The G. A. R. Encampment. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 13.-The twenty sinth national encampment of the G. A. R., the Woman's Relief corps and the Ladies' Circle of the G. A. R., began their conventions this morning. Those meetings were attended only by delegates. General Lawler, the commander-in-chief was loudly cheered as he formally called the meeting to order and introduced Henry Watter-son, who made a flowery address of welcome. In response, Past Com-mander-in-Chief William Warner of Kansas City, spoke briefly. He said the boys in blue would never forget the generous and great hospitality of the good people of Louisville. When he had done talking, Commander Lawler said he took great pleasure in introducing James Whit-comb Riley, the Hoosier poet. Mr. Riley then read an original poem.

Commander Lawler said that the comrades had decided to honor Past Commander John Palmer of Albany by presenting him with a token of their regard for the faithful performance of his duty while he was Commander. Judge Cochrane then presented him a solid cilver tea set, and General Palmer responded briefly.

A gavel made of gold, silver and copped, and studded with diamonds, rubies and sapphires, was presented to Commander Lawler by Senior Vice Commander O'Leary of Montana in behalf (7 the Montana division. It was given because General Lawler was the rst commander-in-chief who ever vis-Ited the Montana posts.

Commander Lawler then delivered his annual address. In opening he re-ferred to Kentucky as the birthplace of Lincoln. Then he complimented the various officers in due turn. said that the order had lost 56,956 members in the year, and now had 857,639 active members, with 49,600 suspended. He called for a pension law by congress which could not be misconstrued or misapplied and advocated a suit to test the present law. He spoke for a national appropriation for Memorial day and against making that day one of recreation Compli-ments were paid to the women's or-ders, the Sons of Veterans and thanks returned for past kindnesses.

The Woman's Relief corps met at

NEW FAST TIME RECORD

More Than a Mile a Minute Between New York and Buffalo. New York, Sept. 13.—The New York

Central yesterday made a new world's record in the running of fast trains on a long distance schedule. At 5:40%, a special train of four cars, the entire train weighing 552,000 pounds, under the direction of George H. Danunder the direction of George H. Daniels, the general passenger agent of the road, left the Grand Central depot. It arrived at Albany at 7:54:55, making the run of 143 m iles in 135½ minutes. A stop of one m inute was made at Albany for the purpose of changing engines. Syracuse was reached at 10:17:18, making the run of 148 miles from Albany in 140 1-6 minutes. The total run from New York to East Buffalo, 436½ railes, was made in 407 minutes, an average speed of 64½ miles an hour. This gives the New York Central the world's record for a long distance rury with a heavy train, its train being pearly twice the train, its train being nearly twice the weight of the English racing trains.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13 .- The Inter Ocean prints a story in which it is said that Fitzsimmons declared that he will refuse to meet Corbett in Dallas unless he is "let in" on certain concessions on which he believes a large amount of money will be realized. It is said that he accuses Brady, Corbett, Joe Vendig and Stewart of Dallas with gobbling up everything in sight, from the lemonade stand to the eidoloscope. with which it is intended to reproduce the fight throughout the country. It is the latter concession that liob is jealous of, and it is said that he has made a formal demand for a percentage of the profits on it, otherwise he declares there will be no fight.

GRAND ARMY PARADE

FORTY THOUSAND OLD SOL-DIERS GET IN LINE.

Three Handred Thousand People Witness the Murch-The Host Led by Ex-Confederates-Southern Soldiers Cheer Their Old Fors Enthusiastically-Veterans All Show the Weight of Years-How the Parade Was Formed.

Ex-Soldiers Again in Line.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 13. - Thousands of ex-Confederates and hosts of other people gathered early this morning along the streets to witness the grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic and cheers were constant as the divisions marched along to the street, where they were to form. The entire line of march was cleared of everything while the Louisville Le-gion, the cadets and Kentucky National Guard patrolled the ways and there was no delay. Forty thousand vetererans were in line and fully 300,000 people witnessed the march.

The parade was headed by two ex-Confederates on horseback, Captain John H. Weller and Captain William H. Harrison. They did not wear the gray, but were dressed in black Prince Alberts with silk hats and red, white and blue sashes, the same as members of the citizens' committee. They also wore red, white and blue scarfs and rosettes. Captain Weller carried a large United States flag and Captain Harrison a large while banner of peace. In place of the eagle on the top of the staff, the white banner had a dove carrying an olive twig.

The vegrans showed the weight of years and the effects of service. It was the general remark that there were never so many old, lame and feeble men in line, but they marched proudly none the less.

At sunrise the only clouds were from the salute of forty guns, and the weather even was for peace. The departments began forming at an early hour under special orders to have the procession move promptly at 10:30 o'clock. At 9:30 another salute was fired for the first grand division to form. At 10 o'clock the guns indicated that the escort was moving to the head of the column and at 16:30 the salute signaled all the ten grand divisions to

M'KINLEY ON THE ISSUES.

The Ohio Governor for Sound Morey and Against the Bond Syndicate. SPRINGFIELD, Obio Sept. 12. - In his speech yesterday Governor McKinley, after criticising the foreign and do-mestic policy of the Cleveland adminmestic policy of the Cleveland admin-istration, the governor asserted that the real subject of contention in Ohio is the tariff. He quoted Cleveland as opposing Senator Brice as regards the Brice-Gorman act, and he also quoted the Cincinnati Enquirer as declaring that a veto by Cleveland would "be a cleaning up of much rubbish and uncleanliness in the Democratic household." Then, he quoted the Ohio Dem-ocratic platform of 1894, favoring further reductions in the tariff, and asked: "Is this rubbish and uncleanliness in the Democratic household' to stand, and that which was a year ago unworthy and impure and a stepch in the Democratic nostrils now to be accepted as worthy and pure?"

"Has the Democratic party of Ohio changed its views since September, 1894, and is now willing that the pro tective duties, which are retained in the Brice-Gorman-Wilson act, shall remain, and the law be a permanent set-tlement of the tariff question? Is a law, using the language of Mr Cleve-land, which puts the wool of the farmer on the free list and the protection of tariff on the iron, ore and coal of corporations and capitalists' to receive the approval of the people of Ohio by their votes in November next?

"My friends, there is one objection to the law, if there were no others, which must make its permanency impossible. It fails to raise the needed revenues for the daily expenses of the government. That would condemn it in the judgment of the American peo-ple, whatever difference they might have on the question of protection and free trade. The law, from the date of its enactment to the present time-and it is now a year old-has not raised enough money from customs duties and internal revenue combined to meet the necessary expenses of the govern-

THE BOND SYNDICATE.

Secretary Carlisle's Annual Report Expected to Contain Facts Regarding It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12 .- One of the features of Secretary Carlisle's report to congress will probably be a full statement of the operations of the bond syndicate. It is understood that in connection with the transaction which are as yet only known to the parties immediately concerned in the negotion of the loan. The most important problem the secretary will have to deal with is that which looks to the relief of the treasury, involving a radical change in the financial system. The desired relief can only be obtained by the aid of congress, and the secretary realizes that it is going to be a very difficult task to suggest a remedy which will meet the approval of the Republican house, with Reed, a candidate for the presidency, in the speaker's chair. It probably will be the policy of the Republicans to confuse, rather than un-tangle, the financial complications during the next congress, for they are counting upon making considerable political capital out of the money question in the presidential contest.

LEGISLATION UPHELD

OMAHA FIRE AND POLICE MAT-TER DECIDED.

The Supreme Court Reported to Have Held the Act of the Late Legislature Constitutional-An Opinion by the Entire Court-The Enactment Constitutional and the Appointments Legal-Final Outcome of a Matter that Menaced Trouble.

The New Board Wins.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 11 .- The Journal gives publicity to the following: According to information secured by this paper the Omaha fire and police bill has been approved by the supreme court and the formal opinion will soon be rendered.

There has been much guessing as to the opinion of the supreme court, now in preparation, and predictions of all kinds have been published from time to time. At first it was reported that Commissioner Irvine was writing the opinion in the famous case. Then the report was circulated broadcast that the court had decided in favor of the old board of police commissioners and against the constitutionality of the new law, and as a result of this report the wires between Omaha and Lincoln were kept hot with telegrams of in-quiry. Incidentally the life of Commissioner Irvine at Omaha was made a burden. The Journal has information of a re liable character, to the effect that the court has decided the case in favor of the new board of fire and police commissioners. The opinion was expected the latter part of last week, but one of the judges sent to the state library for additional legal works to be used in preparing one part of the opinion, and therefore the handing down of the de-cision was deferred. It is now expected any day, but may be withheld until the regular full session of the court which convenes September 17.

Contrary to expectation, the opinion will not be written by any one member of the court commission. It will come as the opinion of the court, and not as the writing of any one man. According to information at hand, the three judges, Chief Justice Norval, Justice Post and Justice Harrison, have been engaged in working on various points in the case, and in addition the com-mission has been consulted by the court.

The decision is not based on one turning point alone. It takes up the several points at length and decides every material proposition that arises, or is likely to arise in the future, so that the litigants will not be left in the dark. The material points are the constitu-tionality of the new fire and police law. and the legality of the appointment of the new fire and police board. The opinion sustains both the constitution-ality of the law and the regularity of the appointments which were made Attorney General Churchill and Land Commissioner Russell, the third mem-ber of the appointing board refusing to participate in the meeting after having had due notice.

This information, which leaked out yesterday, has caused considerable excitement and wherever it is known is the one topic of conversation, but it was not generally circulated in this city and is said to be wholly unknown it will contain several interesting facts in Omaha where the people are personally interested. The rendition of such an opinion will be followed by the retirement of the old board.

Bold Plans to Escape From the Carreliton

Jail Miscarry. Consoliton, Mo., Sept 12. - Soon after the jury in the second trial of the Taylor brothers rendered a verdict of guilty of murder and Judge Rucker sentenced them to be hanged October 4, the two manifested friendliness for Night Watchman Brown of the county jail and as soon as they felt sure that he was their friend they offered him a liberal sum of money to assist them in "breaking" out of jail.

Brown listened to the proposition and then gave it in detail to Sheriff Stanley, who instructed him to encourage the Taylors and hear all their plans.

Brown met the Taylor brothers the next night and assured them that he could and would fix it so that they could escape, but that as it would throw suspicion upon him and the condemned murderers to him and the condemned murderers to be seen conversing together, it would be advisable to conduct further megotiations in writing. They accepted the advice and as the letters were received by Brown they were submitted by him to Sheriff Stanley, who, of course, knew what replies were sent to the Taylors. Extra guards will now be put in the jail.
