CORBETT MAGNANIMOUS. WORK IN THE SENATE

Liberal Terms Upon Which He Offers to Fight Mr. Fitz.

CINCINNATI Jan. 3.-James J. Corbett has given to the Times-Star for publication his challenge to fight Robert Fitzsimmons as follows:

Your published declaration, Mr. Fitzsimmons, that you intend re-entering, pleases me more that I can at present express to you, for I know that the public esteems me to be the only candidate for the honors you thus place within reach.

I am sorry, however, to note that in wording this declaration you give me the impression that since we last met you have become unwisely forgetful. For instance, you say that before I can claim a return match with you I must prove myself to be worthy of it. You certainly intended this as a joke, for no one in the world knows my ability better than yourself. You cannot so soon have forgotten your remark to me at Carson, just after the battle "Jim," you said, in your simple, ear-"I'll never fight again. nest way. You've given me a bloody good lick-You, the winner, uttered these ing." words, with face and body so battered as to leave no doubt of your sincerity, while I, the loser, listened with never a bruise or scratch from head to foot which could contradict you.

Is this consistent with your now requesting me to prove myself to be a worthy opponent? You will find the confidence of the public in my ability to entertain you still unshaken. You will find that the public will insist upon your recognizing my claim that you must meet me again. But surely you have been misrepresented. I refuse to credit you with the lame memory, broken judgment, noor taste and entire untruthfulness which the printed remarks alleged to have been made by you would imply. I prefer to think that those who have entered the ring with me were men, honest, brave and incapable of the vulgar, lying and cowardly language in which the newspaper version of your remarks W98 couched. However well I know that the great journals try to be, and usually are, accurate to the letter in reporting utterances made by important men upon important subjects, I prefer to believe that in this case a grave error has been made somehow. somewhere and for a purpose not worthy of one who wishes to be considered above contempt.

What the public expects from me is to maintain the manly dignity of the ring and not to be a brawler, nor a shifty evader of the honest principles which govern honest men when adjusting their respective merits

This is all I have to say. But this is what I propose to do: The day sign articles I will give you $1,000 in recognition of your courtesy. The moment you enter the ring ready to offer me battle I will give you a second $1,000 in token of my pleasure. Upon the completion of the tenth round, if you are still undefeated. I will give you a third $1,000 as a souvenir of my surprise. Upon defeating you, no mat-ter in what round, I will give you you $2,000 more as a reminder that I am not an ungenerous foe.

On the other hand, should you again defeat me I promise, if still able to move, to place my hat upon my head and then, removing it in your honor, to proclaim you in frank and unmistakable terms to be my superior and state that I then and there quit forever all possible claim to the championship of the world.

Let further remarks on this subject be made by 1,000 clean, honestly earned American dollars, given me by the public that believes in me. I have varded these to Will Davis, of Chicago, in testimony that I mean every word I have herein JAMES J. CORBETT. spoken.

Forecasting Senate Work.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 .- The prevailing opinion among senators is that very little legislation will be attempted during the present week The fact that congres will not reconvene until Wednesday will probtaken by the absentees to ably be mean that nothing will be attempted uctil the following week, and as a consequence it is doubtful whether there will be a quorum present in the senate on Wednesday, in which event there will probably be an carly adjournment until the following day and then an adjournment until Monday. In any event it is not probable that any important questions will be The general understanding is, however, that the work of the session will begin in real earnest after this week and that henceforth there will be up justification of the complaint of dullness of the proceedings. Among the questions which will engage early attention are the Hawallan annexation question, the claim of Mr. Corbett to a reat in the senate from Oregon, the immigration bill and the financial question.

In all probability the committee on privileges and elections will meet during the present week and the chances are that an early report on the Corbett case will be ordered, even though it may not be favorable. The republican side of the chamber will not be a unit in Mr. Corbett's interact. Senator Burrows, of the committee which has charge of the case is preparing an exhaustive speech antagonistic to M" Corbett and the opposition is counting upon the assistance of still others from that side of the chamber.

It is not believed that there will be any serious antagonism to the immigration bill, but there may b considerable time consumed upon the subject.

It is probable that Senato: Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, will make an effort during the present week to get a day fixed for taking up the annexation treaty, and there is no apprehension of any objection to naming a day in the early future. The plan of the supporters of the treaty is to take the question up in executive session on a resolution of ratification and to debate the treaty for a few days in executive session, pursuing this course long enough to demonstrate their strength, and to commit those who profess to be with them. If they find that they have the necessary twothirds to secure the ratification they will press on to the end, but if they discover themselves to be deficient in voting strength they will change their policy and take up the question of an-mekation on Senator Morgan's reolation to that end. There is no doubt that a majority of affirmative votes can be secured and that a resolution of this character can be passed if a vote can be reached.

The present indications are that the treaty as such will fail of ratification by from two to six votes, but friends of the agreement have by no means lost hope that they will succeeel in securing the entire sixty votes necessary to ratify. They claim that they have been making headway in securing votes during the recess and are hopeful of still adding to the num-They now assert that a solid ber. vote may be expected from the republican side of the chamber and that several democrats who have been claimed by the opposition are on the fence and liable to come to them.
