The Republicans of Custer county held their county convention last week and placed a good county ticket in the field. They are confident of a sweeping victory again this fall. Two years ago the republicans of that county wiped the populist platter clean and this year they have re-nominated several of the officers for a second term. Custer county was among the first to pick up the populist craze and she was about the first to redeem herself. The convention instructed her delegates to the judicial convention, (19 in number) for Judge Sullivan.

If Coxe's army was only in Nebraska to help harvest the golden grain. But they are all at work in the factories and work shops and the farmers are working almost night and day raising a surplus of hogs, grain and cattle to feed them, and they are buying this surplus with the money they are earning. Change of administration did it.

There will be a ball game between Loup City and Ravenna next Friday which promises to be an interesting one and those who enjoy a good ball game will miss a treat by not coming to Loup City to witness it.

The new law regarding the selling of tobacco, cigarettes or cigarette papers to minors went into effect the first day of this month and those who have been in the habit of selling should be on the lookout from now on. The fine is $50 or thirty day in jail. It means those under 21 not those who look like men. The law also provides a penalty for furnishing these things in any manner. Leaving cigarette papers around where the boys can swipe them is punishable the same as the selling. The best way will be fore those who have these papers on hand is to burn them and then they will be out of the way.—Herborn Register.

The National Medicine Company of York, Nebraska and Sheldon, Iowa seems to be on a very solid financial basis as they are declaring quarterly dividends, although their business is but of few years standing. Several of the best business men of York are stock holders. One of their specialties is the Liquid Koal which is becoming a very popular remedy for many stock diseases, and is proving itself to be the farmers friend. It is used in water tanks to purify the water and is also a great blood purifier. Liquid Koal is on sale in this city at J. Solms hardware store. We presume that the success of the company is chiefly due to the merits of their manufactured good. At all events it will not cost much for the farmers to give it a thorough trial.

The morning sun was just commencing to gild the prairies with a shimmer of gold when a bunch of men, beards and chaff being mingled with their whiskers, come down the road riding large robust plow horses and mules. "Three of them were put off the freight near hear last night" said the leader of the agriculturists and nearer came the men on horseback, he kicked the flank of his steed and urged it onward. "They can't be far away. Get your lariats ready, men, so that we can gather 'em in as soon as they are flushed." Just then three weary Williams who had sought repose in a last year's straw stack which stood near the highway, awakened by the noise, raised their heads to look. "Duck fellows, duck," said "Limberger Sam" in horse whisper to the other hoboos. "If them farmers see us there is nothin' left but the harvest field for us." The warning came too late. The quick eye of the farmer who rode the muckle-dun mule had already spied the hoboos and with a shout of encouragement to his companions, he swung his lariat and dashed on. The tramps made a wild dash for liberty and for a few minutes the race was even. Then the horseman began to gain slowly on the fleeing men on foot. Nearer and nearer came the men on horseback and then the lariats hurled through the air and settled down over the heads of the Weary Williams. "We have them," shouted the man on the muckle-dun mule in triumph. "We will go now and start the reapers in the field." "This 's what comes uv exercisin' no good judgement in selectin, a place for a summer outin'," remarked "Red Nosed Pete." bitterly to "Limburger Sam" as they were dragged on toward the harvest field. "I told yer that Nebraska wan't no place for a man uv leisure to come to."—Tecumseh Chieftain.

Oh where, oh where is Coxe and Kem' Carl Brown, Ed Brown and the rest of them. Jim Jink, we should think, should not be forgot in stirring the mixture for the political pot. And Emery and Mathew and half a score more, whose last fall defeat was simply a bore. Why, more silent fellows can never be found. We should leave them in peace to heal up the wound.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians, prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by Odendahl Bros.

Have You Heard of The Lion's Mouth?

The old idea is adapted by a progressive American newspaper to meet modern requirements. Collier's Weekly is conducting a very novel and interesting competition for its readers each month. To enter the contest all one has to do is to review the issue of Colliers for the current month and answer the two or three questions which are printed in each issue giving such opinions and such suggestions as will aid in improving the paper. Collier's aims in this way to secure the assistance of every one of its readers in making the paper more to their liking. Every reader in fact becomes one of the editors and has his voice in building the greatest illustrated journal of the age.

The first prize each month awarded for the most helpful suggestion is $50 in cash with a second prize of $25 and eighteen other prizes of sets of books ranging in value from $32 down to $5. In all $329 of value given in prizes each month. There are, in addition cumulative cash prizes for those who win prize in successive month, and a big cash prize of $1,000 for the most valuable suggestion during 1903.

For the convenience of intending contestants who can not be promptly supplied by newsdealers, all the copies of Collier's for the current month will be sent postpaid together with a handsome proof of a drawing by Charles Dana Gibson upon receipt of 40 cents in stamps addressed to the lions mouth, Collier's Weekly, 438 West 13th Street New York.

The Great—
GERM AND INSECT DESTROYER

CONTAINS EVERY ANTISEPTIC AND GERMICIDE KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

HOG CHOLERA

is a germ disease of the intestines. The cholera bacteria finds its way into the animal through the drinking water or fifth, passing into the stomach and finally down along the intestines it sets up fermentation and from there through the blood, liver and other organs.

Hog cholera cannot be treated successfully unless treatment is commenced before the germ has reached the period of rapid multiplication. If taken in time it can be cured and in all cases prevented by the use of Liquid Koal because it is the only germicide that will pass through the stomach into the intestines and from there into the blood, permeating the whole system, and still retain its germ killing properties. All other so called cholera cures lose their potency by the acid reaction of the gastric juices of the stomach, hence have no value.

Liquid Koal is also the best remedy for chicken cholera.

Dear Sirs—I am a user of Liquid Koal and am well pleased with it. I would not try to do without it as I find it useful in a great many ways. I have had no sick hogs since I commenced using it a year ago. In my opinion it is the best and cheapest hog cholera prevention on the market to-day. You can use this as you wish. Any one wishing to know more about this please write to me.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Thedford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Thedford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stills up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Thedford's Black - Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Thedford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Thedford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to excel it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marblehead, Ill.
