of a gorgeous costume flashed beneath the brilliant lights of a ball room. The queen of society is radiant to-night.
The nervous hands of a weak woman have toiled day and night, the weary form and aching head have known no and night, rest, for thess must be finished in time.
To that queen of society and her dressmaker we woul say a word. One through hothouse culture, luxury and may some day find their ailments a common cause. Nervous prostration, excitability, fainting spells, dizat ness, sleeplesssess loss of appetite and strength, all indicate serious trouble, which has been promed system. For the society queen and the dressmaker alike, there is nothing so reliable as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore strength, vigor, and happiness.
