Local News.

Jas. Couger made Omaha a visit this week.

Lee Adamson is putting a coat of paint on the Baptist Church.

S. W. Sours, photographer opposite St. Elmo Hotel.

The supervisors were in session Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Reed returned last Friday from a visit to Brook, Indiana.

The brick foundation to the new residence of Geo. Zimmerman is laid.

Rev. G. Kanzler went to his home in Lamar, Indiana where he will spend two weeks vacation.

Mrs. Ervin Conger and two daughter arrived from Lincoln last Wednesday evening and will visit friends and relatives here.

O. Benschoter has had the west addition to his house sided up and will give the whole building a coat of paint.

A. E. Chase is having his residence painted. He has also torn down his barn and is going to build it larger.

The little boy of E. H. Bowen got hold of a razor Monday and by accident quite seriously cut a gash in the baby's face. The wound was not so bad as it might have been.

The new grist mill is going up. The frame has been raised and the workmen are making good headway. It will no doubt be ready for the fall and winter trade.

A special meeting of the German Evangelical church will be held at their church in Loup City on Saturday, July 25, at 2 o'clock p. m. A good attendance is desired.

W. A. Arthur of Stafford, Kansas, arrived with his family last week and has purchased a quarter section of land on Wiggle Creek. Mr. Arthur will build a new house on the farm soon.

Did you see that fine lot of western horses just shipped in by A. Zink. If you want horses at reasonable prices you should not fail to look the herd over. Good size, good bone and good animals.

Last Sunday was the second anniversary of the dedication of the German Evangelical church of this city and a good turnout was the result of the occasion. Four members were confirmed and eight children christened. Rev. Kanzler preached a very interesting sermon.

Mrs. Starr and son, wife of attorney Robert P. Starr, of Aurora have been spending a few days in the city. They returned to Aurora today, but will locate here with her husband as soon as a suitable house can be had. Mrs. Starr seems well pleased with Loup City.

About 25 little folks responded to invitations sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gasteyer to meet at their home last Tuesday evening and join in the celebration of the 9th birthday anniversary of their daughter Winnie. The little folks were kindly received and enjoyed the occasion very much.

Rev. F. D. Kennedy the new Baptist minister from Pilgar Neb. filled the pulpit at the Baptist Church last Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Kennedy made us a pleasant call Wednesday and informed us that he will preach here for two months, after which, if circumstances will justify it, he will move his family here and take up his residence among us.

Ora Zink, the second son of A. Zink, a boy about nine years of age was shot in the side yesterday afternoon by a b. b. shot discharged from a toy pistol while out to the mill race fishing. There were some four or five boys there but none of them seemed to know just how it happened. He was brought to town in Benschoter's express wagon and Dr. Jones was quickly summoned to examine the wound. It was found that the shot had entered the right side and passed along between the ribs and skin, and was not so serious as at first thought.

Troy Hale returned from Idaho yesterday with a car load of western horses.

Nut coal, the best for cook stoves, for sale by E. G. Taylor at B & M elevator.

D. J. Flatt of Clinton Ill. sends a dollar and orders the NORTHWESTERN for a year.

Mrs. Wm. Criss went to Arcadia yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. Geo. Miller.

Lon Zink arrived from the west last Friday with three car loads of western horses and has them for sale at the U. P. stock yards.

T. H. Elsner and son Henry went to Omaha Tuesday where Henry will receive medical treatment, being affected with stomach trouble.

Louis Strankman brought a fine load of hogs to the Loup City market last Monday morning. They averaged exactly 300 pounds each. He received $4.80 per cwt.

S. F. Reynolds and C. C. Out-house started to St. Joe last Wednesday noon with six car loads of Cattle for Mr. Dinsdale. They expect to return Saturday.

We called on the new photographer, S. W. Sours, who recently opened up a gallery south of the St. Elmo hotel. He has a nice studio and is turning out some very good work.

Read the Ashton news page. There is every week, items of county news from the east part of the county, contained therein that would otherwise appear on these pages. Mr. Smith is giving us good service and we greatly appreciate his efforts.

The Sunday School picnic held at Brown's grove was quite largely attended and a splendid time was the result. All who attended felt well paid for having taken a few hours for sports and pleasure. The children very much enjoyed the outing.

Mr. Leroy of St. Paul, while here Wednesday and attending to some insurance business in the country, lost a large leather pocket book, between town and the Rettenmayer farm. It contained no money but had several valuable papers in it, and was fastened with a rubber band. Finder will please leave at St. Elmo hotel in this city.

A surprise party was given on Miss Zua Reed, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Reed, last Friday evening and a very large crowd of her young friends honored the occasion. There was some eighty invitations sent out by the parents and strange to say that among so many Miss Zua received not the slightest hint of what was to be. She had been enjoying a visit with friends in the country and on the evening above mentioned came home, only to find that a large number of her school mates had taken possession of the premises.

Mrs. A. Christner of Lost Springs Kansas, arrived here yesterday for a visit with relatives. She is cousin of O. and Geo. E. Benschoter and sister of Mrs. Nelson Dewoody of Coggan, Iowa who is also here. It has been nearly thirty years since we met her and a number of years since she has seen her sister. Mrs. Christner and Mrs. Dewoody were at Loup City some thirty years ago, when the place was only a town in name, its only place of business being a little log hut, stocked with a few groceries and other necessities. Their coming was a pleasant surprise to their relatives.

Robert P. Starr, attorney from Aurora, Nebraska, has located in Loup City and opened an office in the building with Senanor Wall. Mr. Starr is the gentleman who made the opening address at the opera house last decoration day. He will move his family here as soon as he can secure a suitable residence. We understand that as yet Mr. Wall and Mr. Starr have not formed a co-partnership, but will attend to each other's business in case of absence, and as the Senator is necessarily out of the city much of the time the mutual arrangements between them will no doubt be pleasing to clients.

PRERIDENT ROOSEVELT
SAYS

"The Yellowstone Park is something absolutely unique in this world, as far as I know. Nowhere else in any civilized country is there to be found such a tract of veritable wonderland, made accessible to all visitors, where at the same time not only the scenery of the wilderness, but the wild creatures of the park, are scrupulously preserved.

The popular route to Yellowstone National Park is via the UNION PACIFIC to Monida, Mont., thence, daily, splendid Concord Coaches take the visitor to all points in the Park.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and enflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves and causes the glands to secrete mucus instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I have suffered with Catarrh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J.
