

ALL DONE OUT.

Veteran Jacobus Heller, of 708 South Walnut street, Urbana, Ill., says: "In the fall of 1892, after taking Dose's Kidney Pills I told the readers of this paper that they had believed me of kidney trouble, diagnosed of a lame back with pain across my loins and beneath the shoulder blades. During the interval which has elapsed I have had occasion to report to Dose's Kidney Pills when I noticed warnings of an attack. On each and every occasion the results obtained were just as satisfactory as when the pills were first brought to my notice. I just as emphatically endorse the preparation to-day as I did two years ago."

TWO YEARS OF AGONY.

One Case of Cuticura Soap and One Box of Cuticura Cured Baby's Awful Eczema.

"When my sister was eighteen months old a humor broke out on her shoulder, extending clear across the back. For two years it caused her intense suffering. It would wash over and then crack open and a watery matter oozed from it. Then the scabs would fall off and it would be raw for a time. We had several different doctors and tried everything we could think of, but without effecting a cure. Then we got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, which cured her completely and without scar or blemish. (Signed) L. B. Chase Walker, 5 Tremont St., Weymouth, Mass."

A mother who acts thus per child grievous harm. She forgets that the sense of justice is strong in quite little child, and that it is natural and reasonable that he should expect his parents to be as good as their word and to fulfill their promises even at the cost of convenience. Promises should not be lightly broken, and the parent who is guilty of this soon loses his children's confidence, which is one of the sweetest things which our little ones can give us.

Last winter the agricultural school at the University attracted a great deal of attention by winning the grand championship for steers exhibited at the International Show at Chicago with the steer Challenger. This year they are sending a full brother of Challenger, Chicago for the same contest. This steer is reported to be larger and better than the champion steer of last year. If he should win any important place in the show he will be brought back to the University and be used in the judging class for the winter course begins the first week in January. Boys who contemplate attending the winter course will have an opportunity to see the finest type of steer yet produced, and to use this as a standard toward which they can work on their own farms.

HOW OLD PINK WAS SAVED.

Cow Was Returned After Little Boy and Girl Wrote to the President.

The La Harpe (Kany) Review tells a pleasant story of a little boy and a little girl who thought that the President of the United States could do just anything. It was shortly after Chester A. Arthur had come to the presidency. The parents of the little children were very poor. They had been compelled to sell their stock from the "cabin" until only one cow, "Old Pink," remained to them. But there was a mortgage on "Old Pink," and in course of time the mortgagee took her, and the family had nothing with which to keep starvation at bay. The father went away from home seeking work, and the mother and two children barely kept the wolf from the door. Then it was that a happy thought came to Jimmy and Jess, the boy and girl. Procuring a scrap of paper and a pencil they laboriously dictated the following letter to President Arthur:

Mr. president we want you to have our cow old pink sent back home.

Jimmy and Jess.

They were not quite clear as to their rights in the premises, or of the manner in which their epistle would be received by the postoffice department. So they slipped into the little postoffice and dropped their letter without envelope or direction into the mail box and then ran for home as fast as they could go. Of course the letter did not travel the long road to Washington and President Arthur never knew of the confidence reposed in his power by two children on the plains of Kansas. But the postmaster brought results quite as effectively as the President could. He showed the letter to people as they came to the postoffice, and presently the few men of the town got together and went down to see the man who had taken Old Pink on the mortgage. The Review says that a shotgun is alleged to have taken quite a prominent part in the negotiations which followed. Be that as it may, Old Pink was returned without money and without price, and two little tads went to sleep that night rejoicing at the far reach of the mighty man in Washington.

TWO DISAPPOINTMENTS.

The ability of the experienced woman to take care of herself in most of the emergencies of life may be considered by this time satisfactorily established, but there are skeptics, not to say scoffers, whom no amount of testimony would convince. As an exception which proves the rule to the truly unprejudiced person, the case of a woman of national prominence as a newspaper correspondent may be recorded.

She had visited and "written up" nearly every quarter of the globe, and was on her way to Rome, when she had the misfortune to lose her purse, which contained her money, tickets and credentials.

The situation was a serious one. She was among strangers, thousands of miles from home, and in these circumstances did, perhaps, the most natural thing. She converted certain of her personal effects into money enough to take her to London, which had been her European starting point, and went at once to a bank with which she had had business dealings.

On stating her predicament to the cashier, he said, "But madam, it might have been worse. You know you still have three hundred dollars on deposit here."

"It is possible!" she gasped.

"For the moment," she said afterward, in telling her experience to a friend, "I was more disappointed in learning of the existence of that money than I was when I lost my purse. It flashed upon me that I could have drawn upon that London bank for funds enough to enable me to go on with my journey—and I hadn't done it!"

His Temporary Story.

"Do I understand that you were a soldier in the Civil War?" queried the pedestrian of the one-armed man who had asked for alms.

"Well, I thought I was up to yesterday, but now I dunno," was the reply.

"What happened yesterday?"

"Why, one of these fellows you call statisticians doubted my story and soon figured out that I was only six months old when the war broke out, and consequently couldn't have been there. I've got to get up something new, I suppose, and meanwhile, as a temporary thing, you can put it down that I tried to make a short cut by crawling under a street car and in that way lost this arm."

An Ultimatum.

"No," said the fair maid in the parlor scene, "I'll not sit on the sofa with you unless you promise not to try to kiss me."

"Well," answered the young man, "I'll promise if you insist, but before allowing you to present yourself with a gold brick I wish to call your attention to the fact that I am one of those individuals who never break a promise."

A Woman's Aim.

"To convict the defendant of assault and battery," said the woman's lawyer. "It must first be proved that the intention was there."

"But," interrupted the magistrate, "all the evidence shows that the woman actually hit her husband with a brick."

"Which very fact proves that she must have aimed at something else,"—Philadelphia Press.

HIS FAVORITE MONTH.

She—What is your favorite month in the country?

He—October.

As you appreciate nature's autumnal symphonies in color.

Yes, and, besides, the rates are over.

A POOR TEACHER.

Friend (on the ice)—What are you doing over?

Mr. Ughmug—I can teach any girl to skate in a day, but with that girl, Mr. Hombroome, they don't learn to stand alone in a month.

Especially for Women.

Champion, Mich., Jan. 9.—(Special.)—A case of special interest to women is that of Mrs. A. Wellatt, wife of a well-known photographer here. It is best given in her own words.

"I could not sleep, my feet were cold and my limbs cramped," Mrs. Wellatt states. "I had an awful hard pain across my kidneys. I had to get up three or four times in the night. I was very nervous and fearfully despondent. I had been troubled in this way for five years when I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, and what they caused to come from my kidneys will hardly stand description.

"By the time I had finished one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills I was cured. Now I can sleep well, my limbs do not tramp, I do not get up in the night and I feel better than I have in years. I owe my health to Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Women's ills are caused by Diseased Kidneys; that's why Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure them.

Frickshun is a narrow strip of very productive land, lying between the Lumina of truth and falsehood, owing allegiance to neither.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is not a matter of time, but of degree. We will give One Hundred Dollars for an actual cure of deafness, by returning the name of the patient, by mail, to the following address: Dr. J. C. MIGHT HAVE SAVED IT.

A Lot of Trouble from Too Much Starchy Food.

A little boy of eight years whose parents did not feed him on the right kind of food, was always nervous and suffered from a weak condition of the stomach and bowels. Finally he was taken down with appendicitis and after the operation the doctor knowing that his intestinal digestion was very weak, put him on Grape-Nuts twice a day.

He rapidly recovered and about two months thereafter, his father states, "He has grown to be strong muscular, and sleeps soundly weighs 62 pounds, and his whole system is in a fine condition of health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

It is plain that if he had been put on Grape-Nuts at an earlier period in his life, and kept from the use of foods that he could not digest, he never would have had appendicitis. That disease is caused by indigestion of food decaying in the stomach and bowels, causing irritation and making for the growth of all kinds of microbes, setting up a diseased condition which is the active cause of appendicitis and this is more marked with people who do not properly digest white bread.

Grape-Nuts is made of a selected parts of wheat and barley and by the peculiar processes of the cooking at the factory, all of the starch is turned into sugar ready for immediate digestion and the more perfect nourishment of all parts of the body, particularly the brain and nerve centers.

KEEP YOUR PROMISES.

Many a woman who would not think of highly breaking a promise made to a grown-up person is utterly careless about keeping her word with her children. She promises whatever is convenient at the moment, and apparently thinks that the breaking of keeping of those promises is a matter in which she can please herself, and that her children have no right to consider themselves aggrieved if she does not do so.

Miss Rose Peterson, Secretary Parkdale Tennis Club, Chicago, from experience advises all young girls who have pains and sickness peculiar to their sex, to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many beautiful young girls develop into worn, listless and hopeless women, simply because sufficient attention has not been paid to their physical development. No woman is exempt from physical weakness and periodic pain, and young girls just budding into womanhood should be carefully guided physically as well as morally.

If you know of any young lady who is sick, and needs motherly advice, ask her to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., who will give her advice free, from a source of knowledge which is unequalled in the country. Do not hesitate about stating details which one may not like to talk about, and which are essential for a full understanding of the case.

Miss Hannah E. Mershon, Collingswood, N. J., says:

"I thought I would write and tell you that, by following your kind advice, I feel like a new person. I was always thin and delicate, and so weak that I could hardly do anything. Menstruation was irregular.

"I tried a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and began to feel better right away. I continued its use, and am now well and strong, and menstruate regularly. I cannot say enough for what your medicine did for me."

How Mrs. Pinkham Helped Fannie Kumpfe.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it is my duty to write and tell you of the benefit I have derived from your advice and the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The pains in my back and womb have all left me, and my menstrual trouble is corrected. I am very thankful for the good advice you gave me, and I shall recommend your medicine to all who suffer from female weakness."—Miss FANNIE KUMPF, 1922 Chester St., Little Rock, Ark. (Dec. 16, 1900.)

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure any woman in the land who suffers from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, kidney troubles, nervous excitability, nervous prostration, and all forms of woman's special ills.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.
