BASUTOS WILL BAR AN INVASION

Protest of Lord Roberts Regarding Treatment of English Prisoners - Mine Owner Captured by the Boers - Post Office of Colonel Dalgety's Forces Reported to Be Strong.

LONDON, April 16.—A dispatch from Altwal North, dated April 13, says:

It is officially reported that the British losses at Wepener in four days' fighting were eighteen men killed and 132 wounded.

Colonel Grenfell wires that the casualties include Quartermaster Williams, Lieutenant Halford and Lieutenant Duncan.

Sir Godfrey Lagden, resident commissioner at Maseru, telegraphs that no shells have been heard from the direction of Wepener today (Saturday).

A regiment of British infantry and a battery of artillery arrived Friday. General Hrabant's headquarters and all the mounted troops have gone to Rouville.

The Northern Post asserts that the Rouville district furnished 1,000 recruits to the Boer force as a result of the invasion last week.

Five hundred Boers, under Commandant Swanepoel, forced the Royal Irish Rifles to evacuate Rouville. The former bandits, who had been acting for the British, offered to go to the front to prove himself a true Free State.

A cablegram from Maseru, Basutoland, dated April 14, says:

"Sir Godfrey Lagden, British resident commissioner, returned here yesterday (Friday) from the scene of operations near Wepener. He and the armed natives to resist the possible Boer encroachments. The orders of the resident commissioner are that the Basutos are not to be allowed to cross the Free State frontier on any pretense whatever. Two natives who crossed and looted an abandoned Boer farm are now in custody.

Colonel Dalgety's position is strong and well chosen, but he is completely surrounded.

The Boers have their backs against longer they will be hemmed in. The British operations are keenly watched from the neighboring heights. Shelling and sniping have been doing on steadily during the last six days.

Colonel Dalgety's guns are admirably served and there is no waste of ammunition. The Boers, when they see the electric flash of the cordite, bolt into their holes or behind walls. So near are the Boers and the Basuto guards that they converse. The ambulances are close to the border, but the killed and wounded are not removed until nightfall, in order to conceal the number of casualties. The Boers are fatigued and their horses are tired and footsore.

The Boers attacked fiercely the British position on Monday, April 9, but they were beaten back at daybreak. Nothing is known here of the casualties on either side.

From Warrenton comes news that Frank Smith, a well known mine owner, fell into the hands of the Boers while driving from Berkeley West toward the Frank Smith diamond mine.

PECK WELL PLEASED.

Commissioner General Complacently Endorses the Paris Exposition.

PARIS, April 16.—"In these days of war it gladdens the heart and mind to enter a peace festival like the one we have just inaugurated. It is magnificent and adequate. France may well be proud. This country has endeared herself to all thinking humanity by many pages of her glorious history. She ever has been one of the foremost champions of progress in all directions of human endeavor." This is the way United States Commissioner Ferdinand W. Peck began a statement. He goes on:

"Today, as I realize what a vast civilizing effort the exposition will prove, I say that every citizen of this earth—whether or not able to visit Paris—ought to feel thankful to France for such a mingling of the races and interchange of what is best among them. It not only develops the large international interests, but promotes the well-being of the most distant laborer and peasant and the most reluctant savage in Polynesia."

"I was and remain a great admirer of the Chicago's world's fair. When I first came here and for a long time afterward I felt very doubtful whether the present exposition could equal ours. My views have changed. Chicago excelled in some respects. We had there a magnificent situation—vast areas of lake front and a splendid park.
