Right here it was a little slack but not more so than many other places that prayed just as fervantly as we did.

The long continued hot spell was broken last Friday, since which this part of the vineyard has enjoyed from 10 to 15 degrees of a drop in the mercury until yesterday when it again reached 102. During the twenty days from July 8, to 28, inclusive the mercury ranged from 102 to 108 with the single exception of the 19 when it did not go above 98. The lower temperature the past week has been of great benefit to the growing corn.

W. J. Bryan said at Chicago the other day that "imperialism" was the great issue between the two parties. Mr. Bryan will discover that the bugaboo of imparialism is not scaring very many and that if made an issue will split the democratic party nearly in twain. His so called "imperialism has but one side to it, and that as far as it has been carred is for the benefit of the United States. Democrats see this as well as Republicans, and an attempt to make it a national issue for 1904 will give the Republican party a leverage equal to free silver in '96.

There is a very large acreage of corn in Sherman county that is in very fine condition and with a little rain will yet make a good crop. This almost seems surprising after our continued drouth, but a drive over the country put renewed hopes in us. The rough feed question is not by any means as serious as it is furnishing them feed they are returning us money that will compen C R Arkinson, sate for the short crop.
