THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Latest Quotations from South Omaha and Kansas City. SOUTH OMAHA.

CATTLE—There were only a few bunches of corned steers on sale and packers took hold more freely than they have of late, and the market could safely be quoted steady to strong. There was nothing in the yards that showed much quality, so that a test of the market on that class of corneds was not made. The cow trade was also active and strong. Packers continued to sell to good advantage, and sales were made all the way from strong to a dime higher. Grass cows of good quality were also in good demand at strong to a dime higher prices. Bulls, veal calves and stags sold freely at fully steady prices. The extremely low prices at which stockers and feeders were offered on Wednesday enabled speculators to clean up the big bulk of the stock. As a result there was quite a demand for fresh supplies, and as receipts were limited the market ruled active and a little stronger for anything at all desirable. Common cattle did not show any improvement. There were very few western beef steers on sale, but the market could safely be quoted fully steady. Range cows were in active demand and the market was strong to a dime higher. Range stockers and feeders also sold freely at stronger prices where the quality was satisfactory. HOGS—There was rather a light run of hogs and the market improved a little. Trading started out on a basis of about 15c advance and sales were made all the way from strong to a nickel higher. The bulk of the sales went from $6.00 to $6.05. Trading was fairly active and as offerings were moderate it was not long before the bulk was disposed of. The late arrivals sold fully as well as the earlier sales, but there was not quotable change from start to finish. The improvement carries the average above the $6.00 mark once more. SHEEP—Quotations for grassers: Good to choice yearlings, $3.50-$3.75; fair to good $3.25-$3.50; good to choice wethers, $3.25-$3.50; fair to good wethers, $3.00-$3.25; choice ewes, $3.00-$3.25; fair to good ewes, $2.50-$2.75; good to choice lambs, $4.50-$4.75; fair to good lambs, $4.00-$4.50; feeder wethers, $2.50-$2.75; feeder yearlings, $2.00-$2.25; feeder lambs, $3.00-$4.00; cull lambs, $1.50-$2.00; feeder ewes, $2.50-$3.00. Good feed stock sells about 25c higher than choice grassers.

CLEAN UP OLD TAXES.

Bill to Be Introduced to Provide for Collection. LINCOLN, Neb.—Investigations are now being systematically pursued toward securing the enactment of a measure that will enable the state and counties to wipe out all taxes that have been delinquent for a specified term of years, and thus enable the state to meet at least in part its outstanding indebtedness. It is stated at the office of the state auditor that there are probably $4,000,000 due the state, much of which has been standing on the books for years and some of which will probably never be paid unless some measures more potent for collection of the state's revenues is enacted than has ever yet been provided. At the same time the state has an outstanding indebtedness of about $1,250,000, which seems in no fair way to be paid unless a method is invented by which the state may realize upon the old taxes due it. Estimates that have been prepared show that there is now due the state and its various counties in delinquent taxes something like $8,000,000. Taxes have in many instances been allowed to accumulate until it is often impossible to find any one willing to take the land and agree to pay the taxes, thus rendering such properties of no service to the state in raising its necessary annual revenues.

ECENTRIC NEBRASKAN DIES.

Pioneer of Jefferson County Goes to His Rest.

FAIRBURY, Neb.—Ed Hawkes, perhaps one of the most noted characters in the history of Jefferson county, died at his home in Endicot the other day. He was born in England and at an early age he came to the United States, homesteading land in the vicinity of his late residence at a time when the pestiferous red man was very much in evidence, and tradition credits him with many hairbreadth escapes at various times when his prowess was matched with savage foes. He was what might have been called a woman hater, and although he prospered in this world's goods he remained a bachelor to his death. He was a connoisseur in wines, and among his valued possessions was a large flask of strawberry wine which he had made many years ago, and which he willed to the "boys" with which to celebrate the occasion when his mortal remains should be disposed of. He had been a helpless invalid for more than six years past prior to his death, and during his last hours he wrote a letter directing that none but Lieutenant Governor C. F. Steele, or some one under his direction, should touch his body, and ordered that there be no services of any nature over his remains and that they be buried in a quiet and unostentatious manner. It was not known that he had any relatives in this country, and it is supposed his wealth, which had grown to a considerable proportion, will go to a lady who kept house for him and cared for him during his last illness.

LONDON—The annual banquet of the Cobden club, which was held Friday evening, resolved itself into a great demonstration of the liberal leaders.
