It surely does not take a very intelligent man to discover the difference in a democratic and republican administration. The Cleveland soup houses are all gone.

George Fred Williams, who left home in Mass. and came out to Nebraska, to help howl calamity is proving himself a worthy companion of crazy Bill Greene.

We don't wish to be disrespectful but if we had the gaul of a pop editor we would suggest that our Governor be re-christened and hereafter called Ole. Oleomargarine you know.

You have not heard of any bread riots in the past year and a half have you populists? Or of any soup houses being opened to keep the poor unemployed from starving? How long will it take the labor vote to realize who are their friends.

It is an old saying that calumny is a full brother to theft. People who seek no higher ambition than to cast innuendoes in the direction of men who are naturally above repreach are the kind of beings that it behoves the common herd to steer clear of.

2,700 soldiers belonging to the state of Georgia, were mustered out of service last week as the surplus from that state, and it is said have kindly and considerately offered their services in place of "Our" Colonel Bryan and his regiment. They don't have no colonel Bryan's down there!

J. E. Miller, populist candidate for senator in this district was in town last Monday denouncing Norris Brown in great style, and when called upon to give his reasons for so doing said that Mr. Brown had helped his brother Frank, to defeat his, Millers, oldest son when he was running for county Judge in Buffalo county.

While at Omaha, last week a rail road brakeman told us that he had been a democrat all his life until eight years ago when he joined the columns of calumny, but since we have had a republican administration, he said, the change had been so great that even the weather had been better and from this out he intended to vote for the party that looked after the toilers.

T. S. Nightingale, populist nominee for county attorney is busy doing missionary work in behalf of his own canvass and thus far he has conducted a good clean campaign. The same may be said of his opponent W. H. Conger, republican nominee.
Mr. Conger is the peoples friend and should have the solid vote of his party. He will draw largely from the opposition and his chances for election are good.

The pop papers through the state have the words "liars" and "thieves" stereotyped so that they can be used to fill in all unoccupied space. They depend on those two words to hold their party in line, but before long their voters will realize that those two words are bugaboos used with such vehemence to frighten and prejudice them for the sole purpose of keeping those tricksters in office.
Men who have an endless chain of calumny flowing from their sour stomach are, ninety-nine times out of hundred very bad men to trust any place for their vituperation is generally conceived from their own acts. But there are very few scound-rels who fail to reach the end of their rope in time, and when they do they come up a standing. The voters of this state should remember that there has been more than $200, 000 in defalcation among the "reform" element of this commonwealth, and two court houses burnt to cover up their tracks in the past eight years, and yet not a word has a "reform" paper offered in condemnation thereof. Talk about a subsidized press, why the pop press of this state has a cinch that never was hoped for under a republican administration, and you need not go out side of Sherman county to convince yourself. The county officers do not hesitate to tell you quick, if you have a legal notice to publish that the Times-Independent, and it alone can publish it, and that full legal rates is what you will pay although you could get it done much less where you allowed to get bids for the same as was the case when we had a republican administration. This is no politics but plain facts and relates just what has been done in the past sixty days, and the parties who had the work to pay for were told that it mattered not what they wished, all they had to do was to pay for the job and pay full price for it. Talk about live and let live, why there is no room on the earth for any thing but a pop officer.

W. J. Bryan is at last said to be able to see the end of his military career at hand and we suppose will lay down his sword, and tare off the shoulder straps without a regret. He has gained the title of colonel, though for shame should never use it. For the credit of the state 't would have been better had he never been made a colonel. What place, dear Neb-raskan's will true war history accord us in the future. Our fair name will be sullied by the acts of colonel Bryan, as was that of Indiana by the recollection of Buena Vista. But thanks to the powers that be, like Indiana, we can point to a First and Second regiment whose fair name is not sullied but will go down in history as patriots and not politics.

Senator Allen and congressman Greene, held a meeting at Kearney, last Friday night. Mr. Allen said that had he the power he would keep every foot of land taken from Spain, and make her pay an indemnity large enough to cover the expense of the war besides. This is said to be the fourth time Mr. Allen has changed his mind on expansion. That fellow turns around as often as Tom Nightingale.

you eat.

SOUTH SIDE PUBLIC SQUARE.
Loup City, : Neb.

Philip Bessor, the candidate for senator on the republican ticket in this district can well be proud of his war record. He first enlisted in the Sixth Pennsylvania Reserves in May 1861, at Rays Hill, Pa. and served three years. At the expiration of his time he came to his home at Everett, Pa. and in company with his old friend, Capt. Weaverling of that city recruited a company in which he again entered the service of his country as First Lieutenant, but was shortly after promoted to aid-de-camp on the staff of his commanding general which position he held with much credit to the close of the war. He enlisted immediately after the beginning of the war and never deserted his post until the last gun was fired. After this he came west and settled in Illinois, and from there he came with the star of empire west and located in Kearney, where he has resided for a number of years. His ability and sterling integrity has been recognized by his party frequently and he has filled many offices of trust. The above information of his war record comes from his old neighbors in Pennsylvania, who are now located in this place every one of whom are glad to be able to cast their vote this fall for a man who they know to be of sterling worth.
