REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- For Governor, JOHN H. MICKY. For Lieutenant Governor, E. G. MCGILTON. For Treasurer, PETER MORTENSEN. For Secretary of State, G. W. MARSH. For Auditor, CHARLES WESTON. For Superintendent of Instruction, WILLIAM K. FOWLER. For Attorney General, F. N. PROUT.

- For Commissioner Public Lands, GEORGE D. FOLLMER. For Congressman, M. P. KINKAID. For Senator 10th district, A. WALL.

COUNTY TICKET.

- For County Attorney, J. S. PEDLER. For Representative, ALVIN CLARK.

Like the indignant father who takes his boy behind the woodshed for a little fatherly correction, Uncle Sam has to pause about once in every two years and takes the Democratic party out to give it a hiding.

M. P. Kinkaid served the people of this district for fourteen years on the judicial bench faithfully, ably and well and now after a few years rest they are going to promote him to a higher office by sending him to congress, where his abilities will shine as pronounced and resplendent in a legislative body as they did in his judicial capacity.

The inconsistency of H. M. Mathew wanting the treasurer of this county to give him an affidavit that J. S. Pedler was buying tax certificates when he, himself, was buying for the capitalists, while he was just buying a few for himself and the widows and orphans. No, no, Mathew, you can't get Mr. Sweetland to do any such dirty work as that.

In 1896 the country showed the democratic party that the people would not stand for free silver. The Democrats bobbed up with it again in 1898, together with free trade and got walloped once more. In 1900 they came up again with free trade and free silver and run away from the Philippines and got walloped again. Here they are once more, doing business at the old stand on the old issue, free trade, free silver, and scuttle in the Orient, and they will get walloped again. They never learn anything.

The Republican candidates, Messrs Clark and Pedler, are very much desirous and have been from the start, that this campaign of 1902 be, especially so far as local candidates are concerned, one of the least personal in character that has ever been conducted in Sherman County. We heard Mr. Pedler say soon after his nomination that it would suit him if nothing was said in a personal way about any of the candidates and he has since suggested to us that it might be well not to mention anything which might, at all, be regarded as personal. So far as the NORTHWESTERN is concerned we heartily coincide with Mr. Pedler's views, even though it does seem that matters of fact, and of public nature should be fully discussed.

There is no end to the different opinions that men entertain on this subject. Some seem to think that if a candidate's name is mentioned in print, in connection with even public affairs, no matter how correct the statement, or how much the public may be interested in what he may have done or what he may be doing, it is a base slander. Others think that it should by all means be exposed and commented on at length. And again when the editor has spent hours carefully looking into the facts and has made his statement, the third man says it is all right only you did not give it to him hard enough, and the fourth will say you have been very abusive. For instance a rather amusing thing happened two weeks ago, when no less than three men came into this office, one after the other, and stated that a certain candidate went to the treasurer's office to secure an affidavit stating that his opponent had been buying tax certificates, and that the treasurer informed him that he was not there for that business. Of course there was nothing personal about that. Now says these three men "give him thunder," and as we were deliberating the question in our own mind, in came Joe Pedler, and said if he was the NORTHWESTERN, he wouldn't say anything about it. And so we have kept this campaign thunder bottled up and tightly corked all these days.

The bank deposits of the people in the United States last year aggregated $8, 500,000,000, an average of $108 per capita. Ten years ago these bank deposits were $4,200,000,000 or less than one half what they are to day, and 20 years ago they amounted to $2,500,000,000 or about one-fourth of the present deposits. These deposits represent the savings of the people and they have been increasing more rapidly in the last six years than ever before. For instance the total deposits in all classes of banks, National, Savings, State, Private, Loan and Trust companies amounted to $4,000,000,000 in 1890, increased $230,000,000 in the next year and $400,000,000 in 1892. Then came the Democratic free trade administration and in 1893 the total bank deposits decreased from $4,630,000,000 to $4,586,000,000 or about 45,000,000. In 1894 they made a slight increase and got back to the figures of 1892. In 1895 there was another increase of $238,000,000 and in 1896 an increase of 15,000,000. The whole increase in bank deposits for the four years of the Cleveland administration amounted to less than $250,000,000.

But after the election of McKinley confidence was restored and money came out of its hiding places to find a place in banks again and in 1897 the deposits amounted to $5,196,000,000, an increase of $210,000,000; and in the next year after the enactment of the Dingley law amount to $5,927,000,000, an increase of nearly $800,000,000. The increase from the election of McKinley in 1896 to the close of his administration in 1901 was nearly $4,000,000,000 or nearly double. The exact figures for 1896 were $4,888,098,119 and for 1901 they were $8,585,053,136.

These figures may be regarded as the barometer of public confidence in political parties and their policies. The first year after the election of McKinley the increase was five per cent, and for the five years of his administration this increase was nearly 100 per cent.

These are the official figures of the Treasury Department. They point their own moral by showing that money goes into hiding under Democratic administration and seeks investment under Republican administration. All people who believe in keeping their money in old stockings or hidden in the chimney cracks will vote the Democratic ticket this fall. But those who have confidence in the banks and in investments that use money to earn money will not vote that ticket.

Heavy Horses Haul

Horses that are employed in hauling beer wagons in New York weigh from 1,500 to 2,100 pounds and cost an average of $400 each. The most desirable size weighs about 1,750 to 1,800 pounds. The breed, descended from the original large Black Horse family of Europe, is said to be a cross between the Percheron, Clydesdale, Boulonnais, Belgian, Suffolk Punch and Shire horses, large numbers of which the United States used to import.

Injudiciously Chosen Text.

A church was a considerable time without a pastor. A great number of persons of varied talents preached to them with a view to obtaining the post. All went well until he gave out the text: "See that ye refuse not him that speaketh." Imagine the consternation the people experienced when he read out the text in a lofty and commanding manner. He was unaware of the feeling he created. The people did the opposite from the text. The young man was not called.

JUDGE WALL FOR SENATOR.

At the Republican Senatorial convention which was held at Ravenna last Wednesday, Judge Wall of this city was unanimously nominated as candidate for this, the 16th senatorial district. There was a full representation of the delegation from Sherman county. One of the regular delegates being absent his place was filled with an alternate. There was also a good representation present from Buffalo county, eleven out of her chosen sixteen.

The selection of Mr. Wall for this legislative honor will meet with favor throughout the district. The people of Sherman county will have reason to feel proud of their senator should he be elected, as he is one of the ablest men in western Nebraska. The representative delegates and republicans of Buffalo county pledge their hearty support to Mr. Wall and predict for him a majority in that county of upwards of three hundred. This being the case his election is assured, as even in Sherman county, the once greatest populist hot bed of the state, his opponent cannot any more that hope to poll an even number of votes.

MOCKVILLE ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smelser drove to Kearney Friday and spent Sunday.

Wm. Murr of Grand Island was a visitor Monday.

John Gray has rented the livery barn here and intends to pay special attention to that.

We are told that Clayton H. Stephens and Miss. Fanny Zold were married at Loup City on Tuesday, September 30th, 1902. We join the community in wishing them a happy wedded life.

John Lucks and Mr. Guy Stephens arrived home Tuesday evening from Cheyenne, Wyo. for a visit with their parents.

John Gray found his lost mare several miles south of Nantasket last Sunday. The village board met last Monday evening and granted Henry Lucks a saloon licence. They also decided to see to it that a nice sidewalk was put in between the Woodmen hall and the school house.

The new street lamp is up and shedding its light over the town. It is a dandy and is a credit to our burg, and now a few more just like it are needed.

TO MY FRIENDS.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried every thing I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you can eat. Take a dose after meals.—Odendahl Bros.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 4, A. D. 1902.

A Joint resolution proposing to amend section one of Article fifteen, of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, relative to the manner of submitting and adopting amendments to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be it Resolved and Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That section one of Article fifteen of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Either branch of the legislature may propose amendments to this Constitution, and if the same be agreed to by three-fifths of the members elected to each house, such proposed amendments shall be entered on the Journals, with the yeas and nays, and published at least once each week in at least one newspaper in each county where a newspaper is published, for thirty days immediately preceding the next election of senators and representatives, at which election the same shall be submitted to the electors for approval or rejection, and if a majority of the electors voting at such election on such proposed amendment, shall vote to adopt such amendment the same shall become a part of this Constitution. When more than one amendment is submitted at the same election, they shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each amendment separately.

All ballots used at such election on such amendment or amendments shall have written or printed thereon the following: For proposed amendment to the Constitution relating to (here insert the subject of the amendment) and against proposed amendment to the Constitution relating to (here insert the subject of the amendment) and the vote of each elector voting on such amendment or amendments shall be designated by the elector by making a cross with a pen or pencil in a circle or square to be placed at the right of the lines the words "For or Against" the proposed amendments, as he shall desire to vote thereon, or by indicating his preference on a voting machine when such machine is in use.

I, Geo. W. March, Secretary of State of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the Twenty-seventh session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday the 4th day of November, A. D. 1902.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the State of Nebraska, Done at Lincoln this 23rd day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Two, of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Twenty-Seventh, and of this state the Thirty-sixth.

GEO. W. MARCH, Secretary of State.

DYSENTERY CURED WITHOUT THE AID OF A DOCTOR.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Odendahl Bros.

HIS SIGHT THREATENED.

"While picnicking last month my 11 year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Relieves piles. Beware of counterfeits.—Odendahl Bros.

NOT OVER-WISE.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl seized at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as safe guards against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This Remedy is every where recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by Odendahl Bros.
