SOME POLITICAL HISTORY OF SHERMAN COUNTY Continued from last week.

and deplorable results of the Sher man County Bank failure, by the immediate installment of Mr. A. J B. Fairbairn in the treasurer's office who was appointed by the supervisors to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Pearson. Pearson was then, and always has been a life long democrat.

But now with Mr. Fairbairn treasurer: W. H. Morris, clerk, J. S. Pedler Sheriff, Burns for Supt., for the first time, we had practically a republican administration, al though some of these officers were elected on the so called "Farmers and Tax-payers' ticket. Yet their loyalty to the republican party out side of local matters has never been Dietrichs, Chairman: Anton Kwiat questioned.
