This season there is a large death rate among children from croup and lung troubles. Prompt action will save the little ones from these terrible diseases. We know of nothing so certain to give instant relief as One Minute Cough Cure. It can also be relied upon in grippe and all throat and lung troubles of adults. Pleasant to take.—Odendahl Bros.

Mr. John Clark informs us that his son Silas underwent the operation contemplated at the hospital at Grand Island last Tuesday and stood the shock very well. He also says that the bone of the arm above the elbow, for four inches is in such a state of decomposition that it is so soft that it could be removed with the fingers. The doctor says he can save the boys arm.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodgen, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by Odendahl Bros. Druggists.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly by every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventative and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty W. Va., only reports what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Odendahl Bros. Druggists.

Last Tuesday afternoon Uncle Sam Hancock went out to look after his cow and being very feeble and the wind blowing quite strong, he lost his balance and fell heavily to the ground, striking on his shoulder and dislocating it. Dr. Main was called and replaced the joint, but the feeble condition of Mr. Hancock leaves him in a critical condition. He is about 75 years old and has been very feeble for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Hancock are people highly esteemed by everybody and they have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in this misshap.

"A young man came into our store yesterday suffering from a severe attack of cramp colic," writes B. F. Hess, miller and general merchant, Dickey's Mountain, Pa. "He had tried various home remedies without relief. As I had used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I gave him a dose and it soon brought him out all right. I never saw a fellow so rejoiced." Sold by Odendahl Bros. Druggists.
