John Roberts, son-in-law of Charles Reidel, writes that he will locate in Idaho and Mrs. Roberts who is here on a visit will join him in about two weeks. Common politeness, leaving the claims of religion out of the question, should be sufficient to deter a woman or man from ever using an oath of any description.—Ex. For Sale.—A car load of western horses. Some broke, can be seen at my farm one mile west of Divide. They are good horses and will be sold at a bargain.—Schoening & Vass. Carl de la Motte and his neighbor Mr. Swanson of Hazard township were pleasant callers at this office last Tuesday while in the city on business. Both renewed their subscription to this paper. T. L. Pilger has sold the residence which he had for rent in the eastern part of town to a gentleman by the name of W. J. McLaughlin of Aurora, Nebraska who moved his family therein last week. A. T. Conger and Charley True were called to Litchfield by telephone last Friday where they furnished music for the club dance. They have been engaged to play for the series of club dances which will take place every two weeks over the west. The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Mouon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. Sold by Odendahl Bros. The west approach to the Loup bridge west of town went out last Friday and people from the west and northwest part of the county are compelled to go around by the old south side bridge to get to the county seat. A gang of carpenters have been at work under the supervision of bridge contractor, Gibson, putting in the new span that was to have been built last fall, and for which piling had already been driven. They hope to get it in shape to cross by the first of the week. A warrant was issued Monday out of Judge Angler's court for the arrest of John Goe of Ashton, who was charged on complaint of the saloon keeper, Golski, with assault and battery. The warrant was turned over to F. E. Brewer, deputy sheriff for service. Brewer went to Ashton Tuesday after his man, but arrived there only to find that he had already come to the county seat and entered a plea of guilty. The plea however was not accepted until sufficient evidence had been introduced by the state to enable the court to fix a just fine. Bid Taylor, son of Conductor Taylor, and Charley Gibson, son of G. H. Gibson, arrived home last Monday noon on the U. P. train from San Francisco where they have been for 22 months past as apprentices on a navy training vessel. They are home on a fifteen days furlough and are looking hearty. Mrs. G. H. Gibson and her son Floyd went down to St. Paul on the morning train to meet them. The boys entered the Navy service in May 1901 and for the first year they were in training on the Pensacola when they were sent out on the U. S. Adams cruising vessel. Their composition Charley Cramer, who went from here with them was not allowed a furlough. It seems that he deserted and is now being punished for his misconduct.

Chase's drug store is sick. Nut coal, the best for cook stoves, for sale by E. G. Taylor at B & M elevator. The Masquerade ball given at Pilger's opera house last Tuesday night was quite well attended. If you want a good horse and have not got the money go and see Troy Hale, at the Round Front barn. It has been dark and cloudy all week, with heavy mist and fog and a heavy rain Tuesday night and Wednesday after. Johnson Lorentz and Co. have received a very large stock of spring clothing. See their display ad. in another column. Rocky Mountain Tea taken now will keep the whole family well. If it fails, bring it back and get your cash. 35 cts.—Odendahl Bros. Ernie Milburn and his sister-in-law, Miss Mona Gilchrist were down from Arcadia last Tuesday evening to attend the masquerade ball. Those wishing to contract with Conger Bros for ice for the season should do so at once. No contracts will be made after the first of April. We understand that T. L. Pilger is negotiating a sale of the opera building to a gentleman who contemplates putting in a full stock of furniture and undertaking goods. Tom McFadden, while in town last Tuesday evening had his horse unhitched from a post. A search for the animal resulted in his finding him at the Wilson livery barn but the saddle is gone. Swanson & Dahl have a complete line of groceries and you should call and see them. That Yale coffee they handle is immense. The editor has tried it and thinks it good for the money. 15, 20 and 25 cents. Chas Larson, of Webster township crossed Cobb Creek at Round Grove last Wednesday but had quite a time of it. The water was up to the wagon bed and he broke a single tree but managed to get through without further damage. Claud Parrot, the gentleman who occupies the position of book keeper of the Fries lumber yard of Arcadia dropped in to visit while doing business in the city last Tuesday. Mr. Parrot is a jolly fellow and we were glad to meet him again. While at Omaha last week James Depew bought a $2000 turning lathe and is better than ever prepared to meet the wants of his many customers. Now should we break the shafting to our big cylinder printing press we would not have to make a trip to Boelus. His lathe is complete in every way and has all the necessary thread cutting attachments. We called on Fritz Cornumpp last Sunday and found him sitting up for the first time since he got his leg broken some nine weeks ago. His has been a very serious case and he has suffered a great deal. His leg is still in a plaster paris and at present is far from well, although the terrible pain which he has suffered is mostly gone. It will be a long time yet before he is able to get around to say nothing of being able to work. The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case which has resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by Odendahl Bros. P. O. Reed and O. S. Mason are the inventors of a patent gasoline cook stove which bids fair to be a grand success. They have obtained a patent on the invention and are now engaged in manufacturing them for the market. The top of the stove is made like a hollow pan about two inches in depth and of heavy sheet iron lined with asbestos paper, and well calculated to hold the heat and evenly distribute it along the length of the stove or pan, which top is located about two inches above the burner. At one end is a hole cut directly over the burner, towards the other end is located another burner with holds out on either side of it, one intended for an oven and another for other cooking utensils. It has been thoroughly tested and proven a success in every respect. When you need a gasoline stove it will pay you to inspect this before buying. We believe the patent to be a great improvement. The people of school district No. 1, of which Loup City is a part have good reason to feel proud of the achievements attained by the pupils in all grades. The manner in which the literary is conducted and carried out by the pupils in the high school room is just cause for pride and praise and nothing but words of commendation are spoken in connection with these exercises. Last Friday evening was a treat to everyone who attended. The small sum of five cents was charged to defray expenses of fuel and lights at the Baptist church, it being necessary to go there on account of stage, as the recitations and dialogues were of such a character as to make it necessary. Those who took part in the program were Meroe Outhouse, Grace Taylor, Francis Sweetland, Emma Outhouse, Banks Hale, Marvin Lee, Clarence Sweetland, Clarence Benschoter, Edna Lee, Edith Anger, Irene Gibson, Ella Foster, Francis Sweetland, Emma Rowe, Mrs. Hulbert, Edith Henry and Mrs. A. B. Outhouse and Mrs. E. M. Henry. The next entertainment will be looked forward to with pleasure, an no doubt attended with a crowded house.

Highest prices for produce. Lowest prices for groceries. William Strankmann, came to town last Wednesday to deliver a four year old colt, to a horse buyer. He sold the animal for $110.00. Pretty good for a colt. W. H. Morris returned from a three weeks stay to West Point where he has been assisting in J Phil Jaeger's store. He reports Mr. Jaeger busy and doing a nice business. T. M. The former renewed his subscription and the latter is now a new subscriber. Mr. Lewandowski will move in a few days to a farm in Logan township where he has purchased some land. The best pill 'neath the stars and stripes; it cleanses the system and never grips. Little Early Risers of worthy repute. Ask for DeWitt's and take no substitute. A small pill, easy to buy, easy to take and easy to act, but never failing in results. DeWitt's Little Early Risers arouse the secretions and act as tonic to the liver, curing permanently.—Odendahl Bros. If a person has made up his mind to be religious they ought at least make an extra effort to be somewhat respectable. But those who make it a habit to swear do not seem to care what others think of them. They appear to be anxious to let others know that they are wicked and glory in being so.—Weekly (N. Y.) Witness. Austin Hendrickson has purchased the Herman Jung residence property in the east part of town and moved his family therein at once. Mr. Hendrickson is now in the civil service employ, but as yet has no permanent position. He is called on quite frequently however to make runs as mail agent at different places. Thus far he has given good satisfaction and it will doubtless be but a short time when he will get steady employment. Master Dwight Chamberlain of Clear Creek was among our callers last Saturday. He is a bright lad of about 11 years and seemed to take quite an interest in gaining some knowledge in the printing business. We are glad to have the boys and girls, call. They can give us lots of news, besides we would like to get acquainted with every little boy and girl in the county. When they come to town send or bring them to this office and we will give them some idea of how a newspaper is printed. Henry Plambeck, the 16 year old son of the widow Plambeck who has been so dangerously sick for several weeks past was compelled to undergo a painful operation for bladder trouble last Saturday. Dr. Main assisted the St. Paul physician in the operation. At last accounts he was resting easy but the worst is feared. We are informed that the members of the German Church of this city are going to see to it that Mrs. Plambeck has her crops put in in proper season which will be a great help for her in her great affliction. Mr and Mrs. S. C. Cording just returned last Monday from a six months visit to H-land. While he greatly enjoyed his visit he says that he is glad to get back and will be content to live over afterwards in Nebraska. In their trip to the old country they crossed the great ocean in six days, but on their return they did not sail so smoothly. They were caught in a severe storm which delayed them six days, or in all made their return trip of twelve days duration. A young man, whose name we did not learn came over with them and will make his home here. He desires to learn the American ways of farming.

LIBRARY FOR DISTRICT NO. 10. Friday evening the people of School district No. 10 held a basket social at the school house. The fact that the house was full and every seat taken shows the interest the people of the district take in their school. The part of the program furnished by the school children was interesting and well rendered. The program by the older people was as follows: Welcome Song—Mrs. A. Jung and Misses Jung. Recitation.—Miss Emma Jung. Dialogue.—Mrs. Geo. Truelsen, Mrs. Wm. Jung, Miss Anna Jung and Mr. Henry Thode. At the close of the program C. J. Tracy spoke of the influence and importance of having good books for children to read. He then stated the terms of the basket sale. The sale was well conducted with Mr. Jacob Albers as auctioneer and Mr. E. E. Tracy as Clerk. As an auctioneer Mr. Albers certainly understands his business. The beauty tempting odors, and weight of the baskets were set forth in such glowing terms that the men bid freely and soon every basket was sold at a fair price. Mr. Deuzenberry had two baskets struck out to him, but at supper time he vanished in the air and left every one to inquire, "who is Deuzenberry?" The ladies displayed great taste in the decoration of the baskets. The contents were of the best and were heartily enjoyed by all present. The proceeds of the sale amounted to $10 15. The library has been ordered and district No. 10 is one of the first in Sherman county to purchase a school library. What district will be the next to give their children the advantages of a good school library? The directors of the district have taken an interest in this work and have manifested their interest by carrying the work right along. The members of the school board are Geo. Truelsen, Moderator; E. E. Tracy, Director; and Wm. Jung, Treasurer. Miss Edna D. Bullock, of Lincoln, Nebraska and secretary of Nebraska Public Library Commission will send lists of books suitable for small libraries and other information on libraries to anyone interested in such work, on application. "Books are education. The more people read, the more they know. The more good literature there is in their libraries, the more well stocked brains there will eventually be, and good brains never will and never can be a drug on the market." Epelous says: "If the crowns from all the kingdoms of the Empire were laid down at my feet in exchange for my books and my love of reading, I would spurn them all." LOUP CITY HIGH SCHOOL NOTES. (EDITED BY ELLA FOSTER.) Alice McLaughlin is a new member of the ninth grade. The grammar room is having examination this week. Come hear the debate this afternoon, and the literary this evening. Miss Minnie Gouley will close her seven months term of school next Friday in school district No. 25 on Saturday evening she will give an entertainment to which all patrons of the school are invited and should attend. Fred Hauk of Custer county and Miss Annie Crouse of Sherman county were united in marriage on Tuesday of last week, Rev. Sheppard of Litchfield officiating. It was arranged that the ceremony should take place at the residence of the bride's parents, but as the license was issued in Custer County and the Crouse residence was in Sherman it became necessary to somewhat change the program in order to carry out the strict letter of the law, and accordingly the party left the house and went about a half mile, and over the county line, where, on the summit of a high hill the marriage vows were taken. They will go to Custer county to make their future home. RECORDER. Do you want a piano, organ or sewing machine. If so call and see T. M. Reed. A Remarkable Case. One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength.—Odendahl Bros. The Stomach is the Man. A weak stomach weakens a man, because it can not transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength can not be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach can not digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cleanses, purifies, sweetens and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.—Odendahl Bros.

Every farmer knows, of course, that one of the worst mistakes he can make is to plant poor seed, but every farmer does not know the difference between the very best and that which is not so good. Poor seed is a bad investment, because if it makes a difference of only a few bushels to the acre it is a loss of many dollars. Some of the most interesting experiments of recent years has been the work of breeding better seed and improving it, just the same as livestock has been improved by intelligent breeding. The Twentieth Century Farmer is publishing a most interesting series of articles by Thomas L. Lyon of the Nebraska Agricultural Experiment station on breeding wheat and corn. These and other articles along the same lines should be carefully studied by every farmer who uses his brains to make his farming pay. You can get a free sample copy by sending your name to The Twentieth Century Farmer, 2272 Farnum St., Omaha, Neb., but it would be worth your while to send in $1 for a whole year's subscription, or 25 cents for a three-months' trial subscription.

READ IT THROUGH. To would spoil this story to tell it in the headlines. To use an eighteenth century phrase, this is an "over true tale". Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon, of Meigs Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have pneumonia, but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy, and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I can not recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced as I was." For sale by Odendahl Bros.
