Let us tell you gentle reader, we've been looking long in vain, for subscriptions that are due us, and it gives us such a pain. We're about financially busted, paper bills we cannot pay; it is mighty rocky sledding, living thus from day to day. We are needing corn and money, fuel, flour, eggs and meat; and our shoes are all in tatters, and our pants out at the seat. As we write we sit and shiver, as our stock of coal is low; take this message to your neighbor, he may owe us too you know.

The first appointment made by the state board of public lands and buildings was that of C. W. Hoxie of Lincoln a populist to the position of superintendent of the Kearney reform school for the boys, to succeed John T. Mallilien.

During the holidays and the two weeks that congress has adjourned the ways and means committee have been very busy at work on the tariff bill. The new bill is to be a moderate measure of protection which can be with certainty depended upon to raise sufficient revenue to meet the expenses of the government. Washington writers say, "there is nothing radical aimed at in the bill."

It is currently rumored, in fact is so well founded that everybody believes it, that Judge Greene was on a big drunk lasting from last Saturday noon to Wednesday morning. Jurors and witnesses remained in the city at a cost to the taxpayers of the county from $300 to $400 per day. The Beacon has no defense to offer.—Broken Bow Beacon. (pop.)

The twenty-fifth session of the Nebraska legislature opened last Wednesday. The senate organized without difficulty within a short time after it was called to order. The house of representatives was organized by electing J. N. Gaffin, of Saunders county speaker. Mr. Gaffin occupied the same position when the former populist body held the reigns.

After the state senate had organized a list of employees was chosen. There were twenty-seven in all. While the motion to employ them was being entertained a motion was made in the interest of economy to amend, by striking off two of the assistants, and thus save to the state the sum of $750.00. The amendment was offered by a populist and he was supported by the solid republican element and only four of his populist brothers. The amendment was lost by a large populist vote. We are pleased to note however that Senator Heapy of Sherman was among the four populists who were in favor of saving the $750 to the tax payers of the state.

Price fighters are practically outcasts from society; they have no rights which anybody is bound to respect; their differences cannot be adjusted in the court, as judges regard them as law breakers, and neither plaintiff or defendant can be in the right. A large per centage of them have served terms in the penitentiary and any one of them is liable to be sentenced to that institution at any time. No self respecting man with a family would think of inviting a prize fighter to his home to meet his wife and children. And yet, when a celebrated pugilist arrives in town he is following by a cringing and fawning crowd of admirers; and is more important than a little tin idle on wheels. There is no end to the inconsistency of men.—Boatice Express.

What is styled a conference of silver voters of Buffalo county is called to meet at the courthouse next Saturday. Those who called the meeting have gall enough to term it a non-partisan gathering and yet the call was not handed to a single republican paper for publication. Non-partisan indeed.—Kearney Sun.

A Hillsboro man lost his dog and this is the way the newspaper man let the fact be known: Henry Mitchell has lost his dog and don't know where to find him. He wore two ticks upon his neck and a short stub tail behind him. The dog is long and narrow built with spots of black and white, and if he sees a smaller dog he always wants to fight. He toasts his tail up stiff and straight, when he's for war prepared, but points it downward to the ground whenever he is scared. This stump tailed dog that now is lost was Henry's friend and crony, but now alas, he sadly fears he's made up in bologna.

Some people seems to think that prosperity, like Christmas ought to come all at once. It doesn't come that way. A financial panic may be likened unto a man who through overwork and gluttonous eating has been prostrated with bilious fever. The portal circulation is plugged up and every vital organ is in an abnormal condition. He wastes away in flesh and feels miserable night and day until finally the system is clogged of all impurities and he is ready to begin the building up process. Do you think kind reader, that he jumps right out of bed, puts on his overalls and starts out to husk and crib 110 bushels of corn before dark? Well, he doesn't do anything of the kind. He has his wife and the hired man raise him up, and put a chair at his back with two or three pillows between to keep his chair rounds from breaking his ribs. When he has been in that position ten minutes he wants to lie down and rest. Then he wants two small crumbs of cracker in his beef tea, and the doctor thinks in a few days he can digest a soft cooked oyster. He fell sick in one day, and it takes weeks and perhaps months to regain the measure of strength that he once enjoyed and so shamefully abused. The nation has had a severe run of democratic fever and is hardly convalescent as we go to press. We ought to feel thankful that the patient has past the crises and shows marked symptoms for the better. It will take time to restore the delicate functions of its vital organs to normal activity, but the curative process is going on, and will increase rapidly when the patient is removed to a healthier republican atmosphere.—State Journal.

The township officers were in session last Wednesday and settled with the various officers of the township and did such other business as was necessary to make final settlement preparatory to the incoming of the new township board. The treasurer's books were examined and found to be correct. We are informed that the highest account filed this year by any one road supervisor in the township was $18.00, while heretofore they have filed for all the law would allow, ($2.00). This reduction has been brought about by the action of the board in cutting down the claims, after having satisfied itself that the accounts filed were too much for the amount of labor performed.

The Nebraska Legislature. It is a recognized fact among Nebraskans that no matter what other daily paper they read at other times, during the legislative sessions they must get the Lincoln State Journal if they want all the news. The Journal is right on the ground can get the latest doings of the law makers and frequently gives the news one day earlier than the Omaha papers. The Journal's Washington Correspondent, Mr. Ansin keeps the Journal readers thoroughly posted on matters of interest to Nebraskans that are happening of the national capital. The Journal is mailed at 50 cents per month without Sunday or 65 cents per month with Sunday. It is a great paper.

During the last sitting of Congress which adjourned just before the Holiday's the big sixth district has not been represented. Kem has not showed up and his whereabouts is not known. He is presumed to be on his Colorado ranch purchased with his savings from his three terms in Washington. Kem will draw his salary just the same.

Editor Benschoter of the Loup City Northwestern announces that he will be an active candidate for the position of postmaster at that place. He says that it is the first time he has ever asked for a public position and that he feels justified in presenting his claim on this occasion. George has been a hard worker for the success of his party and is surely entitled to the position. Success to you George.—Arcadia Champion.

Editor Benschoter of the Loup City Northwestern is leading the fight for the post office appointment of his town.—Ravenna News.

Something for Nothing. In addition to giving two papers each week the Semi-Weekly State Journal now gives to each person sending $1.00 a free premium. You can have your choice of the Toledo Blade or New York Tribune. Or you can have two of these papers free: Poultry News, Swine Breeder Farm News and Womankind. Hundreds of other free premiums such as a splendid Atlas, State Journal Almanac, United States History etc. Send postal card request for premium list. You should read the Journal during the legislature no matter what other paper you read at other times. You must send your money direct to the State Journal, Lincoln Nebraska to get any of these free premiums.

CLEAR CREEK NEWS. Mr. Mead of this neighborhood sold 50 head of fat hogs at $2.90 per hundred. Henry Brant is here from Colorado and has rented a farm for the next season. He farmed in Colorado and was hailed out. Mrs. Dolph Hansgan arrived Saturday from Arizona and will stay a week or two. Mrs. A. Simmons has a baby girl. No less than six of the Lithfield people are aspiring for the post office at that place. A Cousin of Frank Kansgan is here. He came with Mrs. Kansgan from the west. What are the hog buyers at Loup City doing? Baird markets twelve wagon loads of Hogs at Litchfield. Corn in these parts is about all in the crib. RECORDED. TREES AND PLANTS. A full line Fruit Trees of best varieties at hard times prices. Small fruits in large supply. Millions of Strawberry plants very thrifty and well rooted. Get the best near home and save freight or express. Send for price list to NORTH BEND NURSERIES, North Bend Dodge County Nebraska.

Comfort To California. Every Tuesday evening, a tourist sleeping car for Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Los Angeles leaves Omaha and Lincoln via the Burlington Route. It is carpeted; upholstered in rattan; has spring seats and backs and is provided with curtains, bedding, towels, soap etc. An experienced excursion conductor and a uniformed Pullman porter accompany it through to the Pacific coast. While neither as expensively finished nor as fine to look at as a sleeper, it is just as good to ride in. Second class tickets are honored and the price of a berth, wide enough and big enough for two, is very reasonable. For further information see A. F. WERTS, B & M Agent.

To cure all sores, to heal an indolent ulcer, or to speedily cure piles, you need simply apply DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve according to directions. Its magic-like action will surprise you. Odendahl Bros. The old lady was right when she said the child might die if they waited for the doctor. She saved the little one's life with a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. She had used it for croup before.—Odendahl Bros. Absolutely pure, perfectly harmless and invariably reliable are the qualities of One Minute Cough Cure. It cures colds, croup and lung troubles. Children like it because it is pleasant to take and it helps them.—Odendahl Bros.
