

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP. RELEASED BY PE-R-U-NA.

Congressman Geo. H. White's Case.
A Noted Sculptress Cured.

The world of medicine recognizes Grip as epidemic catarrh.-- Medical Talk.

A GRIPPE is epidemic catarrh. It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the classes are alike subject to la grippe. None are exempt—all are liable. Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, has been shortened by the busy Ameriwrites the following letter from 3417 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill.: "I suffered this winter with a severe attack of la grippe. After using three bottles of Peruna I found the grip had disappeared."—Mrs. T. Schmitt.

Mrs. Celeste Covell writes from 219 N. avenue, Aurora, Ill.: "Only those who have suffered with the grippe and been cured can appreciate how grateful I feel that such a splendid medicine as Peruna has been placed at the door of every suffering person."—Mrs. C. Covell.

Noted Sculptress Cured of Grip. Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts, of London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world. She says:

"I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh and la grippe. I have suffered for months, and after the use of one bottle of Peruna I am entirely well."—Mrs. M. C. Cooper.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barber's Union, writes from 15 Western avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.: "Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over."

"One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. Now my head is clear, my nerves are steady, I enjoy food and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."—D. L. Wallace.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of the Salt Lake City Barracks, of the Salvation Army, writes from Ogden, Utah:

"Two months ago I was suffering with so severe a cold that I could hardly sleep. "Our captain advised me to try Peruna and procured a bottle for me, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."—Clarice Hunt.

Congressman White's Letter. Tarboro, N. C. *Gentlemen—*I am more than satisfied with Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."—George H. White, Member of Congress.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, Treasurer Independent Order of Good Templars, of Everett, Wash., writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe I continued in a feeble condition even after the doctors called me cured. My blood seemed poisoned. Peruna cured me."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

can read "grip." Without intending to do so a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some hideous giant with awful GRIP had clutched us in its fatal clasp. Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of a terrible monster.

Constipation Cured.

Those who have used salts, castor oil, and the many home and manufactured purgatives, know that in such treatment there is no possibility of a cure from constipation. These remedies are at most physics and do absolutely no good. In fact they frequently provoke piles, fistula, female disorders and many cases of appendicitis are traceable to their use. Soon the ordinary doses of these physics fail to have any effect upon the bowels.

There never was a case of temporary or obstinate constipation that would not cure. First, Mull's Grape Tonic is unlike any other treatment for constipation. It is the greatest and most positive laxative known. But that isn't what cures. It is the tonic properties of the grape and other fruits that strengthen the worn-out muscles of the intestinal tract. Mull's Grape Tonic builds flesh, makes strength and creates rich, red blood. Mull's Grape Tonic is the finest thing ever known for constipation. It is guaranteed to cure you. Large sample bottle sent free to any address on receipt of 10 cents for postage by Lightning Medicine Co., Rock Island, Ill. Send your druggist's name. All druggists sell Mull's Grape Tonic at 50 cents a bottle.

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.

I am sure PISO'S Cure for Consumption saved my life three years ago.—Mrs. THOS. ROBBINS, Maple Street, Norwich, N. Y., Feb. 17, 1900.

Lieutenant General W. G. Dunham Massy, colonel of the 5th Royal Irish Lancers, who presided at the welcome-home dinner to the regiment in London, recently, had a sobriquet ones that can hardly be forgotten yet. For years after 1855 he was known as "Redan Massy," by reason that on a memorable 8th of September this "officer boy," as our friend Mulvaney would have called him, had led an assault of his own upon the Russian outworks at Sebastopol. He was 17, perhaps, then, and this first commission was not a year old.

He was so badly hurt—a ball had smashed his left thigh—that the Russians left him for dead, and when his own people much later on recovered him, he was only just alive. But he lived through a six months' confinement to "a camp stretcher," and the primitive surgery of those days, to command first the Royal Irish Lancers, then, in Roberts' Afghan campaign, a cavalry brigade at Charasia and Sherpur; and, by and by, the garrison of Ceylon. And he is just a C. B. like another, though he has the Legion, and his old University of Dublin gave him his LL. D.

He is a soldier's son, and a soldier's son-in-law; an Irishman born, with a family place in Tipperary, where he is to be found a good deal oftener than in Pall Mall, and where the "Redan Massy" of the far-off days he brings so near finds his chief delight in the peaceful business of the architect and the horticulturist.

VALUE OF COURTESY

STORY PROVES OLD SAYING THAT POLITENESS PAYS.

Traveling Man Tells of Experience Which Points a Moral for Business Man—Superciliousness Lost Shaky Firm a Profitable Order.

They were discussing the various types of people whom they encountered in their travels, and the consensus of opinion expressed by six drummers was that "white" treatment—that is, politeness—was never lost when exerted on a traveling man.

The stout man, who represented a fur house, had the floor.

"This talk," he said, "reminds me of a little incident that occurred last season. Hopkins was taken suddenly ill, and the firm sent word to me to cover a part of his route until he got in shape again. Naturally, I was strange to the country and to the people, but I got along fairly well until I reached Seattle. There I found a letter of introduction from the firm. There were a lot of furs there which the firm had been informed could be had for a bargain. It seems two rival firms had gotten hold of the skins, and I was to use my judgment as to which firm I should trade with.

"It was a novel experience for me. I had been accustomed to selling furs, not buying them, and naturally I felt my importance. It was a matter of about $25,000, too, and I mentally pictured the attack of heart disease I would give the members of one or the other firm when I placed my order. I rehearsed my entrance into the store, pictured the offhand way in which I would examine the furs and criticize them. I even had the scene down to such a fine point that I had the words all chosen to utter between puffs of a cigar—nothing like a cigar, you know, to show nonchalance!

"Well, I started out early next day. I had the cards of the rival firms in my pocket, and as I looked them over idly wondered which I would go to first. One was, say Brown & Jones, and the other was Smith & Waters.

"Brown & Jones was the nearer to my hotel, so I walked over there, inflating my chest as I entered the place. It was a dark, cavernous sort of store, and I almost groped my way to the rear, between piles of furs. There seated in an easy chair, with his feet cocked upon a desk, sat a young man. He wore an incipient mustache and a look of insufferable arrogance.

"Well, what do you want?" he asked.

"He placed an exasperating accent upon the 'you.' I felt my chest decrease in circumference, and at the same time my innate anger arose. Here I came to do this house a great business service and—

"However, I smothered my anger, produced the firm's card and asked, meekly as I could, 'Is this Brown & Jones?'

"Yes," he snarled rather than replied, 'I'm Mr. Jones. What do you want?'

"For the second time the query was insultingly put. I longed to tell him what I wanted, but controlled my feelings.

"I don't think I want anything from you," I said simply, and walked out of the store.

"At Smith & Waters' I received better treatment. I placed the order with them and went back to my hotel with an invitation to dine with one of the firm that night.

"Before my trip ended I learned that Brown & Jones had failed for a considerable sum. Perhaps my order would have tided them over through the crisis. At any rate, I am vindictive enough to be glad of their failure. That little word 'you' was the greatest insult I ever received."—New York Mail and Express.

Automobile Sea Scouts.

As military motor bicycles have already proved themselves to be of value in scouting it is probable that in nearly every civilized country they will be largely used in future land warfare.

Why, if the fast land scout prove so useful, should not the navy adopt the same methods? A boat, sixty feet long, with two twenty-five horse power engines, built very light, to carry, say, four persons, and to be capable of considerable speed, would be a most useful addition to a battleship or a fleet. The ordinary torpedo boat is too long and draws too much water for scouting near shore or in shallow water, but a launch might be made to draw less than three feet of water and yet have a speed of upward of thirty knots. There would be no funnels or smoke to attract the notice of the enemy, and with underwear exhaust the boat might be made almost silent. If built low in the water or with the power of semi-submersion, it would be difficult for the enemy to observe, and still more difficult to hit. Probably such a craft would be more useful than anything yet invented in the way of a scout for sea purposes.—London Star.

Hard Work Always Wins. "I have faith in volition. I believe that, by means of a strong will, a person, not physically or morally incapacitated for a particular pursuit, will eventually succeed in the vocation, to obtaining excellence in which he or she has set himself or herself with all his or her soul and strength. I do not believe in failures—accidents, of course, always excepted—in the case of those who work hard, indefatigably and hopefully."—G. A. Sala.

Relieve heart palpitation, sleeplessness, headache, nervousness.

ROCKDALE, TEX., Dec. 30, 1902.—"When I received the trial package of Doan's Kidney Pills I could not get out of bed without help. I had severe pains in the small of my back. The Pills helped me at once, and now after three weeks the pain in my back is all gone and I am no longer annoyed with having to get up often during the night as formerly. I cannot speak too highly for what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for me. I am now 57 years old, have tried a great many medicines, but nothing did the work until I used Doan's Kidney Pills."—JAMES R. ARTHUR.

CLEVELAND, KY., Dec. 28, 1902.—"I was laid up in bed with my back and kidneys. I could not get myself straight when I tried to stand, would have to bend in a half stooping position. I got a trial box of Doan's Kidney Pills and took all of them. At the end of two days they got me out of bed and I was able to go about. I take a delight in praising these Pills."—ANE GUNN, JR.
