Acknowledges Congratulations on His Recent Escape.

LONDON, April 30.-The Prince of Wales acknowledges the sympathies and congratulations from all parts of the world on his recent escape from assassination, in a letter just made public as follows:

"I have been deeply touched by the numerous expressions of sympathy and good will expressed to me on the occasion of the providential escape of the Princess of Wales and myself from the danger we have lately passed through. From every part of the globe, from the queen's subjects throughout the world, as well as the representatives and inhabitants of foreign countries have these manifestations proceeded and on my return to this country I received a welcome so spontaneous and hearty that I felt I wa sthe recipient of the most gratifying tribute of genuine good will. Such a proof of kind and generous reeling is, of course, most highly prized by me and will forever be cherished in my memory. ALBERT EDWARD."
