LOCAL NEWS.

—Stanley Goe and wife were at Ashton Monday.

—A number of persons attending church services here Tuesday night were detained over night owing to heavy rains.

—Thursday being a holiday with church service at 11 a. m. Ashton was crowded with visitors in holiday attire.

—A bouncing baby boy came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reitz Sunday of last week.

—Rev. Longstaff, the Presbyterian minister of Ashton was installed Tuesday night.

—Quite a number of younger Ashtonites took in, or were taken in, by the circus at Loup City Thursday of last week.

—E. G. Taylor and family, A. N. Conklin and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conklin were attending a wedding anniversary at Loup City Thursday last.

—We are informed that H. Reigel and son will commence the erection of a very neat residence for W. H. Dunker and family as soon as Sustak's house is ready for the plasterers.

—The town boys gave a tin can concert on Ashton streets last Friday evening. But as to which of the many events of the past week it was intended for we do not know. It was good any how.

—A couple of hundred acres of pop corn is being planted in the vicinity of Ashton this year and every other persons seems to be planting trees, blue grass, clover and alfalfa.

—Art Bennett, of Loup City was a pleasant visitor at Ashton last Sunday, having driven down with Ed. Arthard, who was at Loup City Saturday night.

Smith's old land mark, his sod house was torn down last week to make more room for Ashton's park. The new club house is being bricked up and we hope every one concerned is serene and happy.

—Tom Jamrog sold 3 separators Friday of last week in space of half an hour and Tom says: "it was't a good day for separators either." But he says, "I have the goods. I don't keep them, I sell them."

Mrs. J. C. Schaupp and household goods arrived here Tuesday of last week and now occupy the rear rooms of Mr. Schaupp's store building, temporarily, until their residence property is vacated by its present tenants.

—The Smedra-Krauss wedding took place at the residence of the brides parents, near Farwell, Tuesday. Many Ashtonites were present to engage in the general wedding festivities.

—Dave L. Clark, formerly of Comstock Nebraska has rented the Jezewski blacksmith shop and is now tuning the anvil, having meet with good success from the start. Mr. Clark is a thorough blacksmith in all branches of the trade.

—A bouncing boy came to make its home with Mr. and Mrs. Cal Shaupp, Friday afternoon. Cal has since the event, a gigantic smile on his face, all wool and a yard wide, and the boys have all been treated to the usual round of cigars. All the folks are doing nicely.

—Twins.—A boy and a girl came to enlighten the home of Chris Shudt of Ashton on last Monday. Chris seemed excited at first, but seems to be still able to hold his job. The mother and twins are well and doing nicely and Chris—well if Roseveldt should come this way he would think his race suicide arguments are being knocked higher than a kite.

NOTES FROM ONLOOKER.

TO THE ASHTON NEWS:

The Secretary of the Ashton Grain and Live Stock Association has, ere this, notified the share holders of said association of the date of the next called meeting. It is very important that every farmer and all interested in the building of an elevator at Ashton be present. The date of the meeting is Wednesday, May 27th, at 2 o'clock sharp. And now, fellow co-workers in this enterprise, do you want an elevator? Do you want a place that you can call your own, in which to store and ship your grain? Do you wish to be for once your own free moral and business agent in the disposition of your own property? If so, don't lag back; come to the meeting and put your shoulder to the wheel with a determination that this elevator must be built in time to handle the coming harvested crop. There is but one way to accomplish this, and that is through the united strength of all interested. Farmers are building elevators and shovel houses on all sides of us. Why not Ashton? Come, get into the band wagon and go with us.

Memorial Thoughts.

Another twelve months has passed and May is with us again, with Memorial day on the 30th, and our gratitude goes out to Gen. John A. Logan, now at rest, sleeping with his comrades on fames eternal camping ground, the bivouac of the dead, who gave us this beautiful service of planting flowers on the grave of our departed comrades and friends. It is a beautiful tribute of love and respect to the memory of those who ever with us in that cruel war, when father against son, brother against brother fought, front to front, 43 years ago, then boys, only boys, marched at our country's call; and they call us boys yet. At Sumpter, Shiloh, Chickamauga, Antietam, Gettisburg, and all the rest down to the grand close at Appomattox, they were with us. Yes, a noble thought to place flowers on our heroes' graves. Aye, tis but a few more years and flowers will have been placed on the grave of the last of the old guard. One by one the old vets are being mustered out. The ranks of the G. A. R. are growing thin. We close up guide right, our line of march, head of column forward, is irregular, weak and wobbly. Never again will we delight in the "tumble into line on the right by file." Comrades, no more guard mounts, knapsacks, drills or parades for us. We are on the retired list, only waiting, waiting for that old familiar trumpet call, "lights out," "good night."

One word more as to the exercises of the day and I close this letter:

I have never thought Memorial day was intended for a day of sports, carousals and boistrous exhibitions. Neither do I think it was intended to be one of sorrow, sobs and gloom. The old soldier, from ill health and other causes has waded through about all the gloom that he is privileged to enjoy from his fighting days down to the present time, and he does not relish a double dose on the 30th day of May each year. What he does want is to see the loving hands of the little ones and others so disposed, place flowers on the graves of departed comrades and loved ones, and shed a tear of sorrow in remembrance of the dead. This done you have paid your memorial tribute to your dead comrades. Then no more the beat of the muffled drum or dreary strains of the dead march. Cast away the funeral gloom that sad thoughts have occasioned and eat, drink and be merry and engage in any recreation that may be offered.

E. G. PAIGE.

—Sheriff Snyder was here Monday serving papers in the assault and battery case of the State vs. Jos. Porkoreki who is charged with having committed an assault upon Noviski who is the complaining witness in the case.

The Keystone of Good Health is pure food.

is all coffee—no glazing of eggs or glue to conceal defects and cheapen its quality. Fresh and uniform, rich in flavor, because always in sealed packages—never in bulk.

—We noticed Ed. Arthard trying his hand at the barber business Wednesday night of last week during Cal Shaupp's trip to Central City. Ed was doing the tonsorial act for one of the boys and is an artist in that line. He is par excellence. Nothing like being handy says Edward.

—Report reaches us that the team and wagon of Peter Hades were struck by the B. & M. train one night last week as he was crossing the track at his place, 5 miles east of town. The wagon was completely demolished and both horses killed. Whether they were struck by the regular passenger or the special circus train which followed it we do not know as at this writing we have very slim particulars as to the why and wherefore of the accident.

—The past week at Ashton has been a lively one all around. Everybody has rushed ogran planting which is about done in this vicinity. Thursday being a holiday there was an immense gathering at the church, quite a few Ashtonites attended the circus at Loup City, there was one case of disorder in town, the population was increased by four newcomers, three cream separators were put out in less than an hour by Jamrog and the youth celebrated all events with a tin can concert.

Carrie Stanley at Loup City.

Carrie Stanley, the celebrated actress and her company of comedians will be in Loup City at the opera house Wednesday, June 3rd, direct from New York theater. Eight people in cast; 3 ladies, 4 gentlemen and the great child actor Master Walter, presenting the famous play, the "Klondike Claim." They carry all their own scenery for the play. They introduce The Baby, the cutest little thing of them all, also the big acting dog, Nig, in one of the most thrilling climaxes ever presented. The play is in three acts and tells a heart story. Plenty of up to date specialties and songs between acts. Price of admission 25, 35, and 50 cents. Reserve seats for sale at Froelich's.

Too Much for Him.

"And do you mean to say," exclaimed Farmer Brown to a policeman in Lebanon, Pa., as he gazed at the trolley wire, "that that thing is used for travelin' purposes?" "Yes," "Human bein's go that a-way?" "Of course." "Good-bye." "Where are you going?" "Back home. I'm gettin' used to the steam cars, but I'm durned if I'm ready to be sent by telegraph."

The Ones That Suffered.

An aged Scotch minister, who was very boastful, says ex-Speaker Joseph L. Barbour of the Connecticut legislature, once said to his good friend, "Think of it! I preached two hours and twenty minutes last Sunday!" "Didn't it weary you very much?" inquired the other solicitously. "Oh, no," said the minister. "But you should have seen the congregation!"—New York Times.

DON'T BE FOOLED!

MRS. CECELIA STOWE, Orator, Entero Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a desolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Cecelia Stowe

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is added by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

WINE OF CARDUI

DID YOU DO IT? Take a day off and think what is doing?

Every assertion made by its manufacturers is being proven true by true testimonials of the thousands of users of this great germ destroyer all over this land. If it is doing good for them, it will do good for you. Give it a trial and be convinced.

Read What Others Say:

Coleridge, Neb., Dec. 13, 1902. I have been using Liquid Koal since June, a year ago and have not had a sick hog since. I am sure it is all right and I think if a man will use it as directed, he will never have sick hogs. I will not be without it. Yours, JOHN HINTZ.

Lansel, Neb., Dec. 13, 1902.

NATIONAL MEDICAL CO. Dear Sirs.—Will just say that your Liquid Koal is a good thing and I will not do without it. It is a good all around remedy. Every one ought to use it if he has only one or two hogs. It is a good germ destroyer.

Yours, STANLEY MASTIN.

Randolph, Neb., Dec. 12, 1902.

Your Liquid Koal is just the stuff for sick hogs. At least, I have found it so. I have been using it for about a year and it has not gone back on me yet. My hogs are all right and I am going to keep them so with Liquid Koal, and don't you forget it. E. E. HAST.
