TO NEGOTIATE A PEACE

Nearly All Envoys at Pekin Have Received Instructions.

THE WORK MAY BEGIN TUESDAY

Diplomats Will Immediately Commence Conference With China's Plenipotentiaries and Emperor Will Return to Pe kin to Execute the Treaties.

PEKIN, Dec. 10 .- All the foreign envoys except Sir Ernest Mason Satow, the British minister, have re- order. It is understood that Senator ceived instructions from their governments agreeing to the joint note, proposed at the last meeting.

Another meeting will probably be called for Tuesday next. Should the British minister have received his instructions to sign the joint note by that time, communications will be immediately opened with Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang, who are in daily touch with the court by the Chinese telegraph.

Prince Ching says Emperor Kwang Su is ready to return as soon as assured that the negotiations will allow nant with his dignity and safety.

The removal of General Tung Hslang from the command of the Chinese forces surrounding the court is considered by the foreign envoys to be a very important step, as indicating the real desire of the government to come to terms. Fu Hsiang's banishment indicates that the court recognizes the expediency of obeying the demands of the powers.

The International club was opened today, its object being to bring together in a spirit special harmony the officers and diplomats of the various nations. There was a large company present and music was discoursed by military bands. It is expected that the club will continue a great success. The building was formerly an imperial temple.

The envoys are considering the question of legation buildings in the future. At present none of the governments own its buildings, all the houses being rented. The only ones not damaged considerably are the American, British and Russian.

It is proposed that all the legation buildings should be concentrated within a square mile.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10 .- The next Important step in the Chinese situstion will be the formal presentation to the Chinese plenipotentiaries of the agreement arrived at between the representatives of the powers at Pekin for reparation for the Boxer outrages. In just what manner this will be done. Mr. Conger has not informed the state department, although the probability is that the document will be handed to the Chinese by the dean of the diplomatic corps, As has been stated already, the agreement is simply a statement of the terms upon which the powers will negotiate with China for a final settlement, and is laid before the Chinese officials as a matter of form. The negotiations for final settlement

THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

What They Propose Doing in the Near Coming Days.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10 .- The senate will continue to give its attention to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and the ship subsidy bill during the present week, taking up first one and then the other as may suit the convenience of those who may wish to speak on the two meausres. During the last session of congress the Nicaragua canal bill was made the special order of business for Monday next, but the establishment of the ship bill as the regular order will have the effect of displacing the canal bill, precedence being given under the senate rules to a regular order over a special Morgan, who has charge of the canal bill, will not press that measure until the treaty for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty is disposed of. On this account the friends of the ship bill do not apprehend that he will make any opposition to the continuance of the consideration of that measure. He has indeed caid said that we would be content to allow his bill to follow close in the wake of the ship bill.

Three or four set speeches are promised in opposition to the subsidy bill. and it is expected that most, if not him to come under conditions conso- all, of those already in sight will be made during this week. Among those who probably will speak on the subject are Senators Clay, Vest and Berry, all of whom oppose the bill. Senator Vest is an especial advocate of free ships.

There are differences of opinion as to what effect the taking of a vote on the fortifications amendment to the treaty will have upon the time of disposing of that instrument, but a majority of the senators express the opinion that the vote upon the treaty will follow very soon after the vote upon the amendment. The program in the house for the coming week contemplates the consideration and passage of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill and the bill for the re luction of the war revenue taxes. Wednesday will be a dies non, so far as legislation is concerned, as on that day the exercises in connection with the centennial celebration of the removal of the seat of government to Washington will be held in the house The legislative appropriation bill is not expected to consume more than two days at most, probably only one, and the leaders expect that the remainder of the weeek will suffice to pass the war revenue reduction act. It is probable that special interests which do not receive the consideration in the bill which they think they are entitled to will attempt to amend it. This is specially true of the brewing interests, which hope to secure a further reduction of the tax on beer from $1.50 a barrel, as fixed by the committee, to $1.35 a barrel.

WRITES TO MR. CONGER

Cantonese Beformer, Former Adviser to Kwang Su, Wants Emperor Restored. VICEROYS ARE NOT TO BE IRUSTED Foreigners Hold That Empress should Not Be Allowed to Interfere and That Reactionary Officials should Be Very Closely Watched. PEKIN, Dec. 8.-Mr. Conger, the United States minister, and other for cign envoys, received today a letter signed by Kang Yu Wei, the well known Cantonese reformer, who was formerly an adviser of Emperor Kwang Su and who has always been favorable to foreigners. Kang Yu Wei says that great calamities' have befailen China Su and who has always been favorable to foreigners. Kang Yu Wei says that great calamities' have befailen China through the empress dowager and also in consequence of her advisers, Prince Tuan, Prince Ching, Yung Lu, Yang Yi, Chao Shu, Chian, Muang Ru, Moyn Kuen and Hiang. He says heis thank-ful that the foreigners held out in the satin the Chinese who understand the all the Chinese who understand the swer the just punishment of the real culprits, satisfaction to the different countries and a sugnest pusches to make suggestions which with the wor fastions regret the murder of the the bulk there at $4,85,45,5 and selers at the culprits, satisfaction to the different countries and a permanent settlement of the international relations of plies. China." He urges:

First-That the empress and her advisers should not be allowed to violate the peace

Second-That the emperor, who is a friend of foreigners, should be restored.

Third-That all reactionary officials should be arrested and that a careful watch should be kept over the socalled friendly viceroys in the south.

Unless Yung Lu, Prince Tuan, and the others' are severely dealt with, Kang Yu Wei contends that they will continue to say that the foreigners are powerless.

The foreigners should not rely upon the viceroys," continues the Cantonese reformer. "They send men, money and armament to the empress and are her sary.

be restored the empire would rejoice. The emperor's party consists of the most enlightened men, who are friendly to foreigners and desire to incorporate western civilization and culture in an ancient country."

Kang Yu Wei points out that he was appointed for the task by a secret edict of the emperor in 1898, when he made his appeal on behalf of the emperor to the foreign powers.

"An appeal, which had they listened to, would probably have prevented what has happened."

A choice bunch of native fed lambs sold as high as $5.25, or about steady, but the western lambs sold generally a dime low-er. The market was not particularly aci-live, as packers were not anxious for sup-plies. There were not enough fat sheep on sale to make a test of the maprket. A bunch of native ewes brought $3.50, which is probably as much as they would have brought yesterday. Aside from that string there wes very little good stuff on sale and the market could be called steady to a little easier.

IMMIGRATION IS INCREASING.

Commissioner's Report Shows a Net Gain Over Last Year.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.-The annual report of the commissioner general of immigation shows that during the last fiscal year the total number of immigrants who arrived in this country was 448,572 of which 23,200 came through Canada. Of the whole number 304,148 were males and 144,442 females. This is a net increase over 1899 of 136,857. These figures, however, the commissioner general says, do not show the total number of alien arrivals, as 65,635 aliens came as cabin passengers. They would have swelled the total immigration to 514,207 had they traveled in the steerage.

The figures show that of the whole shown in the operations in northern number of arrivals 424,700 came from European countries, 17,946 from Asia

The complete agreement deciphered from the code is now in the hands of the president. Officials decline to make its text public in advance of the receipt of information that it has been formally accepted by the powers. although the advices which have heretofore come from Mr. Conger leaves no doubt that this will be the case. The essential features of the agreement already have been outlined in the press dispatches.

General Funston, with Troop A of the Fourth cavalry and a score of scouts, last Thursday encountered a hundred insurgents posted on the opposite bank of the Mehico river. The Americans charged across the stream and the enemy retreated, firing from cover. They left four dead on the field. A native who was captured reported that Fagin, a deserter from the Twenty-fourth infantry, who has been active with the Filipinos, with a party of two cavalrymen, had been wounded.

Lieutenant Morrow, with fifty men from the Forty-seventh r-giment, attacked and occupied Bulucan. While returning these troops encountered Colonel Victoris, occupying an entrenched position, with thirty rifles and 300 bolomen. Lieutenant Morrow's force charged and drove the enemy from their position, it is believed, with heavy loss. Preceding the fight the expedition had captured Major Flores and several of his followers.

An engagement is reported to have occurred near San Roque, in which, according to natives, fifty rebels were killed.

Several minor encounters and captures are also reported. The American casualties have been very slight.
