OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

VOL. XVII. HARRISON, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1904. NO. 2.

LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

Dr. T. H. Spindlo, the Crawford dentist, court next week.

Another good rain last Friday.

Mrs. Will Lacy is still on the sick list.

The Fourth is now over, and now comes court.

The highest cash price paid for hides at J. W. RICEGORFF'S.

John Eberspacher was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. W. T. Jones was up from Andrews yesterday.

Miss Steele was in Lusk on business last Saturday.

Have your teeth attended to on the 13 or 14.

Rev. McNab, of Cottonwood, was in this city last Saturday.

Remember the JOURNAL when you have your contest published.

Mrs. James Connolly was at Alliance a few days the past week.

Clarence Hollingsworth shipped some cattle Tuesday evening.

Miss Dolly Peiddy came down from Northview last Saturday.

Home seekers still arrive. Several came in yesterday morning.

The finest line of fresh and cured meats at J. W. RICEGORFF'S.

Mrs. Matt Hall is staying in Harrison with her sick child at present.

Ezra Tucker and his mother of Glen were in Harrison several days this week.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hall has been very sick for the past week.

We learn that John Christain had three horses killed by lightning last week.

Ira and Charlie Thomas were down from Northview, Wyo., on business last Saturday.

Dr. Spindlo, the Crawford dentist, in Dr. Davis' office, July 13 and 14.

William Wheeler was up from the south part of the county on business last Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. Wilbermordorfer, who has been quite ill for some time past, is slowly recovering.

Miss and Mrs. West, sister and mother of Mrs. F. W. Clarke, are here from Chicago on a visit.

Harrison was rather a quiet day Saturday as most everyone wanted to come and celebrate the Fourth.

We ask our readers to notice the ad which L. H. Smith has placed in our columns soliciting insurance.

Chas. Hibben's father visited a few days in this city last week and went home with his son Herman.

Milton Hollingsworth, who has been attending school in California, arrived at his home in this county last week.

Lo Wilson's sister, who has been visiting here for a few weeks past, returned to her home in Iowa Tuesday evening.

Miss Lucy Hill, after a few days visit with friends and relatives in this vicinity, returned to Edgemont last Friday night.

On the 13 and 14 of this month Dr. Spindlo, of Crawford, will be in Dr. Davis' office to attend to all kinds of dental work.

We learn that John Herman was struck by lightning last week but not seriously hurt and his whole family was slightly shocked.

Frank Clodfelter was up from Glen last Saturday and was a caller at our office enriching us by two years subscription.

LOST—Between Matt Hall's place and the S—Eranch on June 17, a watch. Finder will be rewarded by leaving the same at this office.

Mrs. A. Lowry and son John, after several weeks visit in Iowa and Kansas, returned to their home in this city last Saturday morning.

Robert Gieser and E. J. Miller, of Ardmore, was in this city on business Tuesday. Both gentlemen were pleasant and financial callers at this office.

The little child of W. C. Reed which has been ill for some time is reported as being no better, and there is little hopes for its recovery.—Mitchell Index.

John and Bernard Connolly, who have at the ranch in the south part of the county for the past weeks, returned to their home in Harrison last Saturday.

Mrs. Peterson, who recently came out from Omaha to visit her daughter, Mrs. August Meyer, was in Harrison last Wednesday to file on a section of land.

We enjoyed eating some fruit this week that Howard Burke brought from California and if he has been eating such fruit for the past three months we certainly envy him.

The people here in Harrison that made out the papers for the homesteaders did not propose to rob them as the price they charged was only $1, while at some other places they charged as high as $4.

Anton Rhein of Wolf creek Montana, remembered the PRESS-JOURNAL as his yearly custom with a dollar on subscription. This sets Mr. Rhein up to 1905 and we only wish we had many such subscribers as he.

Howard Burke, who went to California about three months ago, returned to his home here last Friday night, having concluded that this place is as good as California. His many friends here are pleased to learn of his return.

J. W. Ricegorff arrived here from Chadron the latter part of last week and opened up butcher shop which he now has running in full blast. This is a business that Harrison is badly in need of and we predict a good business for Mr. Ricegorff. He is occupying the northeast rooms in the Andrews block.

The Fourth.

The Fourth is over. The small boy with the cap pistol and firecracker made things lively in Harrison from early in the morning until late that night. Everyone that celebrated here had a good time. The music by the band in the morning was excellent and highly appreciated. All and the band boys deserve much credit. After the band concert we went to the church where Rev. Daniels delivered the address that was interesting to all. In the afternoon the races and ball game was the attraction. There was several horse races after which the foot races came off. Martin Carroll took 1st money in the free for all foot race and Eimer Hughes 2nd money. Foot race under 10 years 1st, Fred Larson, 2nd, John Scott. Under 15 years, John Connolly 1st, Ben Scott 2nd. Under 18 years, Will Grimm 1st, Clarence Leeling 2nd. The ball games were made up of the best players south of track against the best players north of the track. The game was a good one. The south started out in the lead and kept in the lead until the last inning when the north commenced to play ball in earnest and won the game by one score. The players were as follows:

North	South
Don Jordan	B. Johnson
J. H. Wilbermordorfer	F. Langworthy
E. Lyon	E. Hughes
G. Wohlbeiter	G. Gets
J. Henry	O. Pape
G. Wickersham	H. Henry
A. Wasserburger	W. Bieser
H. Wasserburger	H. Hoffe
W. H. Davis	D. L. Coffee

Score: North: 0 1 1 3 2 0 1 2 6—16
South: 2 0 5 6 1 0 1 0 6—15

In the evening the display of fireworks was grand. The people that attended this celebration will look forward to next year when Harrison will celebrate again.

Andrews was well attended in Harrison on the Fourth.

Several came down from Lusk on the evening of the Fourth.

J. Mettlen and family, from Marsland, celebrated here Monday.

Banker Clarke took 1st money in the shooting contest the Fourth.

J. H. Denslow and family, of Glen, celebrated the Fourth in Harrison.

Honas Will and D. M. Sutton were special city marshals in Harrison the Fourth.

Nearly everyone from Pleasant Ridge and the valley celebrated in Harrison the Fourth.

Read Dr. Spindlo's locals elsewhere in this issue and if you have any dental work to be done be sure and consult him for he will treat you right. We are personally acquainted with the doctor and have met many that have had work done by him, and they have expressed themselves as fully satisfied, so don't forget his date for Harrison.

Hunter Happenings.

Plenty of rain and some hail.

The 4th is passed and all report a good time.

Mrs. Tom Jones and Panzy visited at Harrison Wednesday.

Frank Deater was down Thursday to see about dipping his cattle.

E. Rohwer and son Eddie, of Harrison, visited friends at this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and Mrs. Melosh were pleasant callers at post hill Sunday.

Jack Cook came over from Agate Monday evening and was a Harrison visitor Tuesday.

Harold Cook and Mrs. Graham, of Agate, went to Crawford Saturday and remained until after the 4th.

Those who dipped cattle last week at East Andrews were: Messrs Jones, Eggert, Bunge, Tucker, Mack and Hughson.

Chas. Proctor, a brother of John Proctor, arrived here last Thursday to visit his brother and family and look over the country.

The little animal with the striped back that has been helping itself to Mrs. Jones chickens for some time past, stepped into a trap Thursday night and stayed there.

Nearly everyone from here took in the Fourth at Harrison. It was pretty lonesome here, no evidence of the Fourth except the flags that waved in various places.

Mrs. Dan Wykert returned home from Omaha the 4th. She has been here for some time past taking treatment. We are glad to say that what was supposed to be a cancer on her face will soon be well.

A WONDERFUL INVENTION.

It is interesting to note that electric combs are frequently made by the invention of articles of minor importance. Many of the most popular devices are those designed to benefit the people and meet popular conditions, and one of the most interesting of these that has ever been invented is the Dr. White Electric Comb, patented Jan. 1, 99. These wonderful Combs positively cure dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used with Dr. White's Electric Hair Brush are positively guaranteed to make straight hair curly in 25 days' time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in various cities of the Union and the demand is constantly increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. They positively sell on sight. Send for sample. Men's size 35c. Ladies' 50c.—(half price while we are introducing them.) The Dr. White Electric Comb Co., Decatur, Ill.
