A report, not confirmed, is abroad that H. B. Austin, cashier of the defunct bank at Hemingford, has lost his mind and is a raving maniac.

Miss Bird Smith, of Beatrice died last week in Peekskill, N. Y., where she was attending school. She was to have graduated in a few weeks.

The seven saloons of Howells, Platte county, have closed up, the occupation tax being so excessive that their business did not pay. An effort is being made to get a reduction.

The mayor of Beatrice has resigned, and the same has been accepted. He is to be out of the city most of the summer. His successor, chosen by the council, is John Lwyer.

The citizens and business men in Minden have signed a resolution not to give the B. & M. any more business at that point until it consents to stop the flyer, No. 3, at that place on schedule time.

County Commissioner G. W. Siggart had his left hand injured while roping a colt, so that three fingers had to be amputated. He rode thirty-five miles to Hyannis before surgical aid could be had.

Dr. J. S. Devries, of Fremont, has become mentally unbalanced, and at the request of his wife, who feared that he would kill her and the children, he has been removed to a sanitarium at Council Bluffs.

W. R. Welch, who shot and killed Glen Santee, was arrested at Chadron, charged with murder in the first degree. Prior to this time Welch was free, no complaint having been filed against him.

George Smith, a tramp, was taken in and cared for a day or two by E. Canright of North Platte. Next morning he got up rather early and stole a purse from the house and "hit the trail" for the west. He was followed and overhauled.

Herman Glade, a prominent and well-to-do farmer of Hall county, was severely kicked by a mule and died from the internal injuries sustained. Mr. Glade had been working the animal on a plow and was in the act of unharnessing when the mule which had never before shown any viciousness, kicked him squarely in the stomach.

Dr. Dunn, who had some 400 acres east of Havelock sowed to hemp last year, will make a greater venture than ever along this line during the coming season. Two car loads of hemp seed consigned to the doctor arrived last week and it will be sufficient to plant about 1,000 acres. The doctor has demonstrated that hemp is one of the very best paying crops known to Nebraska farming and his determination to go into it on such a large scale deserves success.

Citizens of the village of Utica have succeeded in getting an order from the board of transportation giving them one more passenger train per day. The order has not been made by the board proper, but the board of secretaries has recommended it and the recommendation will probably be adopted.

A. F. Lindburg, of Stromsburg, one of the best known implement men in that part of the state, died at Highlands, Colo., last week, whether he had gone to secure relief from consumption. He came to this country when he was 2 years of age. He had been in business in Stromsburg for over ten years.

The wife of William Zweig, a well-to-do German farmer who lives three miles south of Waco, committed suicide by hanging herself with a towel in a large cow barn.

Receiver Doolittle of the North Platte National Bank has been ordered by the comptroller to pay a dividend of 20 per cent on the bank's indebtedness. This is the third dividend, and makes a total of 50 per cent paid on the indebtedness.

A snark thief entered the residence of ex-Chief of Police Dunn of Plattsmouth during the temporary absence of the family and stole $35 in money from Mr. Dunn's trouser's pocket. No clue has been discovered as to the perpetrator of the theft. A number of suspicious looking tramps have been in town for several days and the police are busy showing them the "short route" out of the city.

On the 28th inst. there will be held at Norfolk a convention of county commissioners and supervisors for the purpose of discussing matters of public interest and for the adoption of uniform methods for the transaction of public business by the county boards throughout the state. The railroads of the state will make a reduced rate of one fair and a third for the round trip, and it is hoped and believed there will be a good attendance.

At Plattsmouth Justice Archer bound Fred Patterson over to the district court in the sum of $500 on the charge of shooting with intent to kill. Patterson is postmaster at Rock Bluffs. He has a farm which borders on the river, and some days ago he had a dispute with a neighbor as to the ownership of land which the Missouri had transferred to the Nebraska side. It was during this dispute that the shooting occurred.

The other evening Zed Cox and a friend, of Republican City, entered Superior in a novel way. They had floated down the river in a full rigged sailboat of their own manufacture, twenty feet long and of good proportions. They will proceed down the river to the Republican into the Smoky, from that stream into the Kaw, then into the Missouri, and from there into the Mississippi down to Cairo; then up the Ohio to Cincinnati.

At this writing the Union Pacific and Elkhorn are shipping into the section around Chadron about 50,000 head of cattle to be unloaded at stations in northwestern Nebraska, southwestern Dakota and Wyoming. The bulk of shipments are from El Paso, Tex., and assigned to the following parties: Cordelites Mining and Cattle company, 20,000; William Nation Cattle company, 19,000, and the Wilcox Arizona Mining company of Phoenix, 15,000 head.

At the last regular meeting of the state executive committee of the Nebraska club the chairman was authorized to name two standing committees, transportation and judiciary. Chairman Clarkson announced these committees: Transportation—Joseph Oberfelder, Sidney; Ross L. Hammond, Fremont; Eli A. Barnes, Grand Island; O. C. Holmes, Omaha; and A. J. Durland, Norfolk. Judiciary—Judge Clinton N. Powell, Arthur English and H. A. Brogan.

Alvin Hughes let himself down into the well of George Upright, about eight miles west of North Platte, 135 feet. When at the bottom the well caved in. He was heard to call, but upon throwing a light down, only his hands were in sight. L. C. Hamel was let down into the well 100 feet, and finding it unsafe, was drawn up. Thirty feet more earth caved in before he reached the surface. Hughes is not expected to be found alive when unearthed.

A stockholder in the Buffalo County National bank, now in the hands of a receiver, denies liability for stock issued in his name on the ground that he held it in trust for another who was insolvent, and that the transaction was one for the protection of the bank. The court held that if the books of the bank made such a showing, the trustee would not be liable, but as no such showing had been made in this case, and the records gave the impression that the defendant held the stock in person, he was liable, and a judgment was rendered against him.

Nebraska people who have been experimenting with alfalfa are more than ever convinced this spring of the value of the plant for forage and of its adaptability to this section. Not only is it produced enormous crops of hay wherever it has been tried, but it has been demonstrated that it will furnish feed in the spring long before other grass is available. Eli A. Barnes, one of the board of managers of the state fair, reports having seen, on a recent trip from Beaver City to Arapahoe, grass of that variety which was almost high enough to cut. Hogs were being pastured in the field and large animals were just visible when wading around through the grass. Not only was the feed plentiful, but the owner stated that hogs did better on it than any other variety of feed.

State Fair Items: An appropriation of $125 for the use of the fish commission has been granted. The proof of the 1896 hanger has been received and approved. It is 24x36 inches, done in bright colors on a background of rich golden brown, and the design of a gleaner and an abundant harvest. A delegation in the interest of having one day of the fair set apart as bicycle day was received. Secretary Furnas says that in his correspondence he has received most encouraging letters regarding the condition of the crops throughout the state, and the prospects for making the coming fair a big success. It has been decided that this year, instead of having the drinking water on the grounds in open barrels, those with neat tops and faucets at the proper height will be substituted.

Loran Clark, of Boone county, well known throughout the state, died last week. He served one term in the Nebraska legislature, was candidate for state treasurer in 1881 on the republican ticket and was a delegate from the Third congressional district to the national convention at Minneapolis in 1888.

By the breaking of the handle of a handcar at Farnam Pat O'Brien, a section man, was thrown on the track in front of the car and then dragged under it with its load of eight or ten men. The cog wheels smashed several of the man's ribs and bruised him considerably.

AN OVATION TO M'KINLEY

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE ENTHUSIASTICALLY CHEERS HIM.

BALLOTING FOR BISHOPS.

Committee of the State of the Church Recommends Some Radical Changes—Another Measure Brought Up Calculated to Lessen the Authority of Bishops—Conference Work.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 18.—When the Methodist Episcopal general conference was called to order the third ballot for bishop was announced to the great audience. It showed that 510 votes had been cast. The following six candidates lead: C. C. McCabe, 293; Earl Cranston, 191; J. W. E. Bowen, 165; H. A. Buttz, 154; J. W. Hamilton, 138; E. B. Neely, 42.

A fourth ballot was ordered. It showed that 512 votes were cast and no choice made, 342 votes being necessary to a choice. The leaders were: McCabe, 243; Buttz, 233; Cranston, 214; Hamilton, 141; Bowen, 109.

There are two bishops to be elected and the 512 votes which were cast on the fourth ballot indicate the vote for one bishop only and in reality represent 1,024 votes. The apparent discrepancy of only 512 votes being announced caused some confusion when in the report of the ballot it was shown that over 1,000 ballots had actually been cast. This explanation was made by a delegate to the satisfaction of the conference.

While the fifth ballot was being counted the death of J. W. Reed was announced, and a committee on resolutions appointed. The Rev. Mr. William Martindale of Kansas presented a memorial requesting Congress to prohibit the licensing of the sale of liquor in states where prohibition was in effect. It was adopted and ordered sent.

The proceedings were interrupted by great applause next door, and soon Major William McKinley appeared on the platform. Bishop Joyce presented him and the air was white with handkerchiefs. Three times the applause died away and three times it was renewed. It was the greatest ovation of the conference. Dr. Kynett wanted to take a recess at once, but the motion was defeated and the business was continued, but the regular recess was made fifteen minutes instead of ten, and nearly every delegate in the house took advantage of the opportunity to greet Governor McKinley.

After recess the chair announced the fifth ballot. It resulted in no choice, but revealed some remarkable surprises. The vote on the six leading candidates was as follows: H. A. Buttz, 266; Earl Cranston 245; C. C. McCabe 239; J. W. Hamilton 137; J. W. E. Bowen 75; T. B. Neeley 21. Another ballot was ordered.

At the meeting of the state of the church committee a report on sociological work written by Rev. Dr. William Quayle of Kansas City was presented. It was long and a wide departure from the usual formal report and called for some decided criticism. It was defended by Mr. Quayle, but after a long discussion was returned to the subcommittee for revision. The committee took up the question that the term of probation be shortened, but decided in favor of retaining the present term of six months. A subcommittee was instructed to prepare a ritual form to be used in the admission of probationers to full membership. The committee on itinerancy considered another measure calculated to lessen the authority of the bishops. It was that the consent of the cabinet of presiding elders should be secured before a bishop could transfer a minister from one conference to another. The committee declined to recommend the change.

A "KATY" STRIKE LIKELY.

Brotherhood of Engineers Demands Imperatively Reinstatement of Lanans.
DENISON, Texas, May 18.—The grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which has been to St. Louis to lay the case of Engineer Will Lanans before the Missouri, Kansas & Texas officials, returned yesterday and reported that the company refused to reinstate Lanans.

The grievance committee formed a federation with the six organizations of trainmen and the most extensive strike in the history of the Southwest is threatened. A committee man told a reporter yesterday to state officially that unless Engineer Lanans was reinstated in five days there would not be a wheel in motion on any part of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas system. It is understood that such an ultimatum has been sent to the headquarters of the company.

BOLLN PUNISHED.

Omaha's Ex-Treasurer Sent Up for Nineteen Years and Fined $111,000
OMAHA, Neb., May 18.—Henry Bolln, ex-city treasurer of Omaha, was sentenced by Judge Baker to serve nineteen years at hard labor in the State penitentiary and to pay a fine of $111,000.

Hay Destroyed by Lightning
ELDORADO, Kan., May 18.—A soaking rain fell here yesterday, accompanied by lightning, which struck the barn of J. H. Stahl at Burns, and the barn and 600 tons of hay were destroyed.

Representative Ross Fatally Injured
CROCKER, Mo., May 18.—J. H. Ross, Representative from Pulaski county, was thrown from his horse near Waynesville yesterday, receiving injuries that will result fatally.

ORDERED HANGED MAY 29.

The Governor Respites Pollard and Harris Once Again.

KANSAS CITY, May 18.—Governor Stone granted a respite yesterday to Foster Pollard and Frank Harris and ordered that they be hanged May 29. This was done in order to prevent further legal complications.

Judge Dobson did not have an opportunity to hear evidence and arguments this morning on the writ of habeas corpus for the release of Pollard and Harris. Before the proceedings were called Judge Dobson was served with a writ of certiorari issued by the supreme court. A writ of certiorari is an order issued by a superior court to a court of inferior jurisdiction and powers, requiring it to send up the proceedings in a case. It is simply the lifting of a case from a lower court to a higher one.

At 9 o'clock this forenoon Marshal Keshlear took Pollard and Harris before Judge Dobson, in answer to the writ of certiorari. Judge Dobson then notified the marshal officially of the writ of certiorari and remanded the prisoners to the marshal's custody again. Judge Dobson then ordered Clerk Stonestreet to certify the records of the proceedings to the supreme court, as directed in the writ, and that ended the case for to-day.

If the supreme court decides Monday that Judge Dobson had jurisdiction to issue the writ as he did, it will send the case back to him. If it decides otherwise, Pollard and Harris will be hanged, unless respited by the governor.

A COMPLEX CRIME.

A House Blown Up and Two or Three Murders Committed.

FREMONT, Ohio, May 18.—At midnight the family of Jacob Hess was aroused by an explosion that shattered their home, but injured no one. Hess and his two sons prepared to leave the house to ascertain the cause and had hardly stepped out when a shot was fired and Hess dropped dead. Subsequent shots killed one and wounded the other. The murderer escaped. Suspicion points to a young farmer, Louis Hillon, who has been in love with Hess' daughter, but was objected to by the father and brothers.

A Bank Wretchedly Ran.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 18.—State Bank Commissioner Breidenthal says that the failure of the Stockgrowers' and Farmers' bank at Meade was one of the worst that has come under his notice. Its capital was $5,000 and it did a large business with cattle men. Its nominal assets are about $20,000, but some of them are of little or no value. The books do not show the liabilities. Some of the deposits have never been entered, and it will take some time for an expert to unravel the tangle. The president, Ormond Hamilton, is short at least $12,000 and he says he has no idea what has become of the money. The depositors are indignant, and Hamilton probably will be prosecuted.

Dubois in Control in Idaho.

POCATELLO, Idaho, May 18.—The Republican state convention was called to order this forenoon by Chairman Patrie of the State committee, and A. A. Crane of Kootenai county was elected temporary chairman by the Dubois men—180 to 68. Friends of ex-Senator Shoup have given up hope of electing him as delegate to the national convention, and four of the delegates will be Senator Dubois, A. B. Campbell, Lytleton Price and Willis Sweet.

Iowa Democratic Bolt Certain.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 18.—The gold Democrats of the State are getting ready to bolt the convention at Dubuque next Wednesday. There is no longer doubt that the convention will be overwhelmingly for free silver. It will instruct the delegation to Chicago for free silver, will place Horace Boies at the head of the delegation, and it is very likely to instruct for him as a presidential candidate.

The Rockford Watch Company Falls.

ROCKFORD, Ill., May 18.—The Rockford watch company made an assignment to-day. A statement of the condition of the company has not been filed. The last inventory, December 31, showed assets of $400,000 and liabilities of $110,000. The company hopes to effect a reorganization. Depression in the watch trade is the cause of the assignment.

Train Wreckers Cause Three Deaths.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 18.—Ties piled on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway at Waldo derailed a southbound freight train last night. Engineer John O'Connor of Green Bay, brakeman Emil Caspar of Milwaukee and John Miller, a tramp, were killed, and Louis Tennis, fireman, and Gen Turbin, a tramp, injured.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

For the second time within a year W. G. Julian's poultry establishment at Clinton, Mo., has closed its doors.

It is said that Colorado Republicans have no intention of bolting the Republican nominees or platform at St. Louis.

Ninth Texas District Populists have nominated Judge G. W. Glasscock for Congress against Colonel Joseph D. Sayers.

The Oklahoma bar is fighting against the confirmation of ex-Congressman Tarsney as an Associate Justice of the Territory.

The 4-year-old adopted plot of John Tavenor, living near Pilot Grove, Mo., was kicked in the head by a mule and her skull crushed.

Representative Morse of Massachusetts reported favorably from the House committee on public buildings and grounds a bill to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in the capitol.

A convict who escaped from the Missouri state penitentiary at Jefferson City was run down by bloodhounds which Sheriff S. H. Stone and Chief of Police Henderson had just brought from Arkansas.

IOWA PROHIBITIONISTS

The State Convention in Session at Des Moines—Bitter Talk.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 14.—When the Prohibition state convention assembled to-day Temporary Chairman J. A. Harvey spoke for two hours, saying that the Republican party in Iowa had enacted the illicit law in the interest of Senator Allison's Presidential candidacy, accusing the party of disloyalty to the people, calling the church people voting for the Republican nominees "pious frauds," and voicing free silver sentiments. The convention went into district caucuses to select national delegates and electors, candidates for Congress, members of the state committee, vice presidents and members of the convention committees.

TARNEY A JUDGE.

Appointed by the President to Oklahoma's Supreme Bench.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The President to-day sent to the Senate the following nomination: John C. Tarsney of Missouri to be associate justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Oklahoma.

No Hope for Mrs. Maybrick.

LONDON, May 14.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Dr. G. B. Clark, Liberal member for Caithnesshire, asked the home secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley, if the lord chief justice, Baron Russell, of Killowen, had intimated to him that Mrs. Florence Maybrick ought to be released, and if so, whether he would appoint a commission of inquiry. The home secretary replied that he had received such an intimation from the chief justice; but, he added, after careful consideration of the matter he, Sir Matthew White Ridley, was convinced that the right course had been adopted, and therefore he would not appoint a commission of inquiry.

A Notorious Woman's Deadly Shot.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 14.—Sarah Hunn, known as "Fascinating Sarah Hunn," admitted by the police as the most expert thief and all round female crook in the city, shot her lover, a negro named Alexander Howard, in the stomach yesterday, and he died last night. She claims that the deed was committed in self defense, Howard having attempted to strangle her.

IOWA PATENT OFFICE REPORT.

DES MOINES, May 7.—T. S. Ballou, of Stuart, Ia., has been allowed a patent for a campaign badge in the form of a bee adapted to be readily fastened to the lapel of a coat. On the wings are fixed the portraits of candidates in such a manner that they are concealed when the wings are folded, but by pressing a detent the wings are expanded and the portraits and sentiments of the wearer flashed upon observers. To be the author of a machine that will give aid, comfort and delight to the present and coming generations may be a nobler triumph than to win a presidential race. It is a hope, too, that many may realize. The ambition of the humble mechanic that looks for honor and fame by seeking to give the world a benefaction in the shape of an invention, is far above the "infatuation" which ruins "presidential candidates." The names of American inventors and public benefactors will be revered when the names of some of our presidents and would-be presidents will be forgotten, or only remembered with indifference, regret or contempt. Valuable information about obtaining, valuing and selling patents sent free to any address. Printed copies of the drawings and specifications of any United States patent sent upon receipt of 25 cents. Our practice is not confined to Iowa. Inventors in other states can have our services upon the same terms as the Hawkeyes.
