NEBRASKA.

We had always understood that patriotism was love for ones own country until Joe Edgerton the demograt explained it to be love for Egypt, Mexico and India, any other but our own and Great Britten. He pronounced a splendid eulogy on Mexico and her free coinage system. He said Mexico was very properous and that a day laborer gets 35 cents in Mexican Silver per day. He distinctly stated that the wages in Mexico were 35 cents per day. He never spoke of the wages of this country which are from $1.00 to 1.50 per day, and that too under a gold standard. How this ought to inspire the wage earners of this country with love, if not for Mexico, for our Joe and his love for Mexico.

Editorially the Sidney Telegraph comments as follows upon Bill Greene's spree while he was at that place last week to deliver a popocratic speech:

" Tonsilius' is it? Too had, too bad. Judge Greene has our heart falt sympathy in his sore affliction. tfonsilits?" well now, we have seen many men afflicted in precisely the same manuer Greene was, and it is the firit time we ever heard it called tonsilitis. Just remember all you who listened to him on Saturday night, September 19th. 1896, when you call to mind his mandlin manner. his disgraceful appearance upon the platform, his vulgar and disgusting language, that he was only troubled with simply tonsilitis.

Tonailitus tonsilitis is good; how the names they call things by do change, and this is so extremely gudden. Why, just think' 'tis hat a seen in our town in the condition Judge Green was, everybody would Chiman have sworn he was drunk. Tonsilitis! Tonsilitis! God bless you, mailitis.
