A WONDERFUL INVENTION. It is interesting to note that fortunes are frequently made by the invention of articles of minor importance. Many of the most popular devices are those designed to benefit the people and meet popular conditions, and one of the most interesting of these that has ever been invented is the Dr. White Electric Comb, patented Jan. 1, 96. These wonderful Combs positively cure dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used with Dr. White's Electric Hair Brush are positively guaranteed to make straight hair curly in 25 days' time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in various cities of the Union and the demand is constantly increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. They positively sell on sight. Send for sample. Men's size 35c. Ladies' 50c. - (half price while we are introducing them.) The Dr. White Electric Comb Co., Decatur, Ill.

HAY SEED.

BREEZES FROM CENTRAL CITY

As we have had our fill of strawberries we will again take up our pen. We picked 358 quarts of berries in just four weeks, the last week only picked about enough to use. They are very short lived but "lickin' good" while they last. Have not seen the big peach orchard or heard what the crop is to be. Cherries were a big crop. What is harvested and what are well under way. Some of the small grain is very good and some is poor. Heavy recent rains caused some to fall. Corn is good, some of it is a little weedy, but the crop will be immense if no thing happens to it from now on. We have been very fortunate so far this season, have escaped hail and cyclones and no rain to damage till recently. Land seems to be on the move, however, that is changing hands. Mr. Hoard is selling off his ranches now while they are bringing good prices. One about two miles from our soil for $75 per acre last week, just moderate improvements. Our town has a small pop scare, but I believe no new cases has developed so the danger is past. The Fourth has come and gone and nothing serious happened only it is reported that the merry go-round took in $300 that day. The largest crowd we have seen in town since we have been here was here that day. The fireworks were grand. One news item in each Harrison paper calls for congratulations which we extend. The JOURNAL reports a new boy on the 16th to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan and the Sun reports a girl to the same so we wish the twins a long and happy life. The girls Bessie and Phieba and their uncle, Mr. Clymer are going to start for Paonia, Colo., on next Monday if nothing happens to prevent. If satisfactory the girls will remain and try their skill at packing fruit and be ready to enter school when it opens. Now for my story about "Lovers Leap." The hills and bluffs around Fullerton are not nearly so high as the Pine Ridge but are near 150 or 200 feet. In the early day some movers camped near there and in the evening a young man and his sweet heart strolled some distance from camp and were captured by the Indians who were going to put them to death. The youth pleaded so hard for their lives, which the Indians consented to grant on one condition. That was that the young man should go over the precipice on horseback. The Indians filed in line and the young man made the desperate leap. Horse and rider were dashed to pieces and when the searching party found him the girl was beside the mangled form of her lover, a raving maniac. The brave young lovers now days dare ascend and descend that precipice, while the fair maiden watch below some with the remark, "If those fool boys don't know any better than to risk their lives, I wont watch them break their foot necks," or another will say, "how brave and daring." But I thought if those same boys were as willing to work as hard on their father's farm as they worked there, what a credit it would be to them.

Mrs. Tom Jones and family returned home Tuesday after a pleasant week at Sawdust visiting friends and watching them move the mill and picking goose berries. They expect to have the mill sawing by Friday. One week's pretty fast work for three men to tear up, move and put together ready for work.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Woman Suffrage From a Colorado Point of View.

Mrs. Elmer Wixon, one of the ladies from Colorado who attended the National Republican convention in Chicago, in an interview regarding woman suffrage said:

"There are between 30,000 and 40,000 more men than women in Colorado. And yet, in spite of this difference in the population, the woman's vote is all the way from 41 to 53 per cent of the entire registration.

"In some elections the issues are more important than in others. Whenever there is a matter of vital importance it has the effect of bringing out the woman voters in a great numbers. With us the women who vote are largely the better class. There are very few clergymen in Denver whose wives do not go with their husbands to the polls. Mrs. Peabody, the wife of the chief justice, the teachers in the public schools, the wives and mothers in the home—these are our chief constituency. Our strong opponents are the machine politicians, who cannot manipulate the woman's vote as they expected to do, fence-sitters who look upon women as inferiors, and above all, the liquor dealers. Everywhere they are the most active of our enemies, because they have the money with which to buy the Legislatures. This they did in California and the state of Washington.

"When delegates to the convention were chosen to frame the new charter for Denver, after the county was divided, last year, the women on Capital Hill, the principal residence quarter, cast nine-elevenths of the vote in that district. You see, that charter meant the moral and sanitary regulation of Denver the saloons, the police, the care of the streets. The men voters either were not much interested or they felt that it could be safely left to women, and they did so."

Mrs. Wixon declared there was not the least danger of woman suffrage ever being repealed in Colorado.
