The boiling alley has commenced operation and the game is receiving considerable attention. Some complaint is made about the noise it creates but it may be that they will get used to it in time. The score card of the commencement exercises at this place of resort appears in another column:

There is music in the alley,
When the balls are onward rolling,
As they go to make a tally,
And the people are all boiling.
If by chance a great big fellow,
Strains his nerves and rents his pants,
As he tries the ball to mellow,
Hits the pias and makes a ramp.
Then it is that he's uneasy,
Of the rent, he has a fear,
As he feels it cool and breezy
In the region of the rear.

AT REST.
Mr. Andrew J. Keller was born on the 18th day of April, 1837 in Mansfield, Ohio and died 14 miles south east of Loup City, Neb., April 14th, 1902 aged 62 years and 6 days. When Mr. Keller was four years old he moved from Ohio to the state of Indiana, where he made his home with his Uncle until he reached the age of 13 years. At this early age he began manfully to battle with the problems of life for himself. Young as he was he decided that every man ought to learn a trade and having a natural liking for tools he learned the carpenters trade. Later in life he became an engineer. When he was 20 years of age he went west and began active life on the raw prairies of Kansas. At Kansas City he helped to make the first ballot box ever used there. Mr. Keller was not a man who estimated lightly the thoughts of a religious nature, and there on those wide western prairies he helped to organize a Sunday School and gave $10.00 to put the organization on a safe foundation. The pastor of the little organization, as a token of his love and esteem, gave him a small bible which he carried all his life and read till it fell to pieces with age and use.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church. On the 16th. day of August 1861, he enlisted in the army as a volunteer to serve three years. Here he proved himself a good soldier, serving his country nobly for three years three months and nine days. He was in forty-three engagements, among which were the fierce battles of Shiloh, Gettysburg and Lookout Mountain. At Shiloh he was badly wounded in the right leg. He was honorably discharged by expiration of time September 24th, 1864.

He was married at Logan's Post, Indiana, June 5th, 1873. Soon after he was married he moved to Illinois Inquois, Co., where he lived until 1882. He moved to Butler Co. Nebraska in 1882, here he lived only one year and then moved to Howard Co. In 1900 he moved to Sherman County, where he has ever since resided. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. Mrs. R. M. Hanes, Mr. W. H. Keller, and Arthur E. Keller. In the death of our brother the wife, has lost a good husband, the children a good father and the country a good citizen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the many kind friends who sympathized with and assisted us in the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father. Especially do we wish to thank those who contributed the lovely flowers.

Mrs. A. KELLER.
Mrs. R. M. HANES.
W. H. KELLER.
ARTHUR E. KELLER.

A fire in the east end of town at the residence of A. Erizin, caused no little excitement last Friday and the sound of the fire bell brought out the fire department in double quick time. A pile of rubbish was fired the evening before, but which was supposed to be all out, sprang up anew and threatened destruction to the barn near by. It was extinguished without damage.

There will be a joint discussion between all the fraternal lodges of this city, at Pilger's opera house, on the evening of May 21st., the object being to have two speakers from each organization to represent the merits of the order. All the best speakers of the different organizations have already been selected for the occasion and the committee is busy arranging a programme that will interest you. All are cordially invited. Come out and enjoy a grand good time.

WANTS OTHERS TO KNOW.

"I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver and they are all right. I am glad to endorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure safe pills. Odendahl Bros.

Those who wish to meet Dr. Seymour at the Koehler hotel in grand Island. Tuesday June 5th. may by writing him at once at Lincoln Nebr. secure a special appointment card which will give them the privilege of meeting him without charge for consultation.

LIKE A DROWNING MAN.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes George S. Marsh, well known attorney of Nocona, Tex. "I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at, Kadol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kadol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble.—Odendahl Bros.

Now that the storm season is here and there will be much danger from Lightning, you should think about Lightning Rods. If you have none, or your old ones are out of repair, better write to "Nebraska" resident dealer W. E. Drake, Grand Island Nebr., who does an honest business and is fast reclaiming the fallen reputation of this line of work, which has suffered much by the abuse of unprincipled traveling "fakirs," who have greatly abused the grand discovery of Franklin. Read his advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

BIG HORN BASIN.
Are you interested in the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming? It's a rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. It contains marvelous openings for small ranches along good streams in the valleys, with one million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

The Burlington Route has just published a folder descriptive of the Big Horn Basin. It is illustrated and contains an accurate map. It tells about the lay of the land, character of the soil, products, yield, irrigation and opportunities.

If you're interested, better write for a copy. It is free.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb,
Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.
"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."
Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
