has a fine quarter section of land near Schaupp siding this county and was here looking after his leased interest.

John Travis is now located in his new store building and has arranged the same in perfect order. A. Caster has rearranged the interior to his store by re-shelving it and adding a complete line of dry goods. Looks like they had felt the same.

PASSED AWAY.

Rufus John Brown, Sr. died at his home Thursday March 25, 1897 after a long and continued illness of over six years duration. Age 70 years, 1 month and 25 days.

It is with sorrow that we note his death. He was among the oldest settlers in Sherman County, having moved here in the month of April, 1875. Mr. Brown was born in Wayne County, New York February 1st, 1827. He moved to Batavia Ill. in 1850 and in 1852 was married to Aurelia McDaniels. Five children were born to them, four boys and a girl.
His wife and the four boys and William, Cornal, Edward and Rufus survive him. Mr. Brown was one of the fifty miners who went to Pike's Peak in search of gold, crossing the plains with ox trails. Shortly after his location here he was honored with the election to the office of Sheriff of Sherman County and filled the position with honor and credit to himself and satisfaction to the people.

The funeral services take place at the farm residence to-day, March 26, 1897 at 1 o'clock p. m., Rev. Webster officiating.
The pall bearers were Walter Moon, S.
Hancock, C. E. Kosseter, W. H. Conger, Dr. C. J. Odendahl, and Col. Young.

He was laid to rest in the Evergreen Cemetery beside his mother. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives and the course of friends and relatives and the procession that followed his remains to his last resting place was fully a half mile long. The whole community join with the bereaved relatives in mourning the loss of this kind husband, devoted father and generous and much beloved citizen.

DIED.

Amanda Williams, wife of Louis A.
Williams died at her home in this city Monday, March 22, 1897. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of death. She was sick but one hour and a half. Age 49 years, 10 months, 11 days.

Amanda Smelser was born in Smelser Township Grant County, Wisconsin, May 11, 1847. She was married to Lewis A. Williams at Hazel Green Wis. June 2nd, 1869. She with her husband and family came to Loup City, Nebraska in 1885 where she has since resided. She leaves a husband three daughters and a son to mourn her loss. Mrs. Williams was a firm believer in religious principles although she was not a member of any church.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Webster on Tuesday, March 23, 1897 at 10 o'clock a. m. The members of the G. A. R. and I. O. O. F. of which Mr. Williams was an honored member, turned out in large numbers and many were the sorrowing friends that paid this last tribute of respect to the departed.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted us during the death and burial of our beloved wife and mother, and to express our gratitude to the G.
A. R. Post and I. O. O. F. Lodge, and those who sent flowers.

L. A. WILLIAMS AND FAMILY.

J. B. O'Bryan has two excellent varieties of seed potatoes which he is selling reasonable. One variety in particular will make in sixty days after planting and is of a superior quality.

The two young men that were jailed at St. Paul for stealing goods from Shamstrom's store broke jail last Thursday morning. Their whereabouts is yet unknown. Indications are that they were helped out by some of their confederates.

I. S. Sheppard, our new and already popular jeweler was married at Broken Bow last Sunday to Miss Maud Brunfield, of that city. Mr. Sheppard returned to Loup City with his bride Sunday evening. The NORTHWESTERN welcome them to our midst and wishes them a prosperous and happy future.

authorized to have two walks constructed in the court house square. One walk leading from the south door of the court house to the street crossing south, the other walk leading from the court house to street crossing west; said walks to be four feet wide and to be of inch lumber laid on three 2x4 stringers. Beckhold, Dunker, McKee and Kewolinski voting aye, and Barnes and Sweetland voting nay.

On motion the board orders that the court room in the court house be hereafter used for the holding of court, for meetings of the supervisors and assessors, and that all other meetings therein be prohibited, except the irrigation meeting already advertised.
