Churches and Church Work.

The several churches of this city have made preparations for Christmas exercises and no doubt there will be an abundance of good things for the children.

Christmas exercises will take place in the German church on the 25th at 7:30 p. m. All are welcome.

In a meeting last Sunday the German congregation decided to build a parsonage, plans for which are now under consideration.

Epworth League services every Sunday evening at the Methodist church. You are cordially invited to attend. The Leader for next Sunday night is Mrs. E. G. Taylor and the subject "A Chance for Eternity." Time 6:30.

W. R. Mellor is drilling the Epworth League choir.

Both of Rev. Madely's sermons were good last Sunday, you should have heard them.

The Methodist church Christmas exercises are to be held in Pilger's opera house Thursday evening Dec. 24th. The school has grown so that the church will hardly accommodate it, so to make room for all who wish to attend it was decided to hold the services at the hall. Come everybody.

OBITUARY.

Chas. H. Brothwell was born in Kent county, Michigan, Dec. 12, 1869 and died at his home near Rockville after a brief illness. Dec. 4, aged 33 years, 11 months and 22 days. He came to Nebraska with his parents in 1872 and lived in Red Willow county for several years. In 1884 they moved to Silver Creek, Merrick county. He was married to Miss Ida Bump of Clarks Neb. in 1882 and they moved to Howard county and settled on a farm south of St. Paul where they lived until last spring, when they sold out and moved to Rockville, Nebraska. To them three children were born, one dying in infancy, two daughters still survive aged 8 and 3 years, who with their mother mourn the loss of a kind father and husband. In 1891 he joined the Methodist church and was ever a follower of the lowly Nazarene. Mr. Brothwell was a quiet and unassuming man who always did his duty as he saw it and had a large number of friends wherever he lived. All who knew them join in condolence to the family in their hour of need—St. Paul Phonograph-Press.

When Old Santa Claus was in town last week he made the Model Restaurant his headquarters for Christmas Candies, Nuts, Fruits and Bonbons. Call and see us before you buy.

BAYNE & JONES.

Ed Draper commenced putting a coat of hard finish on James Johansen's residence Monday and finished Wednesday evening. Mr. Johansen expects to get moved into his own property the first of next week.

Peter Rowe, who has been working on the farm of Fritz Bichel near Divide the past three weeks, building some large cattle sheds, informed us Monday morning that Mr. Bichel had lost fifteen head of cattle with the blackleg in that length of time.

We received a few lines with an enclosed money order for two dollars from Mrs. L. E. Walworth asking us to continue the NORTHWESTERN to her address and wishing us a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Mrs. Walworth has our thanks and best wishes in return.

At the last regular meeting of the Loyal Mystic Legion thirteen new members were initiated and the meeting was adjourned to last Friday night when four more new members were taken in. There is a contest on hand and the deputy, Mr. Dubry, is stirring things up somewhat. At the next regular meeting, Monday night, they expect to elect officers and initiate fifteen new members into the mysteries of their order.

In the last week or so Ravenna has been pretty well represented at Loup City. First Chas. Miner and R. M. Thompson were over and took the fifth degree in Masonry. F. J. Valek was here Monday. C. A. Clark of the Ravenna Creamery company was here the fore part of the week as was also attorney C. E. Matson. The latter gentleman made us a friendly call. He was here on professional business in district court.

The new houses that are being built in town are progressing nicely. W. E. Smith is doing the inside work on his. E. A. Draper has finished plastering his own house and has put a coat of hard finish on James Johansen's house and is now putting a coat of hard finish on Lewis Bechthold's new residence. G. S. Leininger's house is being rapidly pushed to the front, the building is completely sheeted up and most of the rafters are in place.

Lincoln White was doing business in the city last Friday.

Ben Nelson of Washington township, was a county seat visitor Wednesday.

B. T. Snyder was moving out buildings and making fence on his residence property Tuesday.

Cliff Rien and Albin Ohlsen had the misfortune to run together while out skating last Sunday.

Several articles of interest have been crowded out of this issue but will be published next week.

Richard Tripplet and Frank Fowler drove up into Valley county near Ord last Sunday to visit Mr. Tripplet's brother.

The cold weather of last week caused the mill race to overflow and flood the road to the west river bridge. The water reached a depth of two feet at one time.

Henry Becker of the firm of Becker Bros., Grand Island, Neb. and Chas. C. Perry, their piano tuner, were in the city Thursday.

Lawrence Peters of Rockville township was a county seat visitor last Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Peters is the new county assessor elect.

Mr. Arthur who purchased the old Wing farm on Wiggle creek last summer, commenced building a new frame house on the place this week.

Several of our leading business men are putting out some very nice calendars this week. The real estate men especially, have some extra pretty and costly ones.

We are indebted to W. R. Mellor, J. W. Long, S. F. Reynolds, Leininger Bros., D. C. Leach, Johnson, Lorentz & Co., C. W. Conhiser each for a beautiful calendar.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a money order for $1.00 from Mrs. Wm. Naville who wishes the paper to continue to her address for the coming year.

Mrs. G. W. Hunter was taken with a very serious attack of hemorrhage of the nose last Wednesday evening and the loss of blood made her very weak. She is reported quite sick.

Dr. J. W. Jones had his barn moved from the lots back of the Baptist church to his residence property in the north-eastern part of town the fore part of the week. French, McNulty & Co. did the work.

Dan Carpenter who has been at Grand Junction, Colorado for the past thirteen months returned to this county Thursday of last week to visit his parents and other relatives near Austin. Dan has worked himself into a good position in a very short time, he is now one of the first hostlers on the D. & R. G. at Grand Junction. He expects to get an engine sometime next June.

The safe at the St. Elmo hotel has been locked for four months and no one has been able to work the combination. At the suggestion of Judge Gutterson, Mr. Erazim placed a large lamp near the lock until it got warm and then tried to work the combination, he succeeded beyond all his expectations, because at the first trial the safe came open. Tony says that he does not know the combination but was lucky enough to strike it.

J. P. Leininger and mother, Mrs. Henry Leininger, started for Omaha Tuesday noon in answer to a telegram calling them to the bedside of Henry Leininger their father and husband who has been at the Methodist hospital for some time. The telegram stated that Mr. Leininger was worse and told them to come. G. S. Leininger informs us that he heard from his brother Thursday morning and he said that their father had had a hemorrhage and although he had been resting quite well since then, they had not been able to rouse him from the stupor caused by it.

GOOD FOR CHILDREN.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Dr. Armstrong, of Delia, Texas, prescribes it daily and says there is no better cough remedy made.—Sold by Odendahl Bros.

Foe of Ritualism.

The Rev. R. S. Frillingham, the English clergyman who has caused a sensation by getting into a controversy with Bishop Potter of New York, regarding ritualism, is a short, portly, pleasant looking man, whose appearance suggests the successful drummer. He is a zealous foe of ritualism—"idolatrous worship," he calls it—and has been taking a trip around the world by way of a rest.

Bilious Colic Prevented.

Take a double dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears and a threatened attack may be warded off. Hundreds of people use the remedy in this way with perfect success. For sale by Odendahl Brothers.

Danes to Honor Shakespeare.

A movement has been started in Denmark to commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the production of "Hamlet" by erecting a statue of Shakespeare at the little town of Elsinore. The ancient castle of Cronberg, on the ramparts of which Hamlet held converse with the ghost of his father, forms the central point of the town. The plan has met with enthusiastic response throughout Denmark.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child become hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Odendahl Brothers.

Better Mail Service.

European mail can now be dispatched to the Far East by means of the great Transiberian railroad. Letters can to-day be sent from Paris, Berlin or Vienna via Moscow to Vladivostock and Port Arthur in from twenty-two to twenty-four days, while the time required by steamer mail via the Suez canal route is from six to eight weeks.

KADOL DYSPEPSIA CURE

Digests all classes of food, tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs. Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, and makes rich red blood, health and strength. Kadol Dyspepsia Cure rebuilds wornout tissues, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Gov. G. W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: "I have used a number of bottles of Kadol Dyspepsia Cure and have found it to be a very effective and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments. I recommend it to my friends. Sold by Odendahl Bros."

Eugene Field's

Views on Ambition and Dyspepsia.

"Dyspepsia," wrote Eugene Field, "often incapacitates a man for endeavor and sometimes extinguishes the fire of ambition." Though great despite his complaint Field suffered from indigestion all his life. A weak, tired stomach can't digest your food. It needs rest. You can only rest it by the use of a preparation like Kodol, which relieves it of work by digesting your food. Rest soon restores it to its normal tone.
