JONES SAYS QUAY IS WILD.

Democratic Chairman's Figures Are: Me Kinley, 81; Bryan, 279; Doubtful, 87.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15 -- Chairman Jones, of the Democratic national committee, gave out a statement last night characterizing as absurd the figures showing the probable result of the election as given out by Senator Quay. Chairman Jones states that in all the states classed by Senator Quay as doubtful a complete and harmonious fusion between the Democrats, Populists and silver Republicans exists, rendering them certain for Bryan. For the same reason, he classes as doubtful the states of Iows, Ohio and Wisconsin, and claims for Bryan the electoral votes of Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota and West Virginia, all of which were claimed for McKinley by Mr. Quay. The table given out by Chairman Jones gives $1 votes as cer-tain for McKinley, 279 for Bryan, and 87 as doubtful.

Bishop Williams of the Protestant Episcopal Church Heard From.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Oct. 15.-Bishop G. Mott Williams of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Marquette said yesterday:

"The Episcopal church was most largely represented among the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the framers of the constitution of the United States. She has never encouraged her clergy to be personal partisans, yet I would be a dumb guardian of my people should I hesitate to say that any member of the Episcopal church who supports the Chicago platform will do so in the teeth of the moral teachings of his church. I have never been a party man, and do not declare for any per-sonal preference in this election, but I do declare for patriotism, matual charity and confidence between the rich and poor, anti-sectionalism and bonest money."

A Voluntary Statement.

From the Herald, Juniata, Neb. I wish to call attention to a voluntary statement made in my presence tary statement made in my presence by one who for twenty-four years suf-fered the most excruciating pains from Inflammatory Rheumatism, together with St. Vitus' dance, and now is thoroughly cured. This lady, Mrs. Matilda Vanatta, of Juniata, Nebras-ka, is well-known here, and she cheer-fully gave this statement regarding her long suffering and final recovery. Mrs. Vanatta said she contracted the rheumatism when she was but eight years of age, that she gradually grew worse as years passed by, until she was considered a hopeless invalid, her life being despaired of by her friends, and her relatives at one time were called in, supposing her time had real-ly come. During all this time she was under the constant care of different physicians, and had tried every known remedy that was recommended for her disease, until a fortune was spent, and no relief obtained. She said it would be hard to estimate the amount of medicines she had taken. They had almost given up hope of ever finding a cure, when she chanced to see an advertisement of Dr. Wil-liams' Pink Pills for Pale People. She asked her husband what he thought of that remedy begun. Before the box of pills was gone she began to feel relief. She stopped all other medicine, and now, as a result of these pills, she is a well woman, does all her own work, and is happy, and praises the time when that advertisement came her way. She says she will recom-mend Fink Pills for Pale People for any like disease, above anything else, and is willing and anxious to give a statement to any one that is troubled with the dread disease, that they too might enjoy health through the use of Dr. Williams' Fink Pills for Pale People for any like disease, above anything else, and is willing and anxious to give a statement to any one that is troubled with the dread disease, that they too might enjoy health through the use of Dr. Williams' Fink Pills for Pale Peop-ple. by one who for twenty-four years suffered the most excruciating pains from lin, and Many Theaters.

NEW YORK. Oct. 19.-Henry E. Abbey, of the great operatic and theatrical firm of Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau, died early this morning in his rooms in the Osborne hotel from hemorrhage of the stomach. With him at the end were his daughter and Mrs. Kingsley, mother of Mr. Abbey's first wife, The present Mrs. Abbey, who recently brought suit for divorce, is said to be in Europe.

Mr. Abbey had been heard of but little publicly since the publication of his wife's action for divorce, and the reorganization of his firm, which caused such a sensation in the anuse-ment world a few months ago. Only his intimate friends knew where he was living, and they had no intimation of the seriousness of his condition. For this reason the announcement of his death came as a complete surprise.

Henry E. Abbey was born in Akron Ohio, in 1846 and was the successor of his father as a jeweler there. Then he became a jeweler at Buffalo, N. Y. In 1869 he managed a summer opera company at Akron. In 1870 he was Ned Adams' advance agent and a year later in conjunction with Adams leased the Akron, Ohio, opera house and failed for a large amount. In 1876 Abbey as-sumed control of the Academy of Music in Buffalo. He took as a partner John B. Schoeffel, whom he made manager. A year later they acquired possession of the Park theater in this city. On October 30, 1882, fire broke out in the theater and spoiled Mrs. Langtry's American debut. In 1883 he and Maur-ice Grau took the Metropolitan opera nouse here and lost $250,000. The firm of Abbey & Schoeffel then managed the Grand opera house in this city, Booth's theater, the Park and Tremont theaters in Boston; the Metropolitan opera house in this city, and the Lyeeum theater in London. Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau brought Patti, Bernhardt, Irving and Terry, Coquelin and Hading to this country and the history of the partnership is that of the most conspicuous part of the American stage during the last decade and a half. Each man, important by means of his special knowledge of his division of the business and by reabined in the firm a power for the con-trol of theatrical affairs which has been seldom approached in this coun-try. Rhinestones combined with jet are seen among the novelties in dress trimmings, and are especially effective in a bolero jacket to be worn with an allblack gown.

It's a great mistake to finish out a somewhat worn chiffon or Brussels net bodice by adapting it for street wear. The effect is tawdry, and makes its wearer unpleasantly conspicuous.

Cigar tints will be extremely modish this fall, and all browns, grays and fawns will be more used than any other color for street wear, outside of the beautiful mixtures known as tweeds.

Never were silks more beautiful nor more varied in hues. Two tones are the rage, and it is almost impossible to find one in a single color; even black silks have an undertone of blue, green

Almost any plain dress can be con-verted into a charming gown by the fortunate selection of girdle, sash and collar. The newest ribbon belts are Snished off with flat pipings of white silk or satin at each side.

The tailor-made gown of this season. say the authorities, will be distinguished by rows of stitching at the hem, small revers and collar faced with velvet, and the sleeves finished at the hands with stitching and buttoned over.
