Miss Clara Barton, head of the Red Cross society, has placed with a firm at Kittrell, N. C., an order for 1,000,-000 strawberry plants. These plants will be distributed among the fruit growers of Texas who suffered so severely from the great September storm.

Some at least of the great redwood trees of California will be preserved, the state having recently come into possession of about 400 acres of redwood forest through the will of the late Col. J. B. Armstrong of Cloverdale, Sonoma county. The tract is to be held as a public park.

The first authentic discovery of traces of a prehistoric race in Alaska was made recently by prospectors in the foot-hills of Mount St. Elias. A copper mine was unearthed which had been worked ages ago. Kettles, tools, spear-heads and other articles, made in a crude manner from copper, were found.

Thanksgiving day proclamation just before the November elections. In that way he saves himself from the shafts of the jokers. Were it issued after election, a President's attitude of thankfulness would be ascribed to his own party's victory, if it had achieved a victory. If defeated he would be accused of "whistling to keep his courage up."

University chaperones are the latest Viennese novelty. In consequence of the riotous and insulting behavior of the male students when the women tried to avail themselves of the newly granted permission to attend lectures. many mothers of women students have registered for the university lectures in order to accompany and protect their daughters. The pioneer was the opera singer, Arabella Szilagyl.

The house in Peekskill in which Henry Ward Beecher wrote "Norwood," has been opened for a free library and reading room for Peekskill people. This has been made possible through the generosity of Dr. John Newell Tilden, who for many years was a practicing physician in Peekskill and later was principal of the military academy there. The institution will be known as the Beecher Free Reading Room.

Ezary Baird of Fond du Lac, Wis., and Miss Clara Elmer of Cshkosh made arrangements to be married at the home of Mrs. King in the former city the other evening. When the justice examined the marriage license he found the five days' limit required by the instrument had not expired. The wedding party waited until after the midnight hour, the justice returning at about 1 o'clock in the morning to tie the knot.

BLESSINGS SHOWERED UPON AMERICAN PEOPLE.

Draws Comparisons Between Our Own and Other Countries-Our Duty to Extend These Blessings to the World-Some Happy Conditions.

(Copyright, 1900, Louis Klopsch, N. Y.) Washington, Dec. 16.-Dr. Talmage preaches a discourse of Christian patriotism and shows the resources of our country and predicts the time when all the world will have the same lation xxi., 13, "On the south three gates;" Psalm cxlvii., "He hath not dealt so with any nation."

Among the greatest needs of our country is more gratitude to God for the unparalleled prosperity bestowed upon us. One of my texts calls us to international comparison. What nation on all the planet has of late had portunity as is now opening before this nation? Cuba and Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands brought into close contact with us, and through steamship subsidy and Nicaragua canal, which will surely be afforded by congress, be brought into most active trade with the United States. "On the south three gates." While our next door neighbors, the southern republics and neighboring colonies, imported from European countries 3,000 miles away $675,-000,000 worth of goods in a year, only $126,000,000 worth went from the United States-$126,000,000 out of $675,000,-European nations taking the four fingers and leaving us the poor thumb. Now all this is to be changed. There is nothing but a comparative ferry between the islands which have recently come under our protection, and only a ferry between us and Bolivia, Peru, Paraguay, Uruguay, Venezuela, Salvador, Nicaragua, Colombia, Costa Rica, seas and long voyage between them and Europe. By the mandate of the tion.

The Nation's Advertisements.

In anticipation of what is sure to come, I nail on the front door of this nation an advertisement:

Wanted .- One hundred thousand men to build railroads through South America and the island of the sea under our protection.

Wanted .- A thousand telegraph operators.

Wanted .- One hundred million dollars' worth of dry goods from the great cities of the United States.

Wanted .- All the clocks you can make at New Haven and all the brains you can spare from Boston and all the bells you can mold at Troy and all the McCormick reapers you can fashion have been an international contest, time which will surely come when all at Chicago and all the hams you can sometimes the husband having the bal- nations will have as great advantages road iron you can send from Pittsburg and all the statesmen that you can spare from Washington. The Story of Prosperity.

But now I give you the comparative exports and imports, which tell the story of national prosperity as nothing else can. Excess of exports over imports, $544,400,000. Now let all pessuch enlargement of commercial op- simists hide themselves in the dens and caves of the earth, while all grateful souls fill the churches with doxology. Now, is it not better that we be overtaxed and the surplus be distributed all over the land than to have it built up and piled up inside the palaces?

Question of Monopolles.

Again, the monopolistic oppression is less in America than anywhere else. The air is full of protest because great houses, great companies, great individuals, are building such overtowering fortunes. Stephen Girard and John Jacob Astor, stared at in their time for their august fortunes, would not now be pointed at in the streets of Washington or Philadelphia or New York as anything remarkable. These vast fortunes for some imply pinchedness, of want for others. A growing protuberance on a man's head implies illness of the whole body. These estates of disproportionate size weaken all the body politic. But the evil is nothing with us compared with the monopolistic oppression abroad. Just look at the ecclesiastical establishments on the other side of the sea. Look at those great cathedrals, built at fabulous expense and supported by ecclesiastical machinery, and sometimes in an audience room that would ty people gather for worship. The pope's income is $8,000,000 a year. Cathedrals of statuary and braided arch and walls covered with masterpieces of Rubens and Raphael and Michael Angelo. Against all the walls

LESSON XIII DEC. 30-A REVIEW OF CHRISTMAS LESSON.

'Thou Crownest the Year with Thy Goodness"-Psalms 55-11-Suggestions to Teachers of Sunday Schools-Childhood and Youth of Christ.

No better Christmas lesson can be taught to many classes than a general view of the life of Christ as a whole, showing why we should rejoice and why the angels came from heaven to sing their Gloria in Excelsis when Jesus was born into this world. It was what he did and taught here that made his birth a matter of so much rejoicing.

Let us use every means possible to impress upon our pupils the life of Christ and its meaning, how each act and miracle and parable and teaching helped to show him to be the Savior we need, the true Savior of mankind.

There are many forms of reviewing, and any one of them can be made effect tive with care and planning beforehand. Some give up the whole morning service to the review, and it is

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try Marriages in Hindostan are very simple, and are usually arranged by the parents of the principals. When an alliance is agreed upon, the bride and groom are brought together, and perhaps see each other for the first time. The bride playfully skips toward the groom and seats herself beside him. The priest ties a corner of the bride's veil to the groom's shawl, and this simple proceeding makes them man and wife.

A young western attorney was recently asked why he had so strenuously defended a woman who could not pay him. "I can never forget," he replied, "that she lived at the end of my long paper route when I was a struggling college boy. More than once in winter her kind heart prompted her to rise very early to have a cup of hot coffee ready for her newsboy, fearing lest he might perish with the cold." Such acts defy commercial "repayment" as much as mother-love or sister influence. How does the old Persian poet put it? "In Time's fleeting river

The image of that little vine-leaf lay; Immovably unquiet, and forever It trembles, but it cannot pass away."

A Paris newspaper gives the weight of certain European sovereigns. In a football line-up, Dom Carlos of Portugal would be center. His towardness or valor ought to be guaranteed by his 202 pounds. Ferdinand of Bulgaria, 177 pounds, and Oscar of Sweden, one pound less, seem fitted for guards. Kaiser Wilhelm's 160 pounds would give him momentum and force as a tackle. The czar would scarcely make the team except as quarterback, for he weighs only 121 pounds. The little King of Spain, 99 pounds, is out of the question, save to hold the sweater of a player or to toss the coin for choice of position. If monarchy could tolerate the presence of a president of a republic for fullback, the head of the French government, with his 180 pounds, would naturaly be a candidate.

The exertion required to make a comma does not count with a writer. and the time involved is inconsiderable. Not to insert a comma, however, may lead to a large cost of time, and an altogether disproportionate amount of money. A recent suit in an important court was brought because the omission of a comma left the meaning of a document in doubt. The expense which it entailed, which a stroke of the pen would have saved, shows that economy in punctuation may be at least first cousin to extravagance.

"On the south three gates," yea, a thousand gates. South America and all the islands of the sea approximate are rightfully our commercial domain, and the congress of the United other lands and accompany them to States will see to it that we get what their homes and see what privations belongs to us.

And then tides of iravel will be somewhat diverted from Europe to our islands at the south and to the land of the Aztecs. Much of the $125,000,000 yearly expended by Americans in Europe will be expended in southern exploration, in looking at some of the ruins of the 47 cities which Stephens found only a little way apart and in walking through the great doorways and over the miracles of mosaic and along by the monumental glories of another civilization, and ancient America will with cold lips of stone kiss the warm lips of modern America, and to have seen the Andes and Popocatepetl will be deemed as important as to have seen the Alpine and Balkan ranges, and there will be fewer people midst less of the poor and nauseating imitation of a brainless foreign swell.

Some Happy Conditions.

Again, in this international comparison notice the happy condition of our country as compared with most countries. Russia under the shadow of the dreadful illness of her great and good emperor, who now, more than any man in all the world, represents "peace on earth, good will to men," and whose empress, near the most solemn hour dealt so with any nation?"

ance of power and sometimes the wife.

The Question of Wages.

Again, in this international comparand salaries are so large for the great mass of the people. In India four cents a day for wages; in England, $1 a day good wages, vast populations not getting as much as that; in other lands. 50 cents a day and 25 cents a day, clear on down to starvation and squalor! Look at the great populations coming out of the factories of the hard-working classes on the other side of the sea suffer. The laboring classes in America are 10 per cent better off than those in any other country under the sun, 20 per cent, 40 per cent, 50 per cent. The toilers of hand and foot have better homes and better furnished. "How much wages do you ed the thoughts that burdened his get?" is a question I have asked in brain. Seated at the edge of the curbing was a weary teamster, while near by stood his horses crunching away at their noon portion of oats, says the Chicago News. Heaving a deep sigh, the teamster slowly ambled to the wagon and from under the seat drew forth good-sized dinner pail. Resuming his seat upon the curb he mechanically removed the cover from the lunch bucket and began to eat.

· 10 His Conception of Faith.

The teacher was trying to communicate to the juvenile class an idea of faith and to better illustrate it she held up an apple and said: "If I were to tell you there were no seeds in this apple you would believe me without further proof, would you not?" "Yes, ma'am." answered the class in chorus. 'Well, that's faith," said the teacher. The next day in order to test their recollections of the lesson she asked: "Who can tell me what faith is?" "I can," promptly answered a small urchin. "It's an apple what ain't got
