

Henry Probasco of Cincinnati is a millionaire who has for some years acted on the Carnegie saying that to die rich is to die disgraced. He made a fortune in the hardware business and has expended some $700,000, or nearly all of it, in philanthropic and charitable activities. He once lived in a fine and pretentious residence, but has now come down to a small house, which he rents.

In some comments on the performance of "Hamlet" at an Albany theater a local critic, with the aid of a careless compositor, spoke of the hero as "the melancholy Dave."

A school for nursemaids has been established in Boston. They are instructed in the care of children, and have to prepare food and simple remedies for the little ones.

School Lands at Your Own Price.

As soon after the first of July as practicable I will hold public auctions for leasing about 695,000 acres of school land, under provisions of the new law, in the following counties: Antelope, Banner, Blaine, Box Butte, Brown, Chase, Cherry, Cheyenne, Custer, Dawes, Deuel, Dundy, Garfield, Grant, Hayes, Hitchcock, Holt, Hooker, Keith, Keya Paha, Kimball, Knox, Lincoln, Logan, Loup, McPherson, Pierce, Perkins, Rock, Scotts Bluff, Sheridan, Sioux, Thomas and Wheeler. Under the new law, if these lands will not lease at public auction at 6 per cent upon the appraised value, they may be leased to the person offering 6 per cent upon the highest valuation. These lands are in the best stock growing portions of the state where cattle, sheep and horses can be produced at less expense and, therefore, at greater profit than anywhere I know of; and yet, surrounded with as good and intelligent a class of citizens as anywhere to be found. The harvest truly is great and lasts almost the year round and no more inviting field for the intelligent stockman and farmer can be found; and now, that there is an opportunity to secure twenty-five year lease contracts thereon at what the lands are worth, the lessee himself being the judge, it is confidently expected that all or nearly all of these lands will be leased during the present year at the public auctions, as above mentioned. Any one desiring to attend any of these leasing auctions will be notified of the time and place of holding the same, as soon as it has been arranged, if they will write me at once giving the names of the counties in which they are interested; and will also be furnished a list of lands to be leased so that they may visit the counties in advance of the leasing auction and examine the lands which will be offered. Notice of the auction will be duly given in the local papers. Send stamp for copy of the new school land law under which the lands will be offered. Any further information will be cheerfully furnished.

FIFTY YEARS OLD

Why let your neighbors know it? And why give them a chance to guess you are even five or ten years more? Better give them good reasons for guessing the other way. It is very easy; for nothing tells of age so quickly as gray hair.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is a youth-renewer. It hides the age under a luxuriant growth of hair the color of youth. It never fails to restore color to gray hair. It will stop the hair from coming out also. It feeds the hair bulbs. Thin hair becomes thick hair, and short hair becomes long hair. It cleanses the scalp; removes all dandruff, and prevents its formation. We have a book on the Hair which we will gladly send you. If you do not obtain all the benefit you expect from the use of the Vigor, with the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which we will gladly remove. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

RISO'S CURE FOR Consumption

The News Briefly Told.

Saturday.

The splendid home of General John B. Gordon, at Kirkwood, a suburb of Atlanta, was completely destroyed by fire.

Virtually the ban on automobiles in Chicago is a dead letter. Three of the five members of the South park commissioners declared themselves opposed to any ordinance barring horseless carriages from the parks and boulevards.

The citizens of Topeka want the exclusive right to tender a reception to the Twentieth Kansas volunteers, but the chief promoters have decided not to pay the expenses of special trains to bring the troops home from San Francisco.

The county attorney of Douglas county, Neb., filed a formal complaint against James G. Bates, charging him with securing $11,000 from the Union Stock Yards National bank of South Omaha, under false pretenses. The complaining witness is Thomas B. McPherson, the cashier of the bank.

A special to the New York Tribune from Washington says: It is the belief among officers here that General Leonard Wood will not return to Santiago, but will resign from the service to accept one of the many alluring offers that have been made to him by corporations whose directors have been attracted by his conspicuous ability and positive genius for organizing.

After a conference lasting three hours between representatives of the strikers and the street railway company of Cleveland, Ohio, it was announced that President Everett would stand by his ultimatum. This in effect says that the company will not discharge a single man hired since the strike began, will not recognize the union and will reinstate such old men as have not been guilty of acts of violence.

A letter from Dawson, dated May 26, says the clean-up for the present season will amount to at least $18,000,000, more than twice last year's yield. The increase is due to the fact that Dominion, Sulphur and Hunker creeks, which were practically unworked last season, have been developed to a considerable extent, with favorable results, and the bench claims on Eldorado, Bonanza, Hunker and Dominion have been worked to such an extent that their output will greatly increase the total production.

Millions for Clothing.

It is estimated that the people of the trans-Mississippi territory spend over two millions each season with mail order houses for clothing. Hayden Bros., the big Omaha firm, sends out 150,000 free clothing circulars containing prices, samples and short descriptions of the garments they offer for this trade and do a big per cent of this business. One of the firm stated that if they could get it all they would save buyers in the aggregate about three-quarters of a million dollars. They have a force directing circular envelopes and looking inquiries for catalogues the year round. The fact that they are free and that a postal is sufficient to bring one crowds their mails daily. Hayden Bros. rather like this, however, as men must have clothes and their low prices get them the business.

Supreme Court Sustains the Foot-Ease Trade Mark.

Justice Laughlin in Supreme Court, Buffalo, has ordered a permanent injunction, with costs, and a full accounting of sales, to issue against Paul B. Hudson, the manufacturer of the foot powder called "Dr. Clark's Foot Powder," and also against a retail dealer of Brooklyn, restraining them from making or selling the Dr. Clark's Foot Powder, which is declared in the decision of the court, an imitation and infringement of "Foot-Ease." The powder to shake into your shoes for tired, aching feet, was so largely advertised and sold all over the country, Allen S. Oimsted, of Le Roy, N. Y., is the owner of the trademark "Foot-Ease," and he is the first individual who ever advertised a foot powder extensively over the country. He will send a sample Free to any one who writes for it. The decision in this case upholds his trade-mark and renders all parties liable who fraudulently attempt to profit by the extensive "Foot-Ease" advertising, in placing upon the market a spurious and similar appearing preparation, labeled and put up in envelopes and boxes like "Foot-Ease." Similar suits will be brought against others who are now infringing on the "Foot-Ease" trade-mark and common law rights.

Rostand, the author of "Cyrano de Bergerac," has a cheerful habit of silencing unpleasant conversationalists. Not long since a critic said: "In respect to dramatic situations, I think Dumas the elder had a considerable advantage over you." "Yes," replied Rostand, "there is no doubt about it; but that is insignificant compared to another advantage he possessed." "What is that, monsieur?" "Why, all his contemporary critics are dead."

GREAT TAMMANY LEADER.

(The Catarrh of Summer.)
New York, Oct. 11, 1898.

Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—Pe-ru-na is good for catarrh. I have tried it and know it. It relieved me immensely on my trip to Congressman Amos J. Cummings, Cuba, and I always have a bottle in reserve. Since my return I have not suffered from catarrh, but if I do I shall use Pe-ru-na again. Meantime you might send me another bottle.

Yours, Amos J. Cummings, M. C.
Summer catarrh assumes various forms. It produces dyspepsia and bowel complaint. It causes biliousness and diseases of the liver. It deranges the kidneys and bladder. Summer catarrh may derange the whole nervous system, when it is known to the medical profession as systemic catarrh. Pe-ru-na is a specific for all these forms of catarrh. Pe-ru-na never disappoints. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book on summer catarrh.

Mr. W. T. Stead writes in the Review of Reviews for June on "Oliver Cromwell and the National Church of England" apropos of the Cromwell tercentenary just celebrated in England. Mr. Stead advocates a return to Cromwell's idea of church establishment, which would certainly dispose of the quarrel about ritualism in the present English church establishment. The article is illustrated with reproductions of famous paintings.

What a Little Faith Did FOR MRS. ROCKWELL.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69,884]
"I was a great sufferer from female weakness and had no strength. It was impossible for me to attend to my household duties. I had tried everything and many doctors, but found no relief. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did; before using all of one bottle I felt better. I kept on with it and to my great surprise I am cured. All who suffer from female complaints should give it a trial."—Mrs. ROCKWELL, 1209 S. DIVISION ST., GRANT RAPIDS, MICH.

From a Grateful Newark Woman.

"When I wrote to you I was very sick, had not been well for two years. The doctors did not seem to help me, and one said I could not live three months. I had wobbly trouble, falling, ulcers, kidney and bladder trouble. There seemed to be such a drawing and burning pain in my bowels that I could not rest anywhere. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash and following your advice, I feel well again and stronger than ever. My bowels feel as if they had been made over new. With many thanks for your help, I remain, L. G., 74 ANN ST., NEWARK, N. J."
