When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption.—Odendahl Bros.

Word came down from Alliance yesterday to the effect that Dr. Vaughn, who recently moved from Burwell, had died at Alliance of smallpox. Dr. Vaughn located at Burwell some time ago, taking up the practice of the late Dr. Cameron. After a few months practice there he moved to Alliance, where he assumed charge of a hospital, and THE QUIZ heard nothing farther of him till the news of his death came. While practicing at Burwell he married Miss Mable Cornwall of that place. At the time of the doctors departure for Alliance his young wife was teaching school, but she gave up the profession of school teacher and followed him to Alliance where she had the position of matron of the hospital.

On account of the nature of the disease her people were advised not to come to Alliance to attend his funeral. Ord Quiz.

The story comes from St. Paul that it has come to light that one of the city council had a case of smallpox in his home and kept it concealed until another member of the family took down and the doctor who was attending the first case was out of town necessitating the calling of another doctor who gave the case away. The first doctor was fined $50.00 for his part in the concealment and the matter resulted in the quarantining of a score of houses where inhabitants had innocently exposed themselves by visiting infected home. This alderman should be "publicly ducked" according to the blue laws of Connecticut, in the Loup river while the ice is running and the doctor should be compelled to pump oil from the St. Paul well for 30 days.
