A WRACK. Last Saturday evening the east bound passenger train (No. 1290) struck two of Frank Deister's cows three and one half miles east of town and ground them to pieces throwing the engine and coal car from the track; the mail car was also jerked from the rails, but no damage was done to it. Two rails were broken in places from 5 to 6 feet long. Luckily no one was hurt and even the engineer and fireman escaped without an injury. The track was built around the wreck and the train moved on to Chadron pulled by another engine leaving the wrecked engine and coal car lying on their sides. The wreck engine came up Sunday morning with a large outfit of men and by three o'clock in the afternoon they had the coal car on the track again and then the men came to town and ate their dinners (which were appreciated) and then went back to set the engine on. The engine was set upright without difficulty, but when they come to pull it on the track they first broke a large chain and next the cable. It being late in the evening they decided to let it go until Monday morning. Monday morning they went to work at it again and about 9 o'clock in the afternoon they had it on the track. The engine was wrecked somewhat, but not to any great extent and without much work it will be running and pulling the train as usual. It plowed a hole in the ground about 4 feet deep and 80 ft. long where it left the rails. A good many of our Harrison people went down to witness the scene.

County Commissioner Jordan returned on Wednesday's train from Wisconsin where he went some five weeks ago with a car load of horses. Mr. Jordan says he received a fair price for them but it was a pretty busy time with the farmers or he would have got better prices. Dan looks hale and hearty so they must have taken good care of him while there.

The Curtis Dramatic Co. have showed here for the past three nights and their plays gave satisfaction. They had good crowds at their plays, and no doubt if they come this way again they will receive the same. The only trouble here is the stage is not large enough for very big plays. We recommend the Curtis Dramatic Co. to the public as a first class show in every respect.
