KINKAID NOMINATED

On the One Hundredth and Seventy-Seventh Ballot

The Sixth district republican convention wound up early Friday evening by the nomination of Judge M. P. Kinkaid of O'Neil on the 177th ballot. The result was brought about by securing the votes of Dawson and Buffalo counties, which added to Judge Kinkaid's solid vote of 79 made enough votes to nominate. The other counties did not get into the band wagon, although all voted to make the nomination unanimous.

The contest lasted for two days. On Thursday 100 votes were taken without result and on Friday morning it became apparent that it would take a united effort of the following of all other candidates to defeat Kinkaid. The Bieman, Grimes, Cady and Darr votes then consolidated and tried to make Grimes. Failing in this they tried each of the other candidates in turn. It needed the Currie forces to do the business but they could not be shaken.

The determination to make Kinkaid came during a 40 minute recess, which was taken just after three o'clock. Buffalo and Dawson held a caucus and decided to end the fight. They acted just in time to prevent the Currie forces from going to pieces and making Grimes. This had been promised, but was put off to long.

The final vote was one of enthusiasm and speeches were made by Kinkaid, Currie, Bieman, Grimes, Cady, Darr, and Wall. The new central committee held a short meeting after the convention and Kinkaid was authorized to name the chairman. Judge Wall was selected as congressional committeeman for this county.

G. M. Lambertson, one of the leading lawyers of Lincoln Nebraska died in Chicago Sunday morning at the Palmer house where he and Mrs. Lambertson were stopping. The news of his death was received here with a shock as many of our readers had often met and shook hands with him and knew him only as one of the ablest lawyers in the state and a man of honor and trust. He was fifty-two years old at time of death. In December, 1878, Mr. Lambertson was appointed by President Hayes United States district attorney for the state of Nebraska, which position he held with distinguished ability for eight years and two months, having been reappointed by President Arthur. At the expiration of his second term of office, in February, 1887, President Cleveland tendered him a temporary re-appointment, which he declined. Since that date he served for a time as first assistant secretary of the treasury having been appointed by President Harrison. After retiring from public life Mr. Lambertson has been actively engaged in the practice of law in Lincoln.

J. M. Snyder of Virdurette was in the city Saturday. He came over from North Loup and speaks of the growing crops along the way as being the finest he has seen for years. He says that he saw many hundreds of tons of alfalfa in stacks, the first cutting of the season, and thinks that if the farmers of Sherman county would get to raising it more extensively that we would have one of the most prosperous countries the sun ever shown upon. In this Mr. Snyder is right. Those who are raising alfalfa have been realizing from $20. to $25 per acre from a single seasons harvest. With a reasonably good stand and anything like a favorable season, three cuttings can be made in one season and even in dry weather a splendid yield is assured. Every farmer in Sherman county should have an alfalfa field. If you cannot afford a large one to start with try a small one.

Mickey Wins Out.

THE REPUBLICANS CHOOSE HIM FOR GOVERNOR

The Rest of the State Officers Re-nominated by Acclamation.

Auditor..... CHARLES WESTON

Com. of Pub. L. and B..... G. D. FOLLMER
Supt. Pub. Instruction..... WM. K. FOWLER

J. H. Mickey a farmer of Osceola was nominated for governor on the Thirtieth ballot. Mr. Mickey is an old soldier and a pioneer citizen of Nebraska. The name of our next governor will be Mickey. The fight on governor was one of the largest ever made in the history of republican politics in the state and the result was very satisfactory to the delegates from every part of the state, and all of his opponents pledged their unqualified support to the choice of the convention.

Mr. Mortensen, of Valley County was nominated on the first ballot and the announcement of the vote taken was hailed with shouts of approval from every part of the auditorium. His presence in the campaign had given him prestige that was hard to overcome. Mr. Mortensen is one of the best candidates it has been the good fortune of the republicans of this state to place upon the ticket and his election is sure and certain. The balance of the ticket with the exception of Lieutenant Governor was made up of the present incumbents in office.

E A B is trying to get up a little enthusiasm among the pop committeemen. Well, somebody will have to take Jim Zink's place.

The present prices of pork and beef makes it mighty tough for pop editors to chew.

Teacher.—"Who is Moses?"

Pupil.—"Why, Moses is the King of the Kaid, and sittith on the Congressional throne of the Big Sixth."

Teacher.—"Who is Aaron?"

Pupil.—"Aaron is the man who built the wall that protected the King when the Grimes, Cady, Bieman, and Darr tribes tried to Carrie him down."

Apparently there is but one Moses in the big sixth.

There is to be a street carnival at Sheridan Wyoming on Independence Day, July 3, 4 and 5, Indians, Indian dances, "Custer's Last Battle," Rough Riders, Stage Coach hold ups, Industrial parades, Open air Concert and many other great attractions will be given by the cow boys of that country.

Board again in session.
The following resolution regarding the purchasing of the land of Jas. Deake to satisfy a judgement of June 13, in favor of Sherman county was adopted by this board.

Board adjourned to June 14, 1902.

Board met as per adjournment of June 13, 1902, and to transact general business.

All members of board present, also county attorney and county clerk.

A. Smith for said petitioners. The board after due consideration, did not grant the request.

Board then took up the report of road committee on the Chapman road and adopted the following report:

The committee finds that the road as asked for is just and recommends it to be allowed and that damage asked for by parties owning land which said road passes through be adjudged according to the decision of the county board.

Sign'd D. C. GROW,
D. H. RICHARDSON - Com.
WM. JAKOB.

and by motion the road was established as prayed for, provided that Loup City township pays the damage of $10.00 per acre, for land taken, and board accepted the proposition of Chapman and others, as per their contract to grade said road.

In the matter of the offer of Oliver Dubry to pay $5.00 each for lots 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, in block 32, original town of Loup City, and after considering the law on the matter of the sale of lots where the tax against them were more than the value of the property, which law allows the county board to fix a minimum price on such property, the proposition of Mr. Dubry was accepted.

Now in the matter of the Chapman road, J. W. Long appeared for G. W. Graves, L. J. Kindall and Brown & Payne, and entered a protest claiming that the prices for damage of $10.00 per. acre, was inadequate and not sufficient for property taken. The damages were allowed as follows by board: L. J. Kindall, three acres, $30.00; Brown & Payne, two acres, $20.00; G. W. Graves, one acre, $10.00; Jacob Ritz, two acres, $20.00.
