we watched beside our darling, That pain had stricken low, Angels clad in robes of white, Came and took her to their care.

So little Nellie's gone away, Gone to Heaven for to dwell; Another star to shine on high, Another flower in paradise.
