

THE SENATE DEBATE.

President Cleveland Criticized—The Sanguilly Pardon Discussed—Mr. Lodge Indulges in Strong Language—The Indian Appropriation Bill—Miscellaneous News Notes From Washington.

Sanguilly Still Wrathful.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—When the session opened to-day the galleries were well filled in anticipation of a renewal of hostilities, but business soon was directed into routine channels, with the understanding that the Sanguilly resolution would come up as soon as the business was finished.

At 1 o'clock the Sanguilly resolution came up again and the galleries were packed. Mr. Pettigrew attempted to go on with the Indian bill and moved that this be done, but it was held that the Cuban resolution had the right of way.

Mr. Sherman, who, by reason of the fact that he will be at the head of the State department after March 4, speaks with the authority of the incoming administration, strongly intimates that the new President will urge ratification, and expresses the belief that at the approaching extra session that result will be accomplished.

Mr. Morgan refused the yield to interruptions by Messrs. Hoar and Hale, saying that Mr. Hoar could not interfere with him under the prestige of his name and position.

Mr. Morgan said that the only information of Sanguilly's pardon came from the newspapers. Nothing was received from the state department.

The Consul General Denies Insult Tales—His Alleged Message to Olney.

The President-Elect's Physician Announces His Complete Recovery.

CANTON, Ohio, Feb. 27.—Dr. Phillips at 2 o'clock said: "Major McKinley is a well man and perfectly able to make the journey to Washington. He will be well enough to receive his fellow citizens Monday evening; in fact, it is his wish to do so. But there will be no handshaking. He will be able to say a few words of farewell if he so desires. I do not advise against it, yet I am not in a position to say that he will do it. He must continue to have absolute rest and will not receive any callers during the remainder of his stay in Canton."

A resolution was unanimously adopted requesting the President to transmit to the House all correspondence on file at the state department relative to the imprisonment of American prisoners in Cuba.

HOPEFUL FOR THE TREATY

Mr. Sherman Expects Ratification in the Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Recognizing the fatality of continuing the contest for the general arbitration treaty against a determined minority, which is strengthened by the fact that very few days remain of the life of the Fifty-fourth Congress, Senator Sherman and those who have sustained the treaty have given up the contest for this session, but will renew it during the extra session of the Senate, which will be convened immediately upon the dissolution of the present Congress next Thursday.

Mr. Sherman, who, by reason of the fact that he will be at the head of the State department after March 4, speaks with the authority of the incoming administration, strongly intimates that the new President will urge ratification, and expresses the belief that at the approaching extra session that result will be accomplished.

Senators Are Warlike.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The House committee on foreign affairs to-day framed a substitute for the various resolutions of inquiry as to Americans in Cuba before it and instructed Chairman Hitt to urge prompt action on it. It is as follows:

"Resolved, by the House of Representatives, That the president be requested to transmit to the House of Representatives, if not incompatible with the public interest, all correspondence on file in the state department not hitherto communicated to Congress in regard to the imprisonment of American citizens by Spanish officials in the island of Cuba."

It appeared from the statement of the secretary of state that the Spanish government's promise to release Sanguilly was coupled with the provision that he should withdraw his appeal from the second sentence of the Cuban court, and it was stated that release could be secured at any time that this condition should be complied with.

SANGUILLY'S APPEAL WITHDRAWN.

About noon a dispatch came from Havana saying that Senor Mesa Dominguez, counsel for Julio Sanguilly, had filed in the Havana court papers retiring (withdrawing) the appeal to the supreme court of justice of Madrid made against the sentence of the Havana criminal court condemning Sanguilly to imprisonment for life.

ALLEN DENOUNCES SPANIARDS.

The Cuban resolutions were taken up promptly by the Senate to-day. The first was that of Mr. Allen, asking the President to use effective measures to protect American citizens in Cuba, and to that end to send United States warships to Cuban ports. He said that American citizens were daily being arrested in Cuba and thrown into prison without any trial.

Mr. Morgan said the committee on foreign relations had pressed forward this protection to American citizens as fast as the well authenticated facts would permit.

THE PRODIGAL DAUGHTER.

This Unique Parable Is Strictly Up to Date.

There was a certain rich woman who had two daughters, and the younger said unto the mother: "Mother, yield unto me that portion of your wealth which is my heritage."

The Vice President strove vainly to check it. He rose to his feet, pounded the gavel and amid the din gave a menacing warning to the galleries that they would be cleared if the demonstration was continued.

Mr. Hale had again risen and, with a tinge of bitterness, said of the statement which has aroused such an outbreak: "The Senator has told the whole story. It is not the release of Sanguilly that is wanted."

BRYAN VISITS CONGRESS.

Received a Royal Welcome When He Appeared on the Floor of the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The feature of the session of the House yesterday was the appearance of William J. Bryan, late Fusion candidate for President, on the floor.

HOUSES IN LONDON AND BERLIN

The Former Were Very Inconvenient, According to Mottke.

I live at Berlin in a house where there are eight families, each of course inhabiting a separate part, says "Mottke's Letters to His Wife." Only the inevitable piano practices break through the barriers, and that is certainly not less the case here, where the walls are so thin, than with us in our more massively built houses.

Doctor and Patient.

There is a mutual obligation existing between doctor and patient. The latter expects prompt and efficient service, at the sacrifice of convenience, social engagements and, if necessary, of comfort and health, on the part of the former.

STRONG AND WEAK SPELLING.

Peculiarities of the Two Great Classes of Dabblers in Orthography.

Speaking in a broad and general way, and admitting that every one is liable to misspell a word of the English language at some time in his life, spellers, says the Youth's Companion, may be divided into two classes—the "strong spellers" and the "weak spellers."

Another strong speller always insisted upon writing the word "perhaps" thus: perhaps. Though he was frequently remonstrated with and repeatedly told that there was no final e on the word he continued to spell it that way.

Success Frightened Him.

Dr. Flanagan, who was astronomer royal in Newton's time, was rather tickled by the belief of his neighbors in his powers of consulting the stars about terrestrial affairs.

But her mother sought to soothe her and gave unto her a new bicycle lamp and a cyclometer. And said unto the servants:

"Bring swell raiment and order mutton, with peas on the side, and we will eat, drink and be merry, for the wanderer is returned and she that was lost is found."
