Troy Hale says he wants those who borrow his pitch forks, bridles poll straps, neck yokes, collars, lines and scoops to please return them and receive a quarter for their trouble. He thinks it cheaper to pay a quarter than it is to run after them.

C. H. Bowman goes to Boelus this week with his race nag, Sundance, to participate in the races at that place Thursday and Friday. He will go from there to Hastings to take in the races there. Mr. Bowman has his nag in good trim and will doubtless win some of the prizes.

R. J. Nightingale has been invited to address the people of Ord on the 25th inst. when it is expected that the state board, who have the locating of the State Normal school will be present, and a reception will be given them. Ord has many good reason why she should have the Normal and we wish her success in the contest. Mr. Nightingale will speak favorably of the locating of the Normal at Ord.

In nominating L. A. Williams for sheriff the republicans of Sherman county selected a good man. He is a man of good ability and is very popular with the people. Several years ago he was nominated for this same position and although the odds were against him, came within about 14 votes of carrying off the plumb. This is the second time that his party has conferred this honor upon him, which shows the high esteem in which he is held. Mr. Williams will doubtless make a splendid campaign and if elected can be relied upon to make an honest and trusted officer.

Miss Ella Taylor and her sister came up from Grand Island last Saturday and spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Taylor. Mr. Taylor has been quite sick the past week and it was a great comfort to have his daughters with him. Miss Ella returned to Grand Island Monday but her sister remained a few days.

The populists of this county held their convention at Society hall in this city last Tuesday and placed the following ticket in the field:

For judge, J. A. Angier; Sheriff, Jens Christensen; coroner, F. E. Brewer; treasurer, S. N. Sweetland; clerk, C. F. Beushausen; surveyor E. B. Corning; superintendent, R. D. Hendrickson; assessor, Lawrence Peters.

This office acknowledges a very pleasant call Monday from Miss Nellie Hawk, in company with Miss Neva McNabb, of Craig Mo. who has been visiting here for a couple of weeks. Miss Neva departed for her home Monday over the B. & M. She has a position in a printing office at her home and will resume work on her return. She reports a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends here.

Two young men by the name of John Beudler and Fred Mickish, of Hazard township, while out near the B. & M. railroad track with rifle in hand last Sunday, shot through the window of a passenger coach and severely wounded a passenger in the arm. They were arrested and held for a preliminary hearing. It is thought to have been an accident but the facts have not been fully developed.

W. E. Smith met with quite a severe accident last Saturday morning which came near laying him off for a while. He was at work with Bob Young on the Zimmerman house. They were setting a petition when Bob's hammer missed the mark, and flying out of his hand came down on Smith's head, inflicting a severe scalp wound and taking the skin off his nose. Smith has a very sore head but is thankful that it is no worse.

Jacob Albers informs us that he received from E. J. Delaney of Brooklyn, N. Y. a draft for ten dollars to be given to J. H. Parshall to help re-build the mill that was blown to pieces in the recent heavy wind storm. Mr. Delaney is a whole souled fellow and has, since he left here, in many ways, manifested his deep interest in the welfare of Sherman county and her people. We extend thanks on behalf of Mr. Parshall and our citizens for this most generous gift.

Last Friday Morning during the heavy electric storm, lightning struck the W. T. Owen residence which was occupied by H. L. Bell and family, and done considerable damage to the building. Mrs. Bell stood near the stove with a plate in her hand. It was broken into pieces and she was knocked down. Her daughter was also badly shaken up, but fortunately they were not seriously injured. The lightning played all around the room, the chimney was tore down and the siding badly ripped up.

It seems good to see N. L. Talbot, one of our old republican wheel horses, again representing his, Clay township, at the convention last Friday. Mr. Talbot has been out of the county, a resident of Boelus, for the past seven years, but having built a new house and moved back on his homestead in Clay township is again a citizen among us. During his absence the republican party has suffered defeat several times. If we succeed this fall the pops can blame Mr. Talbot. He will no doubt help to mow a big swath as in days of yore.

Married

We are pleased to announce the marriage of Jacob Albers jr. to Miss Ida Haller, two of Sherman county's popular young people. The ceremony took place in this city, Tuesday August 18, 1903, Judge J. A. Angier officiating. Mr. Albers is well known to our people as a young man of enterprise. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Charles Haller of Clay township and has many admiring friends who wish them a happy and prosperous future.
