The Michigan college of medicine and surgery has established a chair of military bygiene and dietetics. purpose that the new chair has been created."

Mrs. McKinley's health has greatly improved since she went to Washington. In the past two years she has gained twenty pounds in weight.

Philosophy with some men means the love of their own wisdom.

Henry A. Salzer, manager of the John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis., sent his alma mater, the Charles City, Iowa, College, a check for $3,000 as a New Year's gift.

We shall have to answer for the deeds we have not done in the body. TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets, All aruggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet. Zeal kindled at the foot of the ness.

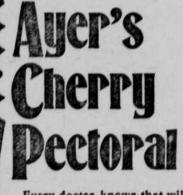

cross burns brightest and best.

Sure Curefor Colds

r

When the children get their feet wet and take cold give them a hot foot bath, a bowl of hot drink, a dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and put them to bed. The chances are they will be all right in the morning. Con-tinue the Cherry Pectoral a few days, until all cough has disappeared. Old coughs are also cured; we mean the coughs of bronchitis, weak throats and irritable lungs. Even the hard coughs of consumption are always made easy and frequently cured by the continued use of Every doctor knows that wild cherry bark is the best remedy known to medical science for soothing and healing inflamed throats and lungs.

Put one of

Dr. Ayer's

Egbert Davidson, a prominent citizen of Mecklenburg county, North "It Carolina, is on trial ip the federal was clearly shown during the late court on a unique charge. A mail carwar," said Dr. Hal C. Wyman, one of rier had been stealing his melons. He the trustees, "that the food furnished had stopped the carrier in the road our soldiers was not what it should and whipped him. The carrer missed have been. We now propose to teach the mail connection, and Davidson is people what to eat, and it is for this being tried for "delaying the mails."

> Sir Henry Irving is reported to be Anancially distnessed, and physically > a memory of his old self. He will abandon stage management and hereafter appear simply as an individual artist.

Dentist-I see that I shall have to kill the nerve. Patient-For heaven's sake, don't! It would ruin me in my business. I'm a life insurance agent -Tid-Bits.

Germany and Asia Minor.

It is inevitable that Asia Minor shall eventually pass from Mohammedanism and whether Germany accomplishes the task or not, the Sultan must yield to a Christian nation. It is just as inevitable that diseases of the digestive organs must yield to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which are usually called dyspepsia, constipation and bilious-

Tearing up the warning red flag, only increases the danger.

BTATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, 58 LUCAS COUNTY, 58 Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing basiness in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be oured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. FRANK J. CHENEY. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1866 (SEAL) A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces sets directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best

A creed is not a starting point, but a terminus.

Coe's Cough Balsam Is the oldest and best. It will break up a cold quicker than anything else. It is always reliable. Try it.

The highest peaks catch the first and the last sunshine.

Could Not Keep House Without Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer. Mrs. E. J. Barton, Boyd, Wis. 25c. a bottle.

The best work for the church is work for the world.

Mrs. Winstow's Soothing Syrup For children teething softens the gums reduces inflam-mation, allays pain, cures wind colle. 25 centsa bottle.

A fat pocket book often makes a lop sided Christian.

Positive, soap; comparative, good soap; superlative, Diamond "O" Soap,

John D. Rockefeller, when a poor lad, had his first picture taken with his class at Oswego academy, Oswego, N. Y., in 1853. It was a daguerrotype and when Rockefeller became rich he tried to buy it from his former teacher, William Smyth, who refused to sell at any price. Mr. Smyth died a short time ago and his son has since sent the picture to the millionaire.

Modesty-Something that never shows up well in the dark.

A MEAN ADVANTAGE.

They were riding a tandem. She was in front-a pretty, laughing, pouting damsel with a wealth of coppercolored hair and a pair of tantalizing. mischief-making eyes. He sat at the back, gloomy in face and in mood. For him the course of true love ran anything but smooth.

He had known her for years-had been her school companion, in fact, had been her devoted slave since the very first day they had met. He remembered that day very well. He had bought a whole cake of chocolate, and he loved chocolate dearly. It was his first hard struggle with self, but he conquered, and after a long last look and a sigh he offered her the whole cake. And she-she took it all with a smile and ate it without offering him as much as a bite. He looked back at their lives since, and felt that that chocolate incident had been constantly repeated ever since. He had given and she had accepted-still with a smile 'tis true, but smiles did not content him now. They were so ready, and she gave them so freely to others.

He meant to have everything or tandem and admired her bright hair and caught a glimpse of her dainty profile every now and then, he made up his mind to put an end to his sufferings one way or another that evening. He buried himself in thought for some long time, and then a bright idea occurred to him. But his long silence evidently seemed to irritate the front rider. "How dull you are today, Jack." she said impatiently. "You haven't said a word for the last quarter of an hour. Don't you think it is about time we urned back?"

"What are you in such a hurry about?" asked Jack. The girl laughed a bit consciously.

"Well, I promised that I would get home before 7 o'clock, and-and it's very particular," she added, with a pout.

"Mr. Seymour coming round probto be coming round a good bit lately, doesn't he? But, Clare, I'm awfully sorry, but I don't think you will get home in time tonight." "What do you mean?" said Clare quickly.

"Well, to tell you the truth I don't know exactly where we are."

"Don't you know where we are," echoed the girl angrily. "Don't be absurd. Do you mean to say you have brought me out and have been stupid enough to lose the way?"

"That's about the whole size of the matter," said Jack, cheerfully.

"Well, you'll have to find the way, that's all about it," said pretty Clare, vindictively. "And I'll tell you plainly

"Anything! anything!" she said tearfully; "only get me home."

"And if I don't," went on Jack, 'people will think we have eloped, and -well it would be ever so romantic. We could---'

"How dare you?" said Clare indignantly. "I'll never-never speak to you again unless you get me home before 10 o'clock."

"Right you are," said Jack. "And now jump up and we'll go and seek our fortunes."

The two mounted the tandem once more. Jack took the turning to the right, and for some time they rode on without speaking. At last something seemed to strike Clare ,and she looked round wondering."

"Jack, what are you doing?" she said. "Dou you know we have been going round and round the same roads for ever so long?" "Nonsense," said Jack gruffly. "We have left 'Cut-throat Corner' miles behind us. Have you any idea where we are?"

"Not yet," replied Clare. "But, wait. Yes, of course. Why, look! there's the old church, and there to the right is the schoolhouse. Jack, I believe you have been deceiving me."

"Well, and what if I have?" said nothing. As he sat behind on that Jack stoutly. "Haven't you deceived me times without number?"

"I'll never speak to you againnever!" said Clare with determination in her voice.

"But you're not home yet, remember," said Jack. "A promise is a promise, Clare," he pleaded. "And you are fond of me; you can't deny it; only you like to torment me to do something desperate. Do you want me to take you back to 'Cut-throat Corner' and leave you?" "Yes, you'd better," pouted Clare, gaining courage as she approached scenes familiar. "I mean it," said Jack.

then gave in. "It is mean of you to take advantage of me like this," she said at last. "But I suppose I deserve it, and if you like well, I suppose you can have her, but ably," said Jack. "Mr. Seymour seems I dare say you'll repent your bargain

ly. "Hurrah! What'll old Seymour

WOULD NOT LOSE HER VOTE.

Rather Tnan Do So an Idaho Woman

Drove Sixty Miles in the Cold. Mrs. B. F. Jeffers of Hailey, Idaho, believes firmly that when the state conferred upon her the right of suffrage the commonwealth was justified in expecting that she would exercise that right to the full. Mrs. Jeffers owns a ranch at Soldier, and has shown on many occasions while successfully managing that property that she is not one to shirk her responsibilities, be they those of citizenship or otherwise. It was not to be expected, therefore, that any ordinary obstacle would interfere with her announced determination to vote at the recent election, but even those who knew her best were hardly prepared for the display of pluck which she gave on the second Tuesday of last month. Mrs. Jeffers had registered at Soldier, where her ranch is located, but subsequently removed to Hailey, thirty miles away, taking a legal transfer to the latter place, but forgetting to record it. Shortly before noon on election day she went to the polls at Hailey, but found that she could not vote without authorization from Soldier. Nothing daunted, she secured a team of horses and started for the latter place, announcing her intention to be back before the polls closed in the evening. The horses were speedy and of great endurance, and Mrs. Jeffers reached Soldier within the time which she allowed herself. Giving orders for a fresh team, she proceeded to secure the necessary documents. These in her possession, she started on her return journey. The trip from Hailey had not been particularly comfortable, although the bright sun of early afternoon had tempered a cold wind which blew across the high prairie. This advantage had disappeared when the plucky woman took the reins to start back, and several friends urged her to abandon the trip and stay at the ranch over night. Mrs. Jeffers laughed at the advice, faced the cutting blast and proceeded on her return trip, but it was a cold and cheerless journey, but Mrs. Jeffers reached Hailey in time_to vote, though her fingers

In relying to a toast at a recent dinter asked me last week for this speech. first ever raised by a mercantile body I told him I had no copy. How can I make an after dinner speech before kind in all the history of municipal dinner?" Said he: "Well, we have Mr. Depew's in cold type." Mr. De-pew spoke shortly after. "The repor-honor of mayors, but no fund was ever as to Choate, 'I have them all,' but al- cleaned the streets.

so added, 'Have you any poetry in yours?' Said I, 'No.' 'Well,' said he, 'Choate has.' And after seading it I came to the conclusion that he must she can't help being mad with somehave written it himself."

CLEVER LITTLE STORIES.

One of the Chicago public school teachers says that she received this Restored to Health by Lydia E. note from a boy's mother: "Please excuse William from school today, as he sat up late last night studying his lessons and is too sleepy to come today."

The reporter had just come in from a murder case. It was a rainy day, and he had to cross a plowed field on foot. "I see," observed the chief editor, looking with much displeasure at his large and muddy boots, "you have brought the scene of the murder with you." "Yes," answered the reporter apologetically, "I've got to have some ground for my story, you know."

tain young man (an enthusiastic golf- faint away; had a terrible pain in my or) started in with the shell fish to enu- heart, a bad taste in my mouth all the merate to his partner the details of a time and would vomit; but now, thanks match that he had been playing that to Mrs. Pinkham and her Vegetable day. It was not until the pudding was Compound, I feel well and sleep well, brought on that he suddenly bethought can do my work without feeling tired; himself that he had been doing all the do not bloat or have any trouble talking; indeed, the young woman had whatever. not said a single word during the entire progress of the meal. "I am afraid advice you gave me and for what your that I have been boring you with this medicine has done for me." talk of the shop," he said, in halfapology. "Oh, no; not at all," was the polite response. "Only, what is golf?" -San Francisco Wave.

The following story of the old king of Hanover is told in the recently published "Foreign Courts ful and irregular menstruation, falling and Foreign Homes," by A. M. of the womb and pain in the back. I F.: "My father went to the door of tried physicians, but found no relief. the royal apartments (with some dispatches from London), knocked loudly E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. once, twice. No answer. He knocked and cannot praise it enough for what louder and louder. The door was open- it has done for me. I feel like a new ed and a page came out, and inside person, and would not part with your the king's voice was heard using oath medicine. I have recommended it to after oath, winding up by asking, several of my friends." What the devil do you want?' The --- page, with a frightened look on his W.N.U. OMAHA. face, took the dispatches, saying: 'His was saying his prayers?"

The Waring memorial fund of $100 .ner, Joseph H. Choate said: "A repor- 000, now completed, is said to be the in honor of a municipal official, and ter," said he, "called on me and said raised in honor solely of a man who

> When a woman thinks how nobody over sees the prettiest things she wears body.

TWO GRATEFUL WOMEN

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Can Do My Own Work."

Mrs. PATRICK DANEHY.

West Winsted, Conn., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM :-- It is with pleasure that I write to you of the benefit I have derived from using your wonderful Vegetable Compound. I was very ill, suffered with female weakness and displacement of the womb. "I could not sleep at night, had to walk the floor, I suffered so with pain in my side and small of my back. Was trou-At a dinner party not long ago a cer- bled with bloating, and at times would

"I sincerely thank you for the good

"Cannot Praise It Enough."

Miss GERTIE DUNKIN.

Franklin, Neb., writes: "I suffered for some time with pain-

"I was at last persuaded to try Lydia

No. 3-1899 majesty was not to be disturbed, as he When Answering Movertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

Clare sighed and shed a tear and to have such a horrid, selfish wife-before many months are out." "Shall I!" shouted Jack triumphant-say?"

CLUNG TO HIM IN TERROR. that I shan't place myself in a similar predicament in a hurry. Mr. Seymour wouldn't have done such a foolish thing."

"Good gracious! No!" laughed Jack. "Fancy seeing Seymour on a tandem." "He is a gentleman if he is nothing else," snapped Clare.

"Well, I hope so," replied Jack. "He's got nothing else to recommend him. Well, we won't discuss old Seymour. The thing is to find the way. Now jump off and we'll have a look about 118.

They slowed up to where two roads met and Clare did as she was bidden. There was no sign-post, and Jack seemed profoundly puzzled.

"I think," he said, after a bit, "we'll leave the tandem here and go and explore a bit. I'll take the road to the left and you the one to the right, and we'll meet again in this spot."

"Oh, no! no! no! Jack," said Calre, looking round her nervously. "Its getting so dark and I'm afraid. I couldn't go down that long, dark lane."

"Well, you stay here and I'll have a look round. I'm not sure, but I think this is what they call 'Cut-throat Corner.""

Clare screamed and clung to him in terror.

"Oh, Jack, don't leave me," she said entreatingly, "I should die of fright if-if I saw anything. Let me go with you-please!"

"All right," said Jack, well pleased at the pressure on his arm. "But you see we shall lose time, and maybe get on the wrong track. Supposing we don't get back tonight, Clare, what will the folks say?"

A new terror came before the girl's eyes.

"But we must, Jack, we must," she said earnestly. "Oh, if you have any regard for me at all you would find a way."

"That's just it, Clare," said Jack, "I have a very big regard for you. Now, look here, suppose you give me a little encouragement-promise me if I get heme before 10 o'clock that you will marry me."

Clare caught her breath in with a

Lord Kelvin's Reprimand.

able to mark her ballot.

were so benumbed that she was barely

The eminent Scottish scientist, Lord Kelvin, who for many years has held the chair of natural philosophy at Glasgow university, is the subject of an amusing story, illustrative of the singular force of habit. As a professor of science, Lord Kelvin can use long words in such formidable array as to raralyze the average layman, but the Glasgow student is made of sterner stuff. During a course of lectures on magnetism, he once defined an ideal magnet as "an infinitely long, infinitely thin, uniform, and uniformly and longitudinally magnetized bar," and the misguided students vociferously cheered, which caused the venerable professor to say: "Silence!" This definition was made and cheered, with the usual reprimand, frequently during his lectures. Once, near the concluston, however, the students did not cheer, but Lord Kelvin promptly rapped out, "Silence!" as before.

A Beason for It. "Poor maa! He is so subject to chills." "You wouldn't wonder at it if you knew how his wife blows."-- Pittsburg Press.

food. Sleeping on the ground has doubtless developed theumatism in hundreds who were predisposed to the disease. In such cases the Boys of '98 may take a lesson from the experi-ence of the Heroes of the Civil War.

Hundreds of the Boys of 63 have testified to the efficacy of Dr. Williams" Pink Pills for Pale People in driving out malaria; rheumatism and other diseases contracted during their days of hardship and privation in the army. These pills are the best tonic in the world.

Asa Robinson, of Mt. Sterling, Ill., is a veteran of the Civil war, having served in the Syrd Pennsylvania Volunteers. He went to the war a vigor-ous farmer's boy and came back broken in health, a victim of sciatic rheu-matism. Most of the time he was unfitted for manual labor of any kind, and his sufferings were at all times intense. He says: "Nothing scemed to give me permanent relief until three years ago, when my attention was called to some of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I had not taken more than half a box when I noticed an improvement in my condition, and I keep on improving steadily. To them I owe my restoration to health. They are a grand remedy."-Mt. Sterling Democrat-Message.

At all druggists, or sent, postpald, on receipt of price, 50 ets per box, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Box V, Schenectady, H.Y. MUTTER SIL SIL SUS STORE SUL SUL

Lives of suffering and misery from this repulsive disease turned into health and happi-ness through the use of

Richard's Gatarrh Expellant

After vers of special study and practice in diseases of the Mucus Membrane, and especial of catarrhal (roubles, we have at last developed a treatment that will positively and practice in whatever form they may be. After fully demograting the merits of this treatment in a private practice of over five years, and success of the demogratic developed at treatment that will positively and success of the developed at treatment that will positively and success of the developed at treatment that will positively and success of the merits of this treatment in a private practice of over five years, and success of the developed at treatment that will positively and success of the developed at treatment that will positively and success of the developed at treatment that will be a cater of the developed at treatment that will be actively and success of the developed at treatment that will be actively and success of the developed at treatment that will be actively and success of the developed at treatment that will be actively and success of the developed at the set of the developed at the set of the developed at treatment that the positive of the developed at the set of the developed at the d

RICHARD'S CATARRH EXPELLANT

Will cure you just as sure as water will quench thirst. Write to day for testimonials and valuable instructive paper on these diseases. SENT FREE. Address

