Laying all jokes aside John Minshull is a pretty good sort of a fellow but what's the matter with John Hopper? He's all right?

Another ten days and the election for 1897 shall have come and gone. The campaign for Sherman county thus far has been exceptionally clean and we are in hopes it will remain so to the last.

The Times and the Monitor seem to be worked up to a high pitch and are making all kinds of guesses as to who the East and West Side Pops are who have dared to write an article for publication in a republican paper. If they really knew who it was they would be more uneasy than they are. These letters are only fore-runners of the undercurrent that is drifting away from the pretended reform and free silver movements.

At the head of this column appears the republican ticket as it will appear on the ballot; The Independent and all other ticket will appear in the same form, each in a separate column, but all on one sheet of paper. This is the form of ballot under the new law. Each ticket is headed with an emblem, selected by the state central committee of the respective parties. The emblem for the Republican ticket is the Eagle. The Independent party has chosen the Cottage Home. If you desire to vote straight make your cross in the circle at the top of the ticket selected, but if you wish to vote for certain candidates on two or more tickets then you must omit the cross in the circle at the top and make a cross in the little square at the right of every candidate you wish to vote for.

THE LITTLE COTTAGE HOME

Editor Brown of the Times-Independent says: "Remember always to put your cross in the circle over the little cottage home."

In making these crosses would it not be well to remember the Little Cottage Home of Mrs. Elsie V. Kearns. That Little Cottage Home should first of all be remembered. In that home there is sorrow, there are trials. In that home sits the husband of Mrs. Elsie V. Kearns, a helpless cripple. He has not been able to leave that Little Cottage Home for years. For five long years he has been unable to provide for the household. There are also two little boys to care for in that home, and Mrs. Kearns, with her devotion to husband and love for her little ones has industriously sought her old occupation of teaching school in order to provide for that Little Cottage Home. She has gone out day after day leaving her husband in the big arm chair with the two small boys to keep him company until her return. The two boys are just large enough to go to school, but what could Mr. Kearns do without them. He would be all the more lonesome if they too, were gone from morning till night. He is teaching them every day while Mrs. Kearns is earning the needed money to provide for that Little Cottage Home.

As county superintendent her work would be lighter, her income nearly doubled and she could be near her husband more and the children could go to school. Yes, remember this Little Cottage Home. Watch for Mrs. Kearns' name on the ticket and then make your cross there. You will find it in the column headed by the Abe Lincoln eagle.

We appeal to every voter in the county to remember Elsie V. Kearns' Little Cottage Home.

At a populist rally here last week, at which judge Sullivan was the principle spokesman, the various populist county candidates were exhibited on the stage and all but Mr. Lesinger were called on for a brief talk. With the exception of the remarks made by Sheriff Patton they were indeed brief. Mr. Patton, however, spoke very intelligently and to the point and left a very good impression on his hearers. Mr. Patton is about the only candidate that the populists feel sure of electing. He has made a very good and efficient officer. About the only fault we have to find with Mr. Patton is that he has discriminated against this paper even when our friends ask to have their sheriff sale publications done here. But this is a fault that many office holders in all political parties have, and we have no desire to wage war against Mr. Patton because he, too, possesses these qualifications. When Mr. Pedler was sheriff all sheriff sale notices of ordinary length cost the litigants just $6.00 per notice, and although he favored his own party paper with the grater portion of his publications he would place some of them with the Times when requested to do so by the parties interested. When Mr. Hendrickson was sheriff he did the same thing and great was the wrath of the Times thereof. Mr. Hendrickson used the short form of notice such as Mr. Pedler had been using but was more generous with the printers and allowed legal rates, from $7.50 to $9.00 per notice. During Mr. Hendrickson's last term of office he thought at one time to use a longer form of notice which had been adopted by populists sheriffs in other counties, but he only used the long form in a few cases as it ran the legal rate up to from $12 to $15 per notice. He almost immediately fell back onto the short form. Mr. Patton evidently believes in the old adage that "to the victors belong the spoils" as he at once adopted the long form of notice and has been spoiling the chances for poor unfortunate mortgagors to redeem their home by doubling the costs of sale notice, which costs are taxed against the property and must be paid before the mortgage itself; and all this too in order to keep their own party paper alive to assist in carrying on the "great reform work" which they are "earnestly and persistently" doing.

But we started out to say that Mr. Patton has made a good officer. However this personal matter which alone concerns us and the unfortunate mortgagors ought not to be brought into politics, neither had politics ought to be considered in county matters. Mr. Patton has proved himself to be efficient in office and is well liked by the general public. His integrity to do the right thing by the right parties, according to his own way of thinking, has never been questioned. He is a hail fellow well met, always ready to speak, always smiling, just the sort of fellow that the editor is pleased to meet.

His opponent, Mr. Ormsbee, nominee on the republican ticket is a first class man, in every way qualified to fill the position. He will carry the entire strength of the republican party and where he is best known will command many independent votes. The race between them will be close and interesting.

The Times is requested to please not garble the above statements but to print the article as a whole.

One Dollar to 1899.

For one dollar bill The Semi-Weekly State Journal will be sent from now until January 1, 1899. A good long time to get two big papers every week with all the news of the whole world; all the state news and in fact more news and general reading matter than you get in any other state paper. The Journal is spending money and effort in writing up the interests of Nebraska and setting our state's advantages before the people of the whole country. Nebraska's prosperity will bring thousands of farm buyers to our state. You should read The Journal which is not an Omaha paper or a Lincoln paper, but a state paper in its truest sense. "What will be for the best interests of Nebraska?" is the first question asked by The Journal when called upon to decide. Every Nebraska should do his best to keep The State Journal before the people and that best means by sending in One Dollar which will pay for the paper to January, 1899. After you read it send it to your friends in the east and let them see what great things we are doing in Nebraska. Send in your dollar to The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb. The sooner you send, the more papers you will get for your money.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him.—Odenahl Bros.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold and caused him to be in the most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe, recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Odenahl Bros.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cold to develop into the pneumonia or consumption. Instant relief and a certain cure are afforded by One Minute Cough Cure.—Odenahl Bros.

Disfigurement for life by burns or scalds may be avoided by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great remedy for piles and for all kinds of sores and skin troubles.—Odenahl Bros.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT. Edgar McMasters, Defendant, will take notice that on the 14th day of October, 1897, Katie McMasters, Plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the district court of Sherman County, Nebraska, against said defendant, the object and prayer of which are to obtain a decree of divorce from said Edgar McMasters, the husband of said Katie McMasters, for willful abandonment for more than two years without just cause.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 8th day of December, 1897, unless, October 14th, 1897.

KATIE McMASTERS, Plaintiff. ALBERT G. W. HUYER, Attorney. LOUIS BRIN, Clerk District Court.

BARGAINS' Cash vs. Credit! BARGAINS'

The philosopher tells us that "knowledge is power." The greatest power however, lies in the wisdom of applying your knowledge so as to obtain the best results. Our knowledge of what is best suited to the needs of many in the way of dress, coupled with our great buying faculties, makes it possible for us to clothe you in a highly satisfactory manner and at prices which were unknown until we originated them.

Instead of selling on time and charging the same old prices which the credit system has always compelled, we do just the opposite. We buy for cash, get cash discounts, and by so doing are in a position to sell you for cash at the lowest price.

Our new fall and winter line is just bubbling over with good things. Bright cherry patterns to match the faces of a well-bred and happy people. There may be starvation in India, war in Cuba, and assassination in Spain, but in Nebraska there are beautiful crops, better prices, and signs of prosperity throughout the entire state. If you would have a share in the good times give us your trade.

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefited by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and feeling could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."

THE MILD POWER CURES. HUMPHREYS'

That the diseases of domestic animals, HORSES, CATTLE, SHEEP, DOGS, HOUS, and POULTRY, are cured by Humphreys' Veterinary Specifics, is as true as that people ride on railroads, send messages by telegraph, or sew with sewing machines. It is as irrational to bottle, ball and bleed animals in order to cure them, as it is to take passage in a sloop from New York to Albany. Used in the best stables and recommended by the U. S. Army Cavalry Officers.

500 PAGE BOOK on treatment and care of Domestic Animals, and stable chart mounted on rollers, sent free.
