To witness "Si Perkins" at any price is a decided treat, and when this laugh-provoking comedy drama can be seen at popular prices, with the original cast, the opportunity should not be missed. A novel street parade will take place in the afternoon. Show in the evening, Wednesday, October 29th.

The later information which was received here regarding the death of Mrs. D. L. Garrison, which we mentioned last week, was indeed a shock to everyone. It seems that she was in a very feeble state of health and mind, and while the nurse was preparing some medicine, or otherwise attending to her duties as a nurse, at the hospital in which Mrs. Garrison was being treated, the latter, without being noticed, either fell or jumped from a window three stories high.

Quite a delegation of Odd Fellows was down from Arcadia last Saturday night attending a meeting of the craft, at which time some half dozen new members were initiated. The Arcadia team took the gavel and did the work of the evening, which was done in a very efficient manner. Those present from our sister town were: Ed. Fuller, G. W. Thompson, Walter Roberts, Claude Parrott, Frank Thompson, A. J. Fradenburg, Alfred Hastings, Henning Clausen, Al. Duryea, P. D. Duryea, Dave Duryea, Abe Duryea, Jas. Cooper, D. M. Goddard and Albert Stone.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson when getting his usual Saturday evening bath stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by Odendahl Bros.

Dr. Leon Blackburn, with his Electric Appliance company, arrived in the city last Monday, and in the evening gave a very pleasing entertainment to a crowded house. The beautiful illustrated songs by Prof. Al. Harris and the wonderfully melodious productions by Miss Marie Delano were the taking features of the entertainment. The comedian, Leo Blondin, is check full of comical expressions and keeps the audience in an uproar of laughter throughout the evening. Dr. Blackburn gives an interesting lecture of about twenty minutes in which he very intelligently explains to the audience the virtues of his electric appliances, of which he carries a full line. They will be here all this week at the opera house.

We have received a new $15.00 set of press rollers and hereafter will be able to give our readers a more presentable paper. For the last month we have not been getting a very good print owing to the defective inking rollers, but now we hope to be able to make a nice, clear print.

There will be a Halloween social given at Society hall, in this city, on Friday evening, October 31st. This social will be conducted under the auspices of the ladies of the Baptist church, and is for the purpose of raising more money to pay off the church debt. Let all who can, attend.

Lewis Wolfe and Herman Lade, of Hazard township, were pleasant callers yesterday while transacting business at the county seat. They are among the many who subscribed for this paper this week. The boys have just finished threshing their small grain, and will soon commence to husk their corn.

Messrs. Johnson and Lorendz, of Aurora, have rented the building just west of the post office, and will, in a short time, open a store with a full line of clothing and gents' furnishing goods. They will also run a first class tailor shop in connection with it. They are experienced clothiers and tailors and will open business as soon as they get possession of the building. A good tailor shop is an enterprise that has long been needed here and the NORTHWESTERN takes pleasure in welcoming them to the business circle of our city. We bespeak for them success.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS, Of Galveston, Texas. 'Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities.' By 'tired women' Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Theodor's Black-Draught should be used. For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Headquarters FOR BUGGIES IS CONCEEDED TO BE AT OUR STORE. The number of sales made during the first week that our stock has been on our floors is evidence to us that the goods and the prices we have on them is appreciated by the public who make a practice of investigating qualities and prices on this class of goods. Our stock is complete and we still have plenty of goods to sell and at the same prices. Come in and look them over. Our stock of heating stoves is now on the floor and of which we will say more later on. RESPECTFULLY YOURS, E. S. HAYHURST.
