She arrived on Tuesday evening's B. & M. D. C. Grow, sells flour and feed at the Northwestern Milling Company's stand one door east of St. Elmo Hotel. The corn is coming on at a rapid pace and the indications are that there will not be a crop enough in the country to hold the crop. Chas. Gasteyer took a drive into the country with ye editor last Monday evening. Charley is like everybody else, highly elated over the fine crops. The Loup City markets are quoted this week as follows: Wheat .46, Rye .26 to .30, Oats .18 to .20, Hogs 6.75, Cows 2.50, Steers 3.50, Eggs .12, Butter .13. T. S. Nightingale and wife drove to Jas. Gouley's in Custer county Sunday. Thier two daughters who had been spending a part of their vacation there returned with them. Dr. Kearns seems to enjoy the central telephone business. We called to see him last week and he seems very much taken up with that kind of employment. Makes the fires of life burn with a steady glow. Renews the golden, happy days of youth. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents.—Odendahl Bros. Are you in need of a mowing machine, hay rake, sweep or loader. If so call at T. M. Reeds. Jas. Burnett brought a potato vine to this office which had over a dozen potatoes set on it. There were small sets on the very top. How is this for a Nebraska crop. W. F. Mickish and Miss. Tillie Miller, both of Hazard township were united in marriage on Monday, August 5th, 1902. Judge Angler tied the nuptial knot and sent them on their way rejoicing. Rev. Madely and wife left for Lincoln last Wednesday and will be gone a week in attendance at the Epworth League Assembly, holden at that place from August 6th to 11th inclusive. A little fellow who reported an item of news to this office last Monday said that a U. P. train which looked like a freight came in with a pile drier on a flat car and a "papoose" on behind. We investigated and found the pile driver but no "papoose." It was a caboose that was attached. My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered. F. L. WILKENS, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkens is book-keeper for Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Odendahl Bros. O. F. Petersen of this city and Detlef Petersen of Logan township started for their old home at Lyons, Clinton Co., Ia., where they go to attend the golden wedding of their parents and make an extended visit. Otto will take his boys with him and Detlef his wife and family. It has been a long time since they have visited the scenes of their childhood and the NORTHWESTERN wishes them a most pleasant trip and a safe return.

Lion Coffee

Mrs. Ed. Veeder returned from her visit to Sargent Monday. John Gray, of Rockville was a pleasant caller Thursday. Miss Ella Long returned from her extended eastern visit last Tuesday. Lon Zink is having some yards and cribs built at the U. P. stock yards. R. J. Nightingale left last Friday for an extended trip to Idaho and the coast. A pair of twin girls arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornrump last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gasteyer will go to Chicago in a few days to purchase a new stock of goods for the fall trade. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hotchkiss rejoice over the advent of a new baby girl which came to bless their home last Monday.

You can get repairs for McCormick, Woods and Buckeye machines at T. M. Reeds.

There is a pretty girl in an alpine hat, A sweeter girl in sailor brim; But the handsomest girl you'll ever see Is the sensible girl who uses Rocky Mountain Tea.—Odendahl Bros. G. H. and C. W. Gibson, county clerk and deputy took their families for a drive in the north part of the county last Sunday. They visited the home of ex-county Judge Kay. The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Galway is all sunshine as a new arrival has come to stay. It is a pretty little girl baby, born Monday last. We thought there was something that made Sam a little taller.

If it wasn't popular, if it wasn't loved by the people, why do dealers say? "We have something just as good as the Madison Medicine Co's Rocky Mountain Tea." Think it over, 35 cents.—Odendahl Bros.

The union services began last Sunday with Rev. Porter occupying the pulpit. He preached a very able sermon. The choir was composed of the best musical talent from all the churches and the exercises were both instructive and entertaining and drew a crowded house. The next union service will be held next Sunday evening at the brick church, at 8.00 p.m.

We will have to compliment Thos. Inks on having the cleanest looking place that we know of in town. There may be others just as clean, but we have noticed this place in particular. Mr. Inks has cut the weeds down around his place and not only improved its looks but the town as well. There are others who need to do the same.

Mrs. W. J. Fisher and Mrs. Geo. E. Benschoter spent a very pleasant afternoon at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Reynolds, Wednesday of last week. Upon cross-examination we learned that they were highly entertained, had fried chicken and every thing nice. Next time we are going to Mistress said if we would be good and stay at home this time she would take us when she went again.

Charley Gasteyer returned from Lincoln last Saturday on the 4:30 B. & M. passenger where he has been under medical treatment. He is looking quite well again and is glad to get home to his family. Mr. Gasteyer has been greatly missed from our business circle and every body was glad to see him again. He is quite recovered from his serious difficulty, the result of an abscess in his head which was removed by surgical operation. Mrs. Gasteyer, during her husband's absence has been very busy arranging her store in first class shape for the fall trade. She has purchased some very costly store fixtures, added shelving and practically divided the stock of goods into a department store, as much so as space will permit. Among the items of new furniture that is to be found in the store is two new show cases, a handsome folding three plate French glass mirror, an elegant refrigerator, one of the finest ever brought to the city and a large cabinet like shelving case. The latter is used exclusive for the gents furnishing department. This piece of furniture is the work of Wm. Rowe and is not only a credit to the mechanic who constructed it, but is a most valuable acquisition to the store. After Mr. Gasteyer got rested up he will be able to take a hold of business with a double energy. Mrs. Grsteyer is to be complimented for her untiring efforts to successfully carrying on business during her husband's illness, especially with the great strain devolved upon her in domestic duties which has so happily resulted in her husband's return to health and home.

John Fisher is cutting his oats. It is an immense crop.

John Ohlsen is building an addition to his brick residence, 16 by 22. This will give him a nice commodious house.

If in need of a well or windmill, pumps, and pipes see T. M. Reed.

The U. P. bridge gang was at work Wednesday morning repairing the trestle across Dead Horse Creek south west of town.

The teacher's institute for Sherman county will commence next Monday. State Superintendent, W. K. Fowler will be present and address the assembly at the German church Tuesday evening.

August Jens, traveling salesman for the wholesale grocery house at St. Paul dropped in to see us Wednesday. Mr. Jens is one of the pioneer people of the country. We have known him for many years and were pleased of the opportunity to exchange ideas and renew old acquaintance.

Last week we made mention of the Union entertainment to be given by the different lodges of the city on August 29. The program is for each lodge to be represented by two speakers, who shall be given ten minutes to represent the merits of their lodge. Good speakers have been selected for the occasion and a most interesting time is assured. Pilgers opera house has been secured and we understand that admission is free to everybody.

The case of Campbell vs. Ormsbee was tried in county court Wednesday. It was a case in which plaintiff sues to recover $291 damage for trespass by stock. Plaintiff was represented by A. Wall and T. S. Nightingale and the defendant by H. M. Mathew. After long hours of contest a judgement was rendered against Ormsbee for $5.00 damage and costs in the sum of $7.95, and also against Campbell in the sum of $63.40 costs.

TO MY FRIENDS It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried every thing I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body, depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you can eat. Take a dose after meals.—Odendahl Bros.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. "If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElev's Wine of Cardui and Tiedford's Black Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

IT NEEDS A TONIC. There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give perogatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave. Milton, Pa. says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress.—Odendahl Bros.
